Ye Smudge Pot

Capital is gazing with appreciative eyes upon the undeveloped resources of the state. Therefore, it is about time a mental giant of Portland, thought up a law—preferably an income tax law, as there has been no new one for 67 days.

Frank Pearce has been suffering the past week and has been making regular trips to a doctor in Enterprise.

There seems to be some sort of a violent dispute going on between the opposing forces at the two leading institutions of learning.

One of the local husbands is being abused as winter comes. He wants to keep his house so warm that his daughter has been forced to Boston building from Salem, Oregon, refuses to stay inside.

The decision of the gentlemen's style show is that the correct hunting costume for this season consists of a pink, coral-colored white pants, yellow vest, shiny black boots and a top hat.

Who will be the first valley nitwit to be up-to-date, and what will be the accidentally shot for?

Such is life... (Emporia, Kan., Gazette) When we were a boy Sunday schools had libraries.

HAPPINESS

HAPPINESS in life is largely a matter of emphasis. Which is only another way of saying it is largely dictated by the mental attitude—the point of view.

Few individuals are free from disappointments and heart-aches. But in most lives the bitter is mixed with the sweet.

TAKE that unfortunate young lady from Philadelphia, for example, who because she found life futile, ended it all by jumping from an airplane 2000 feet in the air.

AS life goes this young lady had more to live for than thousands of her sisters. The necessities of life were provided, she enjoyed reasonably good health, but she could see only the disappointments and the futility of things.

VERY little thing might have dissuaded her, for such needless tragedies usually hang on little things. Assuming there was no physical or mental mal-adjustment, one word, a single phrase, a few hours before might have made all the difference in the world.

Perhaps if she had happened to read the Cosmopolitan instead of "Romance," she might now be enjoying herself, with her family and friends, instead of leaving them in grief and sorrow.

This is not an "ad" for one magazine or any reflection on the other, but it gives us an excuse for printing the following, which we regard as far better treatment of the subject than we could ever compose.

WHEN my luck seems all out And I'm down at the mouth, When I'm stuck in the North, And I want to go South;

When the world seems a blank And there's no one I love, And it seems even God's Not in Heaven above,

I've a cure for my grouch And it works like a shot— I just think of the things that I'm glad I am not:

A bird in a cage, A fish in a bowl, A pig in a pen, A fox in a hole,

A bear in a pit, A wolf in a trap, A fowl on a spit, A rug on a lap,

A horse in a stable, A cow in a shed, A plate on a table, The sheet on a bed,

The case on a pillow, A bell on the door, A branch on a willow, A mat on the floor,

When I think of the hundreds of things I might be, I get down on my knees and thank God that I'm me, Then my blues disappear, when I think what I've got, And quite soon I've forgotten the things I have not.

A hard winter coming, eh? Well it beats a soft, slushy one.
