LOWLY HUSKIES OUTPLAY BEARS BUT LOSE 6-0

California Wins By Lucky Break — Hufford Outshines Lom as Ground Gainer — Air Full Of Passes As Bitter Battle Closes.

MEMORIAL STADIUM, BERKELEY, Calif., Nov. 16.—(AP)—Battered on the line and outplayed almost all the way by a rushing, crushing Washington team California's Bears attacked every-thing on a swift aerial attack in the second period today to defeat the Huskies 6-0, and continue on an undefeated way towards the Pacific conference championship.

One "break" brought the victory to a California eleven that otherwise was swept off its feet by the terrific offensive produced by a team that rose to its greatest height in its last conference game.

Shortly before the close of the second period some 40,000 persons saw Gechan catch, then fumble a pass from his teammate, Marsh. That error was capitalized on for a touchdown. Had the Washington quarterback retained the ball, the Huskies would have started with a first down on California's 33-yard line. Instead, Gill, Bear fullback, fell on the ball and the Bears opened a drive toward the Washington goal.

Four plays tell the story of the only score and a California victory that was the hardest earned so far this season. Gill gained a yard in going out of bounds. Lom tried a pass, it was knocked down. He swung another on its way. Norton was underneath when it came down. It was a 24-yard gain and put the ball on Washington's 28-yard line. Lom passed again. Twenty yards away little Lee-Elsan Bear quarterback, snared the oval and raced along the sidelines to reach scoring ground. Beckert converted to make the score 7-0.

Fighting with all the reckless abandon of a team that has everything to gain and nothing to lose, the Huskies outplayed the Bears in the first half. Led by the charging Hufford, the boys from the north beat back their old-time rivals to once knock at the touch-down door from the two-yard mark.

The last fifteen minutes of play saw both teams throw passes with abandon, most of which fell incomplete. Not until the final gun cracked its message through the reaches of the big bowl did Bear rosters relax.

On the short end of the score, the Huskies went down to defeat fighting every inch of the way, their great and unlooked-for charge was built around a young halfback, Merle Hufford, whose brilliant ball lugging efforts formed a football treat in themselves. The speedy sophomore star packed the ball 31 times for a total yardage gain of 93 yards from scrimmage which gives some idea of Hufford's prowess. The Huskies made eight first downs from scrimmage and gained a total of 133 yards from onslaughts at the line. California made three first downs from scrimmage, one from penalties and one from passes. The Bears had the edge in yards from passes, gaining 106 to 64 for their opponents.

Eight passes were completed by California and six by Washington. Benny Lom was the biggest ground gainer for the Bears with 26 yards in ten tries. Marsh, left footed booter for the Huskies, punted for an average of 39.7 yards to 35.3 yards for Lom.

MOSCOW, Idaho, Nov. 16.—(AP)—Matty Mathew's tricky Gonzaguans trounced a heavier University of Idaho football team by 29 to 15 here today, in a colorful homecoming game.

CARDS TROD ON 13-7 BY SANTA CLARA ATTACK

Underdogs Spring Surprise By Victory With Odds Against Them — Fighting Squad Topples Proud Foe By Grit and Skill.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Calif., Nov. 16.—(AP)—Santa Clara, looked upon by the Stanford Cardinals as a "third-string" job, forced the football regulars onto the gridiron today and still smothered through to a 13 to 7 victory.

The Broncos were determined to win as a memorial to their teammate, Hank Luomo, who died this week following an operation, and that determination carried them to the greatest football heights they had attained this year.

The Stanford second string started the contest, but after Santa Clara had scored in the first six minutes of play on a 15-yard pass from Mettler to Haalimason and Mettler had converted, the Cardinals regulars were sent in. But they did not win, although once they marched deep into Santa Clara territory, only to be stopped in the shadow of the goal posts by a seemingly inspired Bronco defense.

Finally, in the third period, the Cardinals broke through for a touchdown with Fleischacker's pass to Moffett, who ran 16 yards for the score. Moffett added the extra point with a place kick to tie up the game at seven-all.

The Broncos won the battle in the final quarter when after having driven to the Stanford three-yard line only to be stopped, they scored from the 35-yard line mark on another pass, this time from Mettler to Simoni across the goal line. Mettler failed to convert.

Stanford threatened once more before the game ended taking the following kickoff on their own 37-yard line and going on a sustained march down to the Santa Clara six yard line, where they falled by inches to make first down.

Attendance at tomorrow night's battle between K. O. White, Chicago negro, and Tom Corbett, San Francisco slugger, is expected to equal the big crowd that saw Gene O'Grady, southern Oregon's former boy fighter, knock out Kid Dennis, Denver negro, here last week. In the mind of Promoter Tex Bickerstaff, it is expected to be better in that in all probabilities, it is apt to last longer.

Bickerstaff is well pleased with the manner in which he has been received in Medford and plans to give the best in the fighting program he can secure.

Stip is in the best country I have located in a long time," he said last night, "and I have been in Klamath Falls for the past thirty months. More of a floating population exists there than in Medford. I was told at first that Medford fans would not support my cards, and in the first two, I had only a fair support in preliminaries, but at this time I would like a back seat to any promoter on the coast."

"There's K. O. White, the big Chicago negro, who has fought before huge Chicago crowds and pleases them. He'll meet Tom Corbett in what I think will be one of the toughest battles seen here in a long time. Corbett is the same type of slugger as White and you see there is something bound to happen when they meet," he concluded.

Corbett is the first man to have ever won over O'Grady and is in the pink of condition. White worked out last night before a well pleased crowd at the armory and showed the fans how hard he can hit.

The first preliminary begins at 8:45 and bouts will be put on in rapid order.

ST. MARY'S GOAL STILL UNCROSSED
COLISEUM, Los Angeles, Nov. 16.—(AP)—St. Mary's college, undefeated and unscathed upon, kept its record unmarked here today by beating off a brilliant passing attack in the final quarter and defeated the University of California at Los Angeles 24 to 0. Coach Edwards "Elip" Madigan's second eleven played most of the game, but his regulars were called to half the 55-yard thrust of the Bruins which carried them deep in Gael territory as the game waned.

A PASS IN DUSK HUMBLER CORNELL PITT IS WINNER

HANOVER, N. H., Nov. 16.—(AP)—A bitter, surging Cornell team, fishing with all the brilliance of the great Red waves of the past, led Dartmouth by two points with less than a minute of tense play remaining late this afternoon. Through the dusk "Mary" Stevens, the Cornell hero of the day, threw one more pass, fighting to add to his list of points.

Another hero, Bill McCall in the green of Dartmouth livery, leaped into the air, snatched the ball on Cornell's 41-yard line, and in less than a dozen plays Dartmouth smashed down the field, over the Cornell goal, to one of the greatest conquests in all Dartmouth's history. The score was 13 to 14.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 16.—(AP)—The University of Pittsburgh's deception and speed proved too much for a heavier Carnegie Tech team here today and the 54,000 fans who anticipated a close scrap went away stunned by the undefeated Panther's 24 to 13 rout of the Tartan plaid.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—(AP)—Pennsylvania crushed Columbia by 20 to 0 before a crowd of 35,000 at Baker field today. The Red and Blue had four real scoring opportunities and cashed three of them for touchdowns.

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Nov. 16.—(AP)—The brilliant Bucknell eleven won its most impressive triumph of the season today by smothering Penn State 27 to 6. It marked the Bison's third straight victory over the Nittany Lions.

INDIANA UPSETS NORTHWESTERN BY LAST HALF RALLY

EVANSTON, Ill., Nov. 16.—(AP)—The Battlin' Hoosiers from Indiana, led by a winged foot, 155-pound halfback named George Ross, emerged from football's wilderness dramatically and suddenly today to defeat Northwestern, 19 to 14. In one of the most stunning upsets of the Big Ten campaign.

Trailing by an ominous margin of eight points with only ten minutes of the battle left to play, Ross turned defeat into victory with a brilliant performance as any football crowd ever witnessed, racing 13 and 89 yards, respectively, for touchdowns, and adding one point from placement for good measure, a total of 14 points or better than a point a minute.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 16.—(AP)—A long forward pass, that sailed through the air, straight as a shot, behind Iowa's goal line, gave old Pardee, the only undefeated eleven in the Western conference, a brilliant 7 to 0 victory over the Hawkeyes today.

Purdue, undefeated in six games, four of them in conference competition, conquered the Hawkeyes with two amazing aerial shots after the powerful Iowa line had refused to yield.

GREATEST THROG IN GRID ANNALS SEE ROCKNE WIN

SOLDIERS FIELD, Chicago, Nov. 16.—(AP)—In a dramatic, spectacular passing and scoring of plays Notre Dame vanquished Southern California, 13 to 12, and swept an unbeaten toward the Hoosier goal of a national gridiron championship.

In the lightning-like surge of one of the greatest inter-sectional games of the year, before the greatest crowd in the history of American football, 123,000 looked on in frenzied excitement. The actual paid admissions exceeded 120,000 officials stated. From a lead start the Hoosiers rallied to sweep the powerful Trojans off their feet.

Pillowed on his movable bed, just behind the Notre Dame bench, where he could pull the strings of team play personally for the first time in weeks, Knute Rockne forgot his ailing leg as his charges scored a triumph that was more convincing than the one point margin indicated.

Notre Dame seized and held the upper hand as Rockne rushed Cardie into the game to direct the first string attack. The Hoosiers, after missing the chance to score on the pass that bounded from Conley to Cardie to be declared illegal, again took to the air and tied the count on a single play, engineered by Jack Elder from his own 44-yard line. Cardie's failure to make the extra point on a place kick left the tenus deadlocked at the close of the half.

Slashing line plunging by Savoldi and Hill kept Southern California on the defensive in the third period. It was a 25-yard run back off a short punt by Cardie that led to the decisive scoring. The Notre Dame quarter twisted his way to the enemy 13-yard mark and Elder, on an end sweep made it first down on the 3-yard line. Savoldi made the remaining distance in two lances at the Trojan right tackle. Cardie then kicked the goal for extra point that proved so vital just a few minutes later. At this juncture it looked like a rout for the invading forces but Saunders, taking Cardie's kick off in a corner on his five-yard line, came roaring out into the open, shedding tacklers like a duck sheds water and being aided by fine interference as he gathered headway. At midfield, Saunders cut over sharply, eluded the last would-be tackler and sped across the goal in a pandemonium of cheers. Musick missed the goal.

New York City, a thousand millions of gold credit.

The deficit has been adjusted, with family creditors, chiefly.
Shortly before he died, Mr. Armour said to this writer, "Brisbane, don't get into the hands of creditors. They took away $50,000,000 from me and had me on my way to the cleaners, before I knew where I was."
Armour was once worth $200,000,000. The war and some other things ruined him, and his ruin killed him.

In silver flasks, there's no reason why a British ambassador, who had nothing to do with the prohibition law, shouldn't drink wine in French bottles. The law lets them import it.
President Hoover suggests that war should be made more humane, that the blockade, which uses starvation as a weapon in war, striking at women and children, should be stopped.
The League of Nations dislikes the idea. It says that if you stop blockading and starving you take away the league's most valuable weapons.
