

CO-OP BOARD TO DISCUSS CHANGE IN CONSTITUTION

Steps towards the rehabilitation of the Farmers Bureau Co-Operative on a sound business, legal and financial basis, now under consideration by the board of directors and O. C. Boggs, recently named president, and will be discussed at the annual meeting of the Co-Operative, to be held between January 1 and 15 next, the date to be fixed later.

Changes in the constitution and by-laws, held vital to the future success of the organization, will likely be given a hearing at this meeting.

Substantial decreases in the salary and overhead expenses have been made under the new order, and after the first of the year it is estimated a monthly saving of $745 will be made.

This is the dull season of the year in the organization, and it is thought if a fair profit is realized on the turkey pool, an even break will be secured for the winter months. Over 90,000 pounds of turkeys were sold to Savage & Co. of New York, and $28,000 paid out to the turkey raisers of the valley. The turkeys are scheduled to go on sale tomorrow and Saturday, for the Thanksgiving trade.

YEOMEN COMPLETING DANCE ARRANGEMENT

Preparations for the Yeomen dance tomorrow evening were nearly completed today and plans were underway to entertain an exceptionally large attendance for the first party, to be followed by a series this fall and winter. The committee in charge reported lodge members and their friends were expected from Ashland, Grants Pass, Central Point and possibly northern California. A special dance orchestra has been procured, with dancing beginning at 9 o'clock and ending at midnight, when a supper will be served.

ELKS TO TAKE HOME MANY FAT TURKEYS

Each able bodied member is urged to attend the Elks lodge meeting tonight and carry home a fine fat turkey, as immediately after the close of the session in the temple, a special assemblage will be held in the basement at which a number of turks will be auctioned off.

Each turkey is guaranteed to be corn, acorn and milk fed, to be denuded of its feathers and to have met death with a sanitary axe against its neck.

 The Priscilla circle members, Ladies Aid, of the First Methodist church held a covered dish luncheon at the church yesterday at one o'clock. Following the dinner, the business meeting was held and an interesting program given. Twenty-one members were present.

FORGERY PAIR TO DO PRISON TERMS

H. C. Armstrong, middle-aged traveling salesman, who told the court his home was in Orange, Calif., and Michael Linsahan, an itinerant worker, who records show, has been in police trouble often, were each sentenced this morning by Circuit Judge H. D. Norton, to indeterminate terms of from one to five years in state prison. Both entered pleas of guilty to charges of forgery. Armstrong declared that his previous experience with the law, had been two citations for speeding.

Linsahan said that he had forged a check because he was without funds or food. Armstrong said that following domestic trouble, he had travelled over the northwest and had drawn a check here without funds to cover.

NEGRO SPIRITUALISTS EVANGELISTIC SERVICE

Tonight at the special evangelist meeting at the Baptist church in Ashland, Miss Rita Gould and the large chorus choir will present a pageant of negro spirituals. Among the numbers sung will be "Standing in the Need of Prayer," "Mary and Martha," and "Do You Think I'd Make a Soldier."

Miss Stockley will preach on "A Jolly Earthquake."

Friday night will be birthday night. There will be birthday songs and birthday candles and birthday surprises, in addition to birthday cake. Sunday will be the closing day, with special preaching and special songs.

FORMER RESIDENT IS BURIED IN PHOENIX

PHOENIX, Ore., Nov. 21.—(Special) Funeral services for George E. James, Sr., were conducted at the Phoenix Presbyterian church on Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 with interment in the Phoenix cemetery.

Mr. James died rather suddenly at his home in Crescent City, Cal. Rev. Francis Bancroft conducted the funeral services and the Phoenix quartet, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Frame, Myron F. Sheets, and Mrs. Albert Solles, sang.

Mr. James was a former resident of this community, his home being on the highway south of Phoenix. He had a large circle of friends and acquaintances here, all of whom join in extending sympathy to his bereaved family.

Those from out of town attending his funeral were his wife, Mrs. George James of Crescent City, Calif., his son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. George James, Jr., of Kerby, Oregon, and his younger son, Walter James of California. Mrs. Geo. James, Jr., was formerly Miss Leta Stevens.

LONG TIME ODD FELLOWS ANSWER ROLL AT MEETING

The second of the series of monthly entertainments being given by the Odd Fellows lodge of Medford was presented last evening to a crowd comprising several visitors from Ashland, Jacksonville, Central Point and Gold Hill.

The program, quite different from anything before presented, proved a very enjoyable one, and everyone pronounced high approval. A feature that was especially interesting was a roll call of all members present, each one responding with his name and the number of years he had been a member of the order. This brought out the statement that James Burns of Jacksonville lodge has been a member for 50 years; G. W. Trefren of Ashland for 45 years; W. E. Cooper of Ashland for 43 years; T. W. Dury of an Odd lodge for 41 years; and others from 36 years down.

Brief remarks were made by a number of the visiting and local members.

"Nick" Kime, the well known old-time fiddler, and H. W. Canger accompanying at the piano, furnished musical numbers that added spice to the evening.

One of the hits was a rube sketch by Ed Eldred, with his boy, and Fred Miltenberger in a ventriloquist and imitation comedy entitled "Hank, Julius and Alfalfa Going on the Road." Mr. Eldred was at his best in his part and Mr. Miltenberger furnished an engaging surprise with his clever imitations of fowls, animals and machines.

The program closed with a well prepared and served luncheon.

Loyal Women's Class Has Regular Meeting
 Mrs. Amanda Cunningham was hostess Tuesday afternoon to members of Loyal Women's class of the First Christian church, at the home of Mrs. O. O. Alenderfer. During the business meeting, a report was made that 134 calls had been made by members of the class during the last month.

A nominating committee with Mrs. Carter as chairman was appointed. Mesdames Kirkpatrick and Krouse were named to assist her.

Mrs. A. F. Walter Kresse and Mrs. R. J. Conroy left this morning for San Francisco. They plan to attend the Stanford - California game Saturday at Palo Alto.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Marshall and daughter Marjorie left today for Palo Alto, where they will be the guests of Lt. Com. and Mrs. James E. Brenner. They will return to this city after Thanksgiving.

At the Degree of Honor Protective association meeting in the Althea hall this evening, an interesting program and social hour will take place.

Members of the high school group of Christian Endeavor of the First Christian church will have a party this evening in the recreation hall of the church.

PHOENIX PAGEANT ON SUNDAY NIGHT

PHOENIX, Ore., Nov. 21.—(Special) — Since publishing the items for this community the first of the week, at which time the announcement was made that the missionary pageant scheduled for Sunday night, November 24, had been postponed, plans have again been changed and the pageant will be given.

The pageant is entitled, "Making the Isles of Fear the Isles of Faith."

It depicts life in the Philippine Islands, and shows the advance of Christianity there.

A number of young people and juniors are taking part in this pageant and all are putting forth strenuous efforts to make it a success. All players will be costumed.

Rev. Bancroft will bring a sort of message in connection with the evening program. Very little of the pageant is conversation, the larger part of it is music and song.

The pageant is directed by Mrs. John Roberts. Mrs. Henry W. Frame will assist her as organist.

The pageant will be given on Sunday evening during the church hour, from 7:30 to 8:30. Practice will be held at the church on Saturday afternoon at 2:00.

BERRYDALE CLINIC FOR WELL BABIES

Mothers in the Berrydale and Mill districts are reminded by the County Health Unit of the monthly baby clinic to be held there next Tuesday from 1:30 to 4 o'clock. The unit also reminds the mothers that these are "well" baby clinics. A complete physical examination is given each child and the mother is given instructions, accordingly. Babies under six months ordinarily are taken to the family physician or to a clinic once a month. Infants from six months to a year old are given such attention every two or three months and those older are generally given examinations from three to six months.

Appointments for the clinic may be made at Walden's store and the clinic will be held under the direction of Dr. Emily Dolcom and Miss Augusta Glover of the Health Unit in the new Berrydale Community Health House.

CONDUCT LAST RITES FOR PHOENIX PIONEER

PHOENIX, Ore., Nov. 21.—(Special) — The funeral services of Theodore Engle were conducted Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the beautiful little cemetery at Phoenix, with many friends and acquaintances in attendance.

The services were conducted by Rev. Brownrigg, pastor of the Christian church here. Rev. Brownrigg was a neighbor and close friend. Two musical numbers were given by the Phoenix quartet, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Frame, Myron F. Sheets, and Mrs. Albert Solles.

Mr. Engle was a graduated pharmacist and an accountant of
