FARMERS WORRY IN SAMS VALLEY AS RAIN LACKING

SAMS VALLEY, Ore., Nov. 21 .-Special.) - Sunday morning was the first here for a week that the ground has not been covered with a Beavy coating of frost. The milder spell, as usual, lasted but a short time and the thermometer droptime and the thermometer drop-ned back again Monday morning to the prevalent freezing weather. As low as 12 degrees has been re-ported by some of our residents during the past two weeks. The farmers are becoming more deeply concerned each day over the dis-couraging prospects for next year's eron. The dry season has resulted The dry season has resultein several deep wells having been drilled in this district, with prom-

OPPOSE OVERSEER

2fon, 4ll, Nov. 21.—(F)-Mrs. Alexander Dowie, widow of the founder of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church, has accepted an invitation to return to Zion, seat of the church, and lead the group that opposes the overseership of Wilbur Glenn Voliva.

Mrs. Dowie wrote Tuesday from Greensburg, Ohlo, she was con-vinced the healing power of her late husband had been transmitted to her. She plans to conduct serv icen in Bethesda house, headquar-ters of the "independents," and bless and lay hands on the afflict ed who wish to be healed, he friends said.

There are about 100 in the group opposing the leadership of Voliva, who succeede to leadership upon the death of Alexander Dowie

In recent years Mrs. Dowie has lived away from Zion with her son, Gladstone Dowie, an Episcopalian
