Dangerous Carve Ahead for Mr. Turkey!

Thanksgiving is only a few days away and it is through the family dinner that Thanksgiving can so aptly be expressed. In the savory steam from the turkey, in the appetizing tang of the cranberry, and in the reverie of the hour afterward, let us contemplate the real pigment of happiness. Let us, in short, bow our heads to the triumph of Home, where all happiness must begin and endure.

ESSAY WRITERS TO GET PRIZES

There were approximately 2100 donors in the Community Chest drive just completed, a decided increase over any other charity effort that has ever been attempted in Medford. Hamilton Patton, chairman of the drive, announced today.
While the drive is over, donations are still being received, and local residents, who have not donated, are especially urged to leave cash or sign pledges, either at the chamber of commerce or with Mr. Patton at the Southern Building and Loan association on Sixth street.
Awards of the pennants for winning teams in the drive and to writers of essays in the chest essay contest will be awarded at the Craterian theatre tomorrow evening between the first and second shows by Mayor A. W. Pipes.

CENTRAL POINT CORPS TO RESUME ACTIVITY

CENTRAL POINT, Ore., Nov. 22.—(Special)—Owing to so many members of the Women's Relief corps working during the fruit season, the organization has been rather inactive for a time, but now that election of officers is due for our next meeting. All members are urgently requested to be at our hall for the next regular meeting at 2:30 o'clock Saturday, December 7, in addition to the regular work, there will be a birthday party for those whose birthday comes during the last six months of the year, to be entertained by those whose birthdays occur during the first half with a program and refreshments.

SON OF DR. BENNETT HERE ON VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill W. Bennett of Bremerton, Wash., have been visiting with Mr. Bennett's father and mother, the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Alexander Bennett, of the First Methodist church. The son is assistant manager of the Peninsular Savings and Loan Co. of the navy yard city and is on vacation. Yesterday the trip to Crater Lake was enjoyed and the day before the scenic trip over the Siskiyou to California. Today the family visited relatives in Ashland. The visitors leave for Portland and Seattle Saturday.

PRINCE HAS CLOSE CALL IN AIRPLANE

LONDON, Nov. 21.—(AP)—The Prince of Wales narrowly escaped a collision in the air while he was making a practice flight in his Moth plane at Heston yesterday.
There was a slight mist over the ground as the prince circled over the airfield before landing, and it obscured his view of another airplane preparing to come down. The prince and the other pilot saw the danger in the nick of time and avoided each other by a very slight margin.
The prince had a chat with the pilot of the other airplane before he left the field.

PHONE RATE REVISION IS SOUGHT BY FRISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22.—(AP)—A revision of the increased rates recently granted the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company by the state railroad commission, was sought by the city of San Francisco, contending in its petition the rates will give the company a 7 per cent, instead of a 6-1/3, or customary return, on its investment.
