Juvenile Pupils Recital Next Tuesday Evening.

Miss Ruth Luy and Mrs. E. E. Gore are presenting their juvenile pupils in recital Tuesday evening, November 26 at 8:00. Miss Luy, who returned in September from Steamboat Springs, Colo., where she took professional work in the art of the dance, will present the breakaway, tap and other attractive dances in solo and group.

Mrs. Gore will feature children's fundamental work as presented in piano class under the heads of rhythm, tone quality and interpretation. The essential qualities of good piano playing cannot be separated only for the purpose of analysis and emphasis. Among the smaller children to be presented are Louise Keesee, Gerald Keesee, Jean Pease, Roger Olmschild, Eloise Brownlee, Eleanor Sheets, Helen Cox, Wilson Church and Richard Schuchard.

A group of slightly older pupils will alternate with the dance ensembles. The public is invited to attend.

Shell Company Employees Enjoy Dinner and Dance.

Employees of the Shell Oil company, with their friends and families enjoyed a no-host dinner and dance at Mrs. Travis' Inn at Phoenix Saturday evening.

Everyone was dressed as a little boy or girl, in rompers, aprons or some other apparel of the younger generation. Knee trousers and rag dolls were much in evidence.

Covers were laid for 29 and the decorations were carried out in red and yellow, the Shell oil colors. Miniature dolls for the women, and small animals for the men were given as favors. Appropriate children's games and dances were featured. Hugh Thompson won first prize for the cleverest costume.

Surprise Birthday Dinner for Carl Pearson and Miss Pearson.

A surprise, in the form of a birthday dinner party, was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pearson last Sunday in honor of Carl Pearson and daughter, Christine. Two beautiful birthday cakes were presented, one having 15 candles and the other three times as many. Two birthday cakes were also presented to Mrs. Lang and son, Arthur.

Guests present were Mrs. H. C. Glasscock, Nellie Glasscock, Mrs. Lang and daughter, Arthur Lang, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Shirley and son, Darrell, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Scripter, Kenneth and Annis Scripter, Lucille Shirley, Mary Hight, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pearson and children, Christine, Eileen, Edith, Beverley and Lucille.

Children American Revolution Meet With Misses D'Albini.

General Joseph Society Children of the American Revolution will meet with Misses Ruth and Corine D'Albini as hostesses Friday, November 29th at 2:30 p. m.

This promises to be one of the most interesting meetings of the year, as there is a happy surprise in store for the society.

Each member will give their own interpretation of "What Thanksgiving Means to Me."

Dues are payable at this time and each one who has earned their Champoeg contribution is asked to bring it to the committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller Entertain Relatives from Panama.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Miller had as their guests the past week Mr. Miller's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Leroy, of Cristobal, Panama.

Mr. Leroy has been in the government flying service at France field for the past year. Before being stationed in Panama, Mr. Leroy served three years at Crissfield, California.

Mrs. Leroy will visit her mother in San Jose before returning to the Canal zone.

Miss Mary Gilbert Leaves for Kansas City.

Miss Mary Gilbert, member of the senior high school faculty, will leave Sunday for Kansas City where she will attend the Nineteenth Annual meeting of the National Council of Teachers of English.

At Lawrence, Kansas she will be met by her sister, Mrs. Thomas D. Cutsforth, who with her husband, is at the University of Kansas, completing work for their Ph. D. degree in psychology, under Raymond B. Wheeler, formerly of the University of Oregon.

Daughters of Veterans Hold Friday Meeting.

The Daughters of Veterans of the civil war met at the Armory Friday evening for their regular session. Officers for the coming year were nominated and arrangements were made to send pears to the soldiers' home at Roseburg, as a contribution to the Thanksgiving celebration. Mr. Lyman was reported to have enjoyed entertaining Chester A. Arthur Post, G. A. R., last week.

The next meeting will be on the second Friday in December, the 13th, when officers will be elected.

Miss Baughman Entertains New Bridge Club

Miss Dorothy Boughman entertained members of a newly organized bridge class with a party at her home Friday evening. During the course of the evening names were drawn for presents to be given at a Christmas party December 13.

Guests at the party were Mrs. Ruth Shangle, Mrs. Gordan Kershaw, Mrs. Lloyd Sanders, Miss Eleanor Carey, Miss Emily Weber, Miss Fritzie Snider.

East Side Circle Met With Mrs. Lyman

The East Side circle of the First M. E. church met with Mrs. A. E. Lyman Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. T. G. Helze presiding. Mrs. J. W. Smylie led the devotions and Mrs. Riley D. Henson conducted a very interesting Bible exercise.

During the social hour Mrs. Lyman, assisted by Mrs. R. A. Koppes, served refreshments.

P. E. O. Luncheon Medford Hotel Monday

On Monday, chapter A. A. of P. E. O., held a luncheon at the Hotel Medford, honoring Mrs Grace Kent Macgruder, the state organizer of P. E. O. Yellow candles and yellow and white chrysanthemums carried out the official colors of P. E. O. in a most artistic manner.

After a delightful luncheon the chapter met for a business session and initiation at the home of Mrs. E. A. Moore.

Mrs. Macgruder's visit, although official, proved a most happy and beneficial one to both officers and members of chapter A. A., who will look forward to another visit with much pleasure.

Two candidates were initiated into the chapter, Mrs. J. F. Fliegel and Miss Gertrude Parker.

Mrs. Warner Hostess Thursday Bridge Luncheon

Mrs. W. J. Warner was hostess at a 1 o'clock bridge luncheon at her home Thursday. The guests included Mesdames L. B. Humphrys, Emil Mohr, D. A. Chambers, Olen Arnspiger, D. G. Tyree, Howard Hill, R. B. Hammond, R. E. Green, W. B. Robinson, Jack Boyt and C. C. Lemmon.

Women's Club Has Delightful Costume Party

Some of them were clad in elaborate wedding dresses of 50 years ago. Some wore bizarre gunny sack costumes—Rx for the others, they were just plain, ragged moderns. Adrienne Steward, the hostess at the Business and Professional Women's "Hard Time" party Tuesday night at her home on Geneva avenue was charming in a long, tight-fitting suit that must have been ultra-stylish about 15 years ago.

A sensation of the evening was one well-known business woman who arrived late, cleverly disguised as a man. It was at least half an hour before her identity was determined.

Mrs. Claude Porter, whose husband is the new pastor at the Presbyterian church, gave an entertaining account of her business career in Washington, D. C. where she was employed in the U. S. Labor department during the World war.

There isn't much that Mrs. Porter doesn't know about the ups and downs of women in business, for she began work as a stenographer when three dollars a week was good wages, and office girls wore their hair in braids. Mrs. Porter also gave a vivid description of the beauty of Washington.

Miss Ruth Luy, well-known local dancing instructor was featured on the program in a clever dance number. The refreshments were in keeping with the hard-time costumes.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley D. Henson entertained with a 6 o'clock dinner Thursday, honoring Mrs. Elizabeth May Whipple of Los Angeles. Covers were laid for six.

Woman's Class Meets With Mrs. Robert Hailey

Mrs. Robert H. Hailey entertained the Woman's Bible class of the First M. E. church Thursday afternoon, Mrs. D. T. Lawton, class president, leading the devotions and offering prayer. A most pleasing feature of the afternoon was a report of conditions found in Norway, Germany and other countries, by Mrs. Samuel Bateman. During the social hour, Mrs. Hailey assisted by Mrs. Nellie Haley, Mrs. Ella Peters, Mrs. E. S. Hitzler served cake and coffee.

Those present were: Mrs. D. T. Lawton, Mrs. Martha Gore, Mrs. Georgia Blackburn, Mrs. Geo. Mordoff, Mrs. Ida Dickman, Mrs. Dora Hess, Mrs. Ida Jackson, Mrs. Samuel Bateman, Mrs. C. W. Conklin, Mrs. Ella Peters, Mrs. Riley D. Henson, Mrs. Nellie Haley, Mrs. Cole, Mrs. Nelson J. Wiley, Mrs. E. S. Hitzler, Mrs. Joe T. Daniels, Miss Bethel and Mrs. R. H. Hailey.

Mrs. Henson Entertains Missionary District Officers

Mrs. Riley D. Henson entertained the district officers of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church. Plans for the year's work were discussed.

During the social hour, Mrs. Henson, assisted by Mrs. Nelson J. Wiley, served cake and coffee. Those present were Miss Helen Carlton, president, of Central Point; Mrs. Lula Howard, treasurer, of Ashland; Mrs. J. R. McCracken, past president, of Ashland; Mrs. Nelson J. Wiley, corresponding secretary; Mrs. A. E. Lyman, recording secretary; Mrs. W. W. Walker, thank offering secretary, all of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Van Hoetenburg of Sams Valley, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Jordan of Talent were among those who attended the Stanford-University of California game at Palo Alto Saturday.
