

Society

While social activity, unlike charity, does not always begin at home—it is centered around the family hearth this week. The secret is—Thanksgiving. A sort of mysterious program of preparation is going on within each family circle, and is typically enough, jealously guarded against the too close scrutiny of the outside world.

A number of dinner parties are, however, scheduled for that day, at the local hotels, but even about these, the hosts and hostesses have not too much to say. Among those who will entertain friends at the Hotel Medford on Thursday are the following: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Hutchison, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hill, Jack Carlo and Mrs. T. J. Amspoker, Mrs. Maude Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. John Orth.

Elks and Legion Will Top Week's Social Calendar.

The two leading social events of the week will be the Elks' party Wednesday night at the temple, and the American Legion annual Thanksgiving dance at the Oriental Gardens Thursday night.

The dance public and others will be pleased to learn that Jack Bowring's orchestra has been secured for the latter event at no little trouble and expense. L. C. Garlock and a competent committee have charge of the affair and from all reports, large parties will attend from Ashland and surrounding points. Bowring's orchestra are said to be clever entertainers and promise a series of stunts and skits throughout the evening. It is expected that this party will be even larger than the Armistice day ball. The committee announced at noon today that both the Medford and Ashland football squads will be guests of honor at the party.

Dinner Club Meets At Lewis Ulrich Home.

Mrs. Lewis Ulrich was hostess to the dinner club of which she is a member, at her home, 839 Minnesota avenue, last night. Covers were laid for 12, including Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Kidd, Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Hogan, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Sliester, Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Thayer and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich.

American Legion Dances At Jacksonville Popular.

The American Legion club of Jacksonville, who a week ago last Saturday inaugurated a program of weekly dances to extend through the winter, has the early satisfaction of knowing that its plan is an assured success. Crowds of dance lovers from Medford, Ashland and various points throughout the valley are seeking their Saturday night diversion in the historic old town, made lively by the strains of the Imperial orchestra whose music peals forth from the U. S. hotel.

One of the principal drawing cards is the popularity contest which will be concluded at the termination of the program on New Year's eve. A number of feminine candidates have already sprung into the limelight and more are due to follow, their votes coming with the purchase of tickets and cast in the ballot box each week. A list of handsome prizes are offered by merchants of Medford and surrounding points for the six most popular girls attending.

B. and P. W. Club Holds Peppy Song Rehearsal.

The regular Thursday noon luncheon of the Business and Professional Women's club will be postponed this week, because of Thanksgiving coming on that day. A successful and peppy song rehearsal was held at the home of Mrs. R. C. Mulholland last night with over 15 members of the organization in attendance. It was decided to schedule a like rehearsal every Tuesday night, the location to be announced later. Clever and appropriate songs will be learned for the state Business and Professional Women's convention to be held here in May. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Mulholland at the conclusion of last night's meeting.

Williamsons Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Williamson and a number of their friends entertained Saturday evening at the country home of the former on Beall Lane, in honor of Dr. and Mrs. R. Scott of Seattle, who stopped over here for a few days' visit on their way to Los Angeles for the winter. Mrs. Williamson is a niece of Dr. and Mrs. Scott.

Lady Elks Have Day.

All brother Elks will discreetly withdraw from the temple tomorrow at 2 o'clock to let the ladies have their day. Mrs. E. C. Gaddis, Mrs. L. Bundy and Mrs. J. W. Mitchell are the committee in charge of the regular Elks Ladies' day activities which will take place during the afternoon from 2 to 5. Bridge, pool and refreshments will be the order of the afternoon.

Bible Class Convenes.

The Women's Bible class of the local Presbyterian church is holding its regular monthly meeting in the church parlors this afternoon, the session having begun at 2 o'clock. Members whose birthdays occur in October, November and December will be honored at the meeting.

Eastern Stars Feast.

Officers and substitute-officers of the local chapter of Eastern Star enjoyed a 6 o'clock dinner, served by members at the Masonic hall last night. The rooms and tables were bright and cheery in holiday decorations of red and green. Twenty-six attended the function. The evening was spent playing bridge.

P. E. O. Meets Tomorrow.

The A. A. chapter of P. E. O. will hold their regular semi-monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. C. C. Goldsberry in Central Point tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. An educational day program is scheduled, with Mrs. C. D. Thompson in charge.

COPCO PLAYERS GIVE NORRIS PLAY TONIGHT

The Copco players are to be on KMED tonight between 9 and 10 p. m. in their presentation of Miss Helen Norris' play, "The Mask." Miss Norris has written "The Mask" especially for the Copco cast. It is said to be a sparkling story of one of the tragedies of the late war that turned out as a thanksgiving. The cast includes Jo Murray Roedel, Maude Coddling, Earle Davis and F. T. Fisher. The cast is much interested in "The Mask" and should give their best in the performance tonight.

REALTY BOARD PLANS ROGUE ADVERTISEMENT

The Realty Board is making a drive among the business men to secure monthly contributions, covering a period of six months, to advertise the Rogue River valley outside of Oregon.

There are now a large number of people inquiring about southern Oregon thru the different chambers of commerce and members of the realty boards.

There will be a big immigration to the coast this year and the idea of the realty board is to attract these people to this valley.
