Former Medford People Spend Past Week Here

Mrs. G. A. Gardner and daughter Geraldine of Eugene, were Medford visitors during the week, spending Thanksgiving with Mrs. Gardner's brother, Sanford Richardson, at Central Point and attending the Shearer concert at the Presbyterian church Friday night. Miss Gardner, a former Medford girl, is a soprano in music.

Invitations have been issued for a one o'clock luncheon and bridge party at the home of Mrs. H. B. Prentice on Monday afternoon, December 2. Mrs. Harrington will be joint-hostess with Mrs. Prentice.

Popular Choice Greater Medford Club President

MRS. ALLEN B. DRURY

Mrs. Allen B. Drury, who, in spite of her comparatively short residence in Medford, having come here a little over a year ago with Mr. Drury from Birmingham, Mich., was selected in September as the popular choice to head the Greater Medford club is one of Medford's most enthusiastic boosters.

Interviewed yesterday, she based her faith in this city partially on the almost miraculous strides Medford has made during the past 16 years, when she was last a resident here. At that time, she remained in the valley but two years, living on their orchard property near the city, an interest which they still retain.

The Drurys left here for Illinois, where they remained for a time. Then they lived in Detroit and later moved to Birmingham. In the latter city, she was actively engaged in club work, and devoted considerable of her time to the Community House of Birmingham.

Girls League Give Delightful Thanksgiving Tea

The second of a series of afternoon teas, being given by the Girls' League, was held Tuesday afternoon in the domestic science rooms of the high school. The rooms were artistically decorated, carrying out a Thanksgiving day motif, with the table decorated with a "horn of plenty."

The tea was sponsored by the Junior Girls, and the work of making arrangements, decorating the rooms, and issuing the decorations was done by committees chosen from the Junior class. The object of these teas is to bring the parents, students and faculty members together on a social plane. Approximately 150 people were served.

Those who served were Winifred Warner, Flora McMath, Geraldine Latham and Melva Parrett.

The committees in charge were: Invitations, Lucile Lowry, chairman; Helen Bessler, Irene Brewald, Mildred Walker, Winifred Law, Helen Rice, Gene Whitlock, Leona Daugherty; tea, Harriett Campbell, chairman, Ruth Clement, Barbara Fulton, Ruth Miner, Dorothy Stead, Margaret Childers, Bernice Chapman, Mary Kate Walters, Wilda Hewitt, Beside Alessio; program, Clementina Smith, chairman, Flora, McMath, Helen Wilson, Josephine Anderson, Helen Williams, Lucille Murry; table and decorations, Melva Parrett, chairman, Winifred Warner, Barbara Drury, Dorcen Lefortte, Geraldine Lathrop, Helen Wood, Jean Woodford; reception, Doris Hundy, chairman, Irene Carlon, Bertha Saylor, Bertha Crane, Clara Mary Fason, Mary Norris, Marjorie Redwood.

Ampoker and children, Gertrude Joan and Bobby Suzanne, of Eugene, Ore., and John Carle. The Ampoker family returned to Eugene Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Davis entertained at their Thanksgiving dinner guests at the Hotel Medford, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Perry and son Al.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fleigel had as their guests Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. George Parker of Grants Pass, and Miss Gertrude Parker of this city.

The Misses Alice Holmbeck and Beulah Gore, both students at the University of Oregon, returned to Medford to spend Thanksgiving at the E. E. Gore home. Other guests who were entertained by the Gore family Thursday were Professor Willie Collins of the University of Oregon, Mrs. George Andrews, George Edward Andrews, Mrs. George Gardner and daughter Miss Geraldine, of Eugene, and Mrs. Stewart.

Griffin Creek School Scene of Dinner Party

More than 100 students, faculty members, parents, alumni and special guests attended the Thanksgiving dinner at the Griffin Creek school Wednesday night. Some of those present were students at Griffin creek more than 30 years ago.

Members of the Community club served a delicious dinner, places being laid at several long, decorated tables. Mrs. Susanne Homes Carter, county school superintendent, gave an interesting talk which was followed by other program features. Mr. Judy acted as toastmaster during the evening.

Elks Dance Wednesday Night

The Elks annual Thanksgiving party, held in the temple Wednesday night, was well attended, and enjoyed by all. Wilson Waite's orchestra furnished the music for this function, and special features were interspersed throughout the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. K. N. Moty were among the Medford people who gave joy to two other families, besides their own happy circle, on Thanksgiving, when they served a turkey dinner at 7 o'clock at their home of West Tenth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farlow and daughter Beth of Lake Creek, Mrs. Dodge, John H., and the Arden Tyrrell family of Medford were entertained at the J. R. Tyrrell home Thanksgiving day. A lovely setting of amber colors added cheer to the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Muir of Griffin Creek were dinner guests of Mrs. M. D. Wells, 418 King street, Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Marsh had for their guests Mr. and Mrs. J. Crafton and son Sykes, of Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sullinger of Talent entertained at their home on Thanksgiving day. Their guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Con Devore and son; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Guenther and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Guenther; Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Wilson; Mrs. John Wolf and Mr. J. J. Wolf. The afternoon was spent in playing cards and pitching horseshoes and a fine time was enjoyed by all.

The Hotel Medford was the scene of a number of dinner parties Thursday, the following being some of the hosts and hostesses: Mr. and Mrs. John Peter, Mrs. Lamm, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Edminston, Mrs. E. B. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burch, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Hutchison, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hill, Mrs. Maude Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. John Orth.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bruton of this city were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Bruton's mother, Mrs. H. A. Gulle, at Grants Pass Thursday.

Rotarians Will Enjoy Dinner at Guild Tuesday

Local Rotarians are looking forward to Tuesday evening, December 3, when the Women of Rotary will entertain them at a dinner at guild hall beginning at 6:30 o'clock.

Although the exact nature of the program to be given during the evening has not been divulged, enough clues have been picked up to assure one that it will be clever. Mrs. John Perl is chairman of the entertainment committee.

The purpose of the dinner party is to give the members of Rotary and their wives an opportunity to become better acquainted with each other. Mrs. Louis B. Humphrys, president of Women of Rotary, said yesterday that Rotarians may bring guests if they notify her at 232 before Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

Pleasant Day Spent With Mr. and Mrs. Leo Young

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Young entertained at their home on Stewart avenue with a dinner on Thanksgiving, followed by a very pleasant afternoon and evening, with music, dancing and visiting.

A pleasant part of the program was the music by Mr. Weed on the violin, Mrs. Bond at the piano and Howard Conad, drums.

Pickett, the Misses Ha Evans, Marjorie Gebhardt, Lyla and Lela Young, Lincoln Gebhardt, Howard Conad, Allen Gebhardt and Charles and Robert Young.

Ice on Green Springs Entices Local Skaters

While the sun shines in Medford, not many miles away the ice is thick enough for excellent skating, and a number of local parties have motored to the summit of the Green Springs mountains within the past week to enjoy the sport. The large reservoir, where the ice is plenty deep for safe skating, is located just two miles to the left of the summit.

Anyone interested in obtaining information about skating at this particular place should see Clarence Palmer at Brophy's jewelry store, as Mr. Palmer has conducted several skating excursions from Medford, including one on Thanksgiving day. Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, Paul Steiger, Arthur Patman, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rimard, and Joseph Palmer were among the local people who skated there.

Katherine Stang's Students To Give Recital Soon

Mrs. Katherine Stang's dancing studio will give a recital in the hour future for her ballet students. The ball room students have been so pleased that they have been taking their friends. As it is impractical to teach too many, a new class is being formed and during the holidays a joint dancing party will be given for these students.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hampson accompanied by their family, Miss Mildred, Barbara and Charles, motored to Crescent City early Thursday morning and spent the day and night as guests at the home of Mr. Hampson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hampson.
