BALLOT COUNT TO BE SPEEDED BY COURT PLAN

May Order Double Boards for Larger Precincts of Jackson County—Lincoln Voters Get Registration Cards, Books.

Steps towards speeding up the counting of Jackson county election returns, so that the counting in the future will not require longer, proportionately, than the campaign, have been taken. The county clerk is assembling facts and figures for the consideration of the county court, who, when plans for the spring primary are formulated, may order double-election boards in the largest precincts of the county.

Most of the Medford precincts, and a majority of the Ashland precincts, and the Gold Hill precinct since it was enlarged to take in the Rocky Point precinct, will probably be accorded more help for election tabulations. Two or three of the Medford precincts have more than 500 registered voters. It took from 29 hours to 45 hours to count the votes after they were cast, or four working days of eight hours, during the last general election. This is held to be too much of a hardship on the counties.

Under the double-board system, the counting of the ballots starts with the casting of the first 50 ballots, and the returns are available an hour after the polls are closed, instead of three days, as under the present system.

The county clerk this week sent registration books and cards to Lincoln, the new precinct in the southern end of the county. There are close to 75 voters in the precinct. Hereafter they will be compelled to travel as far as 20 miles to vote. Now they will not be forced to make a long journey to exercise their prerogative as American citizens. Mrs. Beulah DeCosta has been named registrar. The county clerk has also started work on creation of election boards for the coming year, and there will be numerous changes.

SPORTSMEN MEET IN GAME CONFAB

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 5.—(AP)—Forty delegates from all sections of the state convened here today for the annual meeting of the Oregon Game Protective association, which will end tomorrow. C. A. Lockwood of Roseburg, Ore., president of the association, presided at sessions today.

The convention today discussed questions of interest to Oregon sportsmen. Election of officers for the coming year was to be held tonight or tomorrow.

Twelve counties were represented. Tillamook, Clatsop, Clackamas had representatives present who were expected to join the organization.

G. E. 'MELLON' IS BULL FACTOR IN STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—(AP)—The unexpected 4 for 1 stock split by the General Electric company, one of America's premier industrial corporations, turned the course of stock prices upward today after an early period of irregularity. With the exception of the tobacco which were heavy on the announcement of cigarette price cuts, all leading groups participated in the advance, gains ranging from 1 to nearly 20 points.

The decrease of $58,000,000 in federal reserve brokers' loans brought the total to the lowest level in more than two years, and just about half of the record-breaking figure established nine weeks ago. Call money continued to hold firm at 4 1/2 per cent, but bankers' acceptances were advanced 1/4 of 1 per cent.

General Electric, which sold as low as 15 3/4 in the November break, crossed 250 for a gain of more than 18 points on the announcement of the split and the proposed increase in dividend on the new stock. Other electrical issues rallied in sympathy, Westinghouse climbing 8 1/2 points to 156, or 10 points above last month's low.

All divisions of the list responded to the late outburst of buying in U. S. Steel and the standard railroads, steel selling well above 71. General Electric continued its rise, which amounted to 25 points. Allis Chalmers rose more than five points on announcement of an increase in the dividend rate from $2 to $3 annually, and Westinghouse Electric gained 10 points. Penn. Marquette gained five to six points. A gain of 16 points was registered by Midland Steel products preferred. The closing tone was strong, total sales approximating $300,000,000.

JERITZA LOSES VOICE VOLUME WHEN 'STABBED'

Realistic Blow From Wooden Knife Takes Wind of Metropolitan Star—Third Mishap of Season for Opera Singers.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—(AP) Drama about the wild and woolly west seems a trifle too tough for these off-the-days; at least, the Metropolitan Opera company has found it so.

In the third mishap that has marked this season's revival of the Puccini-Belasco opera, "The Girl of the Golden West," Maria Jeritza was stabbed with a wooden knife last night and so wounded she sang with difficulty the closing "Addio, Mia California."

It was near the end of the opera, when Miss Jeritza, playing the role of Minnie, was holding the knife in her hand and preventing the lynching of the outlaw, Dick Johnson. She knocked the pistol from the hand of one of the forty-niners, but in the excitement of the performance he lunged again with a wooden stage knife and dealt her a severe blow in the chest. She finished the performance, but took a curtain call in evident pain, leaning heavily on the arm of Lawrence Tibbett and Giovanni Martinelli. She was treated in her dressing room for bruises and skin abrasion, but declined the services of a physician.

A somewhat similar accident occurred during a performance in Brooklyn Tuesday night when Mme. Jeritza suffered a sharp blow on the hand from a stage gun, which temporarily crippled her as she tried to mount her horse. Tibbett, playing the sheriff, was struck on the nose by a falling ladder several nights ago, but was saved from serious injury by putting he had used to build up his nose for the role.

VARE DEFEATED IN FIGHT FOR SEAT

Wilson Vote 66-15. The decision against Wilson was 66 to 15. He had labored here and in Pennsylvania for month after month in conducting his contest for the Vire seat.

Vare, still disabled from an illness which almost cost him his life, was in the seat which he had fought for when the vote on his right to occupy it was taken. His physician was nearby.

Looking on from the members' gallery were Mrs. Vare and two daughters. Directly opposite them, in another part of the gallery sat William B. Wilson who listened to the recording of the vote which marked his defeat in a long fight. There was a tense atmosphere in the large crowd which had gathered to witness the end of the bitterly contested case.

Losers Smile. Vare, who had come to Washington to enter a personal defense of his campaign activities and expenditures, had a smile on his face as he entered the senate chamber. He waded with difficulty and used a cane.

His long fight lost, Vare walked haltingly from the chamber just as Mr. Curtis was announcing the result of the ballot against him. It was just a few steps from the front row in which he sat on the Republican side at the center of the chamber, to the door behind the presiding officer, and Mr. Vare was gone. His florid face still held the grim smile.

SHOOTING OF LIQUOR SUSPECT ACCIDENTAL

VANCOUVER, Wash., Dec. 6.—(AP)—Ezra J. Crum, Camas patrolman, was exonerated by a coroner's jury of blame for the death of Carmel Weidman, whom he shot and killed when the latter fled from arrest. Crum said he shot to halt Weidman, alleged bootlegger, and not with fatal intent.
