

Turks Choose Film Stars
CONSTANTINOPLE (AP)—In a contest for the choice of the most popular movie-stars held by a local newspaper, Turkish movie-fans named as their favorite actress Greta Garbo, and as their favorite actor, John Gilbert.

introduce a winter season in this sea-side resort, hotels are to be kept open and the bathing establishments are to furnish warm salt-water baths as well as the customary medicinal immersions. Skating is promised for outdoor devotees.

ALBANY—Chained to two Sacramento policemen, George Davis and Alfred Hess, wanted in the California city for murder of a grocer, were en route south.

PORTLAND—Walter Voges, 28, REDMOND—A barn, a large dog and a cow burned to death, pleaded not guilty to slaying his wife, Mary, 21, with a razor when on the James Jewel ranch, near Eugene on the Layland. She thinks he was arraigned on a charge of murder, in a fire of undetermined origin.

NEW YORK—(AP) Mrs. Betty Best is bringing a new fad from Europe on the Layland. She thinks the finger nails of one hand red and the other green.
