

SCHOOL NOTES

Jackson School

Honor Roll News. Those who were on the honor roll this six weeks were: Kathleen Culy, Ruth Harwood, Tommy Henderson, Rosamary Sellman, Lucille Simon, Dorra Mell, Ned Lyman, Stanley Gustin and Benny Longwell.

Second grade: Wanda Kenly, Doris French, Audrey Price, Mary Alice Maguire and Donald Fordin. Third grade: Winston Campbell, Worlow Purdin, Theodore Capis, Alice Wall and Lavon Davis.

Fifth grade: Lorraine Longwell, Lewis Russell, Lois Herman, Kathleen Dillard and Robert Wilson.

Sixth grade: Betty Purdin, Juanita Wilson and Bruce Henselman.

Primary News. Lavada Morris of the second grade came from Klamath Falls. The second grade pupils are making spelling posters.

The third grade had a perfect attendance Friday. The third grade pupils are making candle holders and candles. Some of them are very well made.

Health. The rooms that had the highest average were Mrs. Reid's, 100 per cent and Mrs. Laidley's, 100 per cent. The school average was 99.15 per cent.

Dorothy Powell, 6A. The Jackson school had 92 per cent this week. This is the best average we have had this year.

Banking. The banking this week was very satisfactory with a total average in the entire school of 92.1 percent.

Programs. There have been many extra curricular activities going on during the last weeks. The night before Thanksgiving two musical entertainments were given: one by the children of the first four grades, "The Story of Peter Rabbit"; the other by the first, second and sophomore classes of the high school, "It Can't Be Done."

Department News. The department took some Stanford achievement tests this week. They were about the subjects that we have. They were made to test the ability of the different schools in the different subjects.

Playground News. This week there weren't hardly any papers found with names on them. The playground is much cleaner than last week. The leaves have been cleaned up, the leaves have blown to one side.

The children have been running across the corners of the lawn and have trimmed it all out. We should be careful about this, for it spoils the looks of our yard.

Football. The first game of the year will be Tuesday evening after school. Come and see a good game. We have a junior high boy to coach us every night after school. The boys are working hard to win the first game.

Spelling. This week all the grades but the 2B's and the 2A's took tests during spelling time. The 2A's came highest this week with 99.9 per cent. The school average was 93.8 per cent.

Absent. Mrs. Taylor has had a bad cold and has been out of school all week. Mrs. Russell has been taking her place.

New Pupils and Who Left. The following pupils came to the Jackson school last week: Lavada Morris in the 2B from Klamath Falls, and Harold Van Dyke in the 3B from Central Point.

Christmas Seals. The girls and boys were sorry there were no more stamps for they could have sold more. The Jackson school was to sell $20 worth which they enjoyed doing this week.

Central Point High

Honor Roll. With the ending of the second six weeks period of the school year the honor roll has again been posted. To have your name listed on the honor roll you must earn an unusually high scholastic record; every grade for the six weeks must be B or above, which means that the mark cannot fall below 83 in any subject. Those having won this honor in the Central Point school are listed below:

First grade: Homer Young, Robert Grisham, Iris Hill, Margaret DeWayne, Doris Anderson, Richard Wyatt.

Second grade: Loggie Bowman, Geneva Millard, Vivienne Ross.

Third grade: Wanda Hood, Warren Young, Nadine Abbott, Lorne Webster, James Grimes.

Fourth grade: Arthur Coninger, Alan Jewett, Barbara Lee Koehler, Emeline Applegate, Donald Smith, Marjorie Wilkinson.

Fifth grade: Billy Grimes, Lorene Arnold, Roberta Banky, Esther Lathrop, Owen Carr, Betty Hill, Mildred Prickshat, Richard Jewett.

Sixth grade: Laurel Williams, Lawrence Martin, Sidney Bristow, Marjorie Jones, Edwin Gebhard, Ernest Lathrop, Ruby Webster, Leonard Coninger.

Seventh grade: Ha Jones, Geraldine Turpin, Alfred Prickshat.

JUST KIDS

Eighth grade: Geneva Brown, Frances Faber, Katherine Lathrop, Dorothy Limbeck, Helen Nelson, Gladys Prickshat, Mary Jane Bowman, Maxine Croft, Harvey Young, Melvin Mayfield, Edna Shaver.

Banking. The banking this week was very satisfactory with a total average in the entire school of 92.1 percent. The grade school made 95 percent and the high school 87 percent.

to attend the performance. An interesting student body meeting was held on Wednesday of this week in the high school auditorium. The main issue was to decide where, how and when the annual high school Christmas party would take place. It was unanimously voted to hold a party of the usual kind the day before school is dismissed for the Christmas recess. This party consists of a Christmas tree and presents for everyone with a value limit of 15c. Santa usually appears before the afternoon is over and brings candy canes and popcorn and everyone celebrates the arrival of the holiday in true Christmas spirit.

The regular monthly meeting of the P. T. A. was held this week in the high school auditorium. Mrs. Ruby Lorraine, national committee woman was the speaker. The sixth grade furnished entertainment which was followed by a social hour during which time tea was served.

Boy Scouts. Fourteen boys attended the regular school meeting Thursday evening. One passed the readeftest test and four or five are ready for the second-class test. Eight boys from troop 7, of Medford, attended with their scout leader, Scout Executive Bricker was also present. An invitation was extended to the Central Point troop to attend in Medford next Thursday night.

Latin Club. The Latin club "Inter Nos" held its regular meeting on Tuesday, Dec. 3d, at 7:45 p. m. The following program was presented: "The Topography of Rome, Itha Morningstar; Roman Aqueducts, Evelyn Smith; Cicero's House, Amy Johnson; poetry, The Roman Forum, Merle Hedgepeth; The Burning of Rome, LaVice Caldwell. Some time was spent in singing songs, after which refreshments.

Lawrence's Jewelry Store has a remarkably attractive window display of diamond rings, arranged beneath a suspended sign with the name "Lawrence's" spelled with diamonds. 20 rings being used in the panel. Some of the diamonds shown are blue white perfect solitaires in the Mayflower settings and others are Mayflower dinner rings, set with clusters of stones.

Displayed in the opposite window are Christmas gift suggestions for every member of the family and one's most intimate friends.

STOCKHOLM - Three private railway cars are being built in Sweden for Mactapha Kemal, president of Turkey. Each will contain a reception room, berth for ten passengers, bath, kitchen and servants' quarters.

PHOENIX

PHOENIX, Ore., Dec. 7. (Sp.) - The Ladies Aid society held a meeting Thursday afternoon at the church and among the important things decided upon was the discontinuance of the food sale at the Public Market in Medford on Saturday mornings for a time.

There were two real estate transfers in Phoenix this past week. Dr. D. L. Johnson of Tooville, Calif., purchased from Dr. J. B. Webster the land opposite the Presbyterian church between Mr. Smith's home and the highway.

Fletcher Fish purchased the property adjoining his residence from John O. Parks.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Frame who have been visiting their son in California since Thanksgiving, returned to their home here and report having spent a very pleasant vacation.

Several gallons of moonshine, a 20-gallon still and a new car belonging to Fisk were confiscated.

Medford - Center Lake Gateway.
