Mrs. Herbert G. Grey, who was Miss Helen Dolores Gregory before her marriage on Saturday.

Miss Gregory the Bride of Herb Grey

CHARACTERIZED by simplicity, the marriage of Miss Helen Dolores Gregory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gregory, of the Eagle Point district, to Herbert G. Grey, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Grey, was solemnized at the Baptist church at 2 o'clock Saturday, December 7th with Rev. W. H. Eaton officiating. Only members of the immediate families were present.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Harold Grey. The groom's best man, the bride is very attractive, has a pleasing personality and is a member of one of the prominent pioneer families of the Rogue river valley. She graduated from Medford High in 1925.

Mr. Grey has been connected with the Mail Tribune for ten years in the advertising department of which he is now manager. He is one of Medford's most well known and popular young business men and is also active in indoor club and civic organizations.

Mr. and Mrs. Grey left for a brief honeymoon trip to Portland and Seattle, and upon their return will reside in their newly furnished home on South Oakdale avenue.

Bridal Party
The bride's bridesmaids were Misses J. L. Shaugnessy, entertained the Bridal Party club most delightfully Thursday afternoon at her home on King street.

Mrs. James Giddis, Miss Bevan, Woodcock and Bunch were guests. Six tables were in play after which refreshments were served by the hostess, with Mrs. P. E. Bigelow assisting. Next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Kellison, December 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cox have as house guests Mr. Cox's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Cox of Doonville.

Guests from Paris

Among the out-of-town guests to arrive in Medford this past week for the holidays are Mr. and Mrs. George Leonard and two sons of Paris and Miss Margaret Snider of New York, sister of Mrs. Leonard who are guests of Mr. Leonard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Leonard.

Mr. Leonard has been in Paris for five years and this is his first visit home since his marriage. Talented as a writer, he has contributed articles to a number of magazines abroad and for a time edited his own publication, "Unconventional," for which Mrs. Leonard did illustrations. He is at the present time writing for both American and French magazines, two of his works being recently included in the "Golden Book."

Mrs. Leonard graduated from a commercial art school in New York and later studied in Paris where she met her husband.

They live in a villa at Barbizon, a short distance from Paris and are very much in love with their home.

They expect to visit Mrs. Leonard's parents in Seattle during the month, returning to their home the first of the year.

Out-of-Town Guests Honored at Dinner Party

Mrs. M. D. Cole of Fresno, Cal., and Mrs. Amelia Cole of Portland were honored guests at a no-host dinner party given at the Quisenberry home on South Oakdale Friday evening.

Bridal followed the dinner hour. Covers were placed for eighteen including Mrs. M. D. Cole, Mrs. Amelia Cole, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Alenderfer, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Brayton, Mr. and Mrs. W. Brayton, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Sebade, Mr. and Mrs. J. Reed of Gold Hill and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Quisenberry.

Chrysanthemum Circle Thimble Club Meet

Chrysanthemum Circle Thimble club met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Neighbor Hazel Fry on South Laurel street.

A very pleasant afternoon was spent in sewing and social conversation, after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Neighbor Gustie Knipp.

The next meeting will be an evening meeting and will be held December 15.

This is to be in the form of a Christmas party, and is for the children of members of the Thimble club, also.

Mrs. and Mrs. L. F. Pickett and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Butler were dinner guests Friday evening of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Boyd at their home on King Highway.

Delphian Chapter Meeting

The Alpha Chapter of Delphians of Medford met at the Public Library in the small room down stairs Thursday morning with a full complement of officers present.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Howard Barto after which Mrs. Robert Steeter read an interesting report of the last meeting and an invitation to the club to attend a musical program given at the College building on Grape street Monday evening, December ninth by the Southern Oregon Music Teachers association.

The invitation was written by Mrs. R. E. Gore, secretary, and amplified in person by Mrs. Rawley Moore who was a guest of the Delphian club on that morning.

The group leaders for the coming year are Mrs. Rose Scheffler and Mrs. John Crewes who will appoint salaried leaders each month thereby giving everyone a chance at leadership.

Mrs. R. E. Farley was appointed press correspondent for the Daily News for such meetings as the regular correspondent was absent.

After old and new business had been discussed the meeting was turned over to the supervisor, Mrs. R. V. Williams, who presented the following program:

Parliamentary drill, Mrs. Rose Scheffler.
"Rhythm in Medieval Music," and "Dance," Mrs. John Crewes.
Upon these subjects Mrs. Rawley Moore added interesting remarks in conjunction with the talk by Mrs. Crewes.

Mrs. Grant from Bend, a new member of the Alpha chapter was to have given "Franco's Masses of Middle Ages" but as she could not be present Mrs. Williams gave a synopsis of her subject, after which an interesting photograph record was played.

Mrs. R. W. Steeter talked of "The Troubadours" and "The Minstrels" of the Period in an interesting way.

Photograph record "Home to Our Mountain," by Louise Homer and "Gloria," Martinella, "The Minstrel's" and "Musical Outlets" was very entertaining by Mrs. Mulholland after which "The Prize Song" by Meistersinger was played on phonograph.

Mrs. R. V. Williams gave a very interesting and comprehensive explanation of the mathematical relations which may be applied to music. She also reviewed the pertinent points of the month's work in an able manner, throwing new light on the history of music and convincing the members and officers that they were indeed fortunate in their choice of a supervisor for the year's work.

Mrs. Edna Isaacs Will Be Hostess

One of the leading social affairs of the coming week will be the bridge dinner on Monday evening at the Hotel Medford for which Mrs. Edna Isaacs will be hostess. This will be in the form of a holiday party with Christmas motifs used in the appointments.

Covers will be placed for thirty-six. Bridge will be played on the mezzanine floor immediately following the dinner hour.

Visitors Here Return Home

Mrs. M. D. Cole, formerly of this city, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Amelia Cole of Portland, who were house guests of Mrs. O. O. Alenderfer, left yesterday for Fresno, Calif., where Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Cole reside. Mrs. Amelia Cole will spend the holidays in Fresno, returning to her home in Portland the first of the year.

Mrs. C. W. Entertain Hostesses' Auxiliary

Mrs. M. E. Cox, of 727 Dakota avenue, will be hostess for the Ladies' Auxiliary of the First Baptist church Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. A short, interesting business session will be led by the president.

The social committee promises a good program.

The holiday basket and candles will be there for all who have birthday in December. Mrs. W. O. Roberts, social chairman.

Reunions Chapter No. 66, O. E. B. will hold their regular meeting on Wednesday evening. Election of officers will be held.

Girl Scouts Guests of Garden Club

The president of the Garden Club, Mrs. Carl Swigart, opened the business meeting at seven-thirty Thursday evening and among other things considered the nominating committee were instructed to continue their report at the next business meeting.

Mrs. Swigart has, by her energy and enthusiasm, presided over a very successful year. Her term of office will expire at the next regular meeting and it will be very difficult to find another president who will lead the inspiration that she has to the members of the club. She has worked much harder for the interests of the Garden club than most people realize, accomplishing much.

It was decided to send checks before Christmas to the members who are winners in the Garden contest.

A letter was read by the secretary, Mrs. E. H. Porter from the Oregon State Normal at Ashland inviting the club and all those interested, to attend a lecture Monday evening, December 9th, at the College building, beginning at 8 o'clock, showing flower pictures by Arthur Pillsbury.

These are moving pictures showing the action of the seed from germination to unfolding of the blossom—The germination process was taken by X-ray photograph.

Several cars will go from Medford. Any one wishing to go phone Mrs. Swigart or Mrs. E. H. Porter and arrangements can be made.

A nominal admission will be charged for the lecture.

At this meeting of the club Thursday evening Mrs. Ethel Willets showed pictures of local birds and gave a very interesting informal talk about them and their habits. Also Mrs. Willets' Troop No. One of the Girl Scouts were present at this meeting at guests of the Garden club and entertained with refreshments of home made cake and ice cream.

There should be a good attendance at the next regular meeting as new officers for the following year will be chosen.

Women's College Club Will Meet On Saturday

The Rogue River Valley College Women's club will be entertained for the December meeting at the home of Mrs. Leland Mentzer at 793 West Second street on Saturday afternoon, December 15.

Mrs. H. C. Hansen will act as social chairman for the afternoon.

Officers of the club include: Mrs. Emil Pell, president; Mrs. George B. Canole, vice president; Mrs. Fred D. Wagner, secretary, and Mrs. Leon E. Williams, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hansen are among the Medford people who are entertaining home guests during the holidays, having as guests, Mrs. Hansen's mother, Mrs. Chas. D. Isaac of San Francisco, and Mr. Hansen's father, N. C. Hansen of Portland.

Birthday Surprise Party Happy Event

A most enjoyable surprise party was given for Noel Benson honoring his fourteenth birthday, at his mother's dancing academy on Saturday evening, when twenty-five girls and boys of about his own age had the time of their lives.

Secrecy regarding the affair was strictly maintained until the moment when an unsuspecting Noel walked into the studio for the purpose of escorting his mother home, and turning on the lights in the main hall, discovered to his amazement, a number of laughing guests, decorations in the seasonable color scheme of red and green, a long table with the birthday cake and two small Christmas trees at each end, poinsettias, refreshments, bonbons, etc., and gifts to delight any boy.

The evening was not devoted to dancing entirely. Indoor badminton with a balloon, girls versus boys, was played. A jelly bean balancing race, with spoons held in mouths. A speed contest in writing names of states. A dancing with a balloon contest. Choosing partners blindfold. Imitations of mannerisms and pet expressions of each one present, which created a lot of amusement, and last, and most complete of all, "The Story of a Large Family" comprised of several sets of twins and their various actions which kept everyone busy, and those adults not in the game, in great amusement.

A recitation by Suzette Stennett was charmingly rendered and very well received, and the popular "Breakaway" danced by the famous quartet of dancers.

The guests were Betty Stennett, Suzette Stennett, Helen McAllister, Louise Elrad, Dorothy Burgess, La Murie Beck, Helen Wood, Jerna Fornerook, Cleo Hoppe, Jean De Losh, Mildred Drury, Carol Scheffel, Dick Sleight, Jack Wood, Elmo Dunlavy, Dale Fornerook, Clyde Fichner, Alfred Raddell, Billy Hagen, Earl Sweetland, Noel Benson, Gordon Benson, Fred Beck, John Wilkinson and Zora Sims.

Mrs. Benson was very kindly assisted by Mrs. Royal Bebb, Mrs. M. Beck, Miss Dorothy Reynolds, Mrs. J. H. McAllister, Mrs. Royal Bebb, and Mrs. S. Benson.

Newlyweds Return From California

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wurts, (nee Ansil Davis) whose marriage was a recent event have returned from a three-week's motor trip in California. They attended the Stanford-University of California football game at Palo Alto.

They are at home to their friends at 728 East Jackson street.

Guests From The Dalles Will Spend Holidays Here

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gantt of The Dalles, are among the out-of-town guests who will spend the holidays in Medford. They are guests of their daughter, Mrs. William Vawter, Jr., and family, at their new home at Glen Oak Court.
