James Stevens to Present Pupils KMED.
James Stevens, well-known local singer and vocal instructor, will present a group of his advanced pupils from both Medford and Ashland, in a recital over KMED, the Mail Tribune-Virgin station, on the Copco hour in the near future, according to an announcement made today.

Mr. Stevens, who, besides holding his regular studio classes in Medford, conducts a course in vocal training at the Southern Oregon Normal, has some exceptionally fine talent in the process of development, a few cases being personal discoveries. His coming program will consist of solos and duet numbers, with the Stevens love of variety playing a prominent part. About 12 voices will be heard.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Grey At Home, South Oakdale.
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert G. Grey (Helen Gregory), returned yesterday from a few days honeymoon through the north, following a quiet wedding ceremony which took place at the local Baptist church Saturday afternoon. The popular couple made the trip by motor and will be at home soon at their attractive new residence on South Oakdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Humphreys Give Bridge Dinner.
Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Humphreys entertained with a bridge dinner at their home, 110 Tripp street, Tuesday evening. The Yuletide season furnished the inspiration for the decorations. A miniature Christmas tree stood in the center of the attractively laid table, with holly, mistletoe and other winter foliage were artistically combined in the general scheme. Covers were laid for 12 guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moran, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Leach, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Pace, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Butler and the host and hostess.

American Legion Plans Holiday Ball.
One of the leading social events of the holiday season will be the annual Christmas ball of the American Legion, which is to take place at the Oriental Gardens, December 25th. Present plans contemplate a most enjoyable affair with excellent music and attractive holiday decorations to carry out the happy Yuletide spirit. All indications presage a splendid attendance from all parts of southern Oregon.

Women of Rotary Play Santa Claus.
Engaged in a program of Christmas charity, the Women of Rotary sent out an appeal today for children's garments which will be distributed in the rural district where urgent help is needed. Mrs. Louis Humphreys, president of the organization, asked that all members of the organization who could contribute children's garments and other clothing get in touch immediately with Mrs. D. A. Chambers.

Local friends will be delighted to hear of the improved condition of Dr. R. W. Poellnitz, who on December 5, underwent a major operation in Portland hospital. According to word received today, the local physician is now able to sit up and is gaining rapidly. Members of the Mistletoe club had a very enjoyable afternoon meeting at the home of Mrs. M. Beck on South Grape street, Wednesday. The afternoon was spent in sewing on articles for the R. N. A. bazaar, which will be held Saturday at the Independent Electric store. About 20 guests were present. Delicious refreshments were served.

Eastern Stars Elect Officers.
Mrs. Della Scheffel was chosen worthy matron and Judge Barnes, worthy patron, of the Beames chapter of Eastern Star, at the annual election held in the Masonic lodge rooms last night. A special meeting and initiation of candidates will take place next Wednesday evening, followed by a social meeting in charge of Mrs. Gwendolyn Woodcock.

Other officers elected last night are the following: Mrs. Gwendolyn Woodcock, associate matron; Cordelia Barnes, conductress; Mrs. E. M. Wilson, associate conductress; A. Orin Schenk was chosen associate patron; Mrs. Hattie Aldeu, secretary; Mrs. Florence Butler, treasurer. The appointive officers will be named by Mrs. Scheffel later.

Miss Ramsey Guest of B. and P. W. Club Today.
Carol Ramsey, history instructor and counsellor at the local high school, was the principal speaker at the regular Thursday luncheon of the Business and Professional Women's club at Hotel Holland this noon. "Vocational Training" was her subject. In charge of this work for a number of years in connection with high school training, Miss Ramsey had a number of valuable thoughts to convey to the assemblage.

The meeting today was in charge of the research committee of the organization, under the chairmanship of Miss Gertrude Butler, assisted by Mrs. Pearl McCredie.

Mr. and Mrs. Hagerty Entertain Eugene Pastor.
Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Saunders and family, recently of Eugene, stopped over in Medford the first of the week to visit Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Hagerty, 111 Almond street. Rev. Saunders has been pastor of the Central Presbyterian church at Eugene for the past five years, and is now answering a call to San Francisco, making the trip to the southern parish by motor. Mr. and Mrs. Hagerty were members of Mr. Saunders' church at Eugene for several years, and were delighted over the opportunity of entertaining him in their Medford home.

St. Mark's Guild Cafeteria Luncheon.
The members of St. Mark's Guild will have their regular cafeteria luncheon tomorrow. A business meeting will follow the luncheon. Members are asked to bring needles and thimbles.

The St. Mark's Guild of the local Episcopal church will hold a meeting and cafeteria luncheon at the Guild hall tomorrow at 1 o'clock.

Miss Edith Benjamin is spending a week in Grants Pass, visiting with her aunt, Mrs. S. N. Moore.
