HEAT AND TROY RESERVES BEAT CARNEGIE 45-15

Easterners Out-Gain Vaunted Squad, And Hold Even in First Half—Tartans Routed in Final Periods—Saunders Bears Brunt of Victory.

BY PAUL H. ZIMMERMAN (Associated Press Sports Writer) COLISEUM, LOS ANGELES, Dec. 14.—(AP)—A Carnegie Tech scoring attack which blossomed and flourished in the first half, wilted and was swept away before the determined Trojans of Southern California in the final two periods of their clash here today, sending the Tartans to a 45 to 15 defeat before 50,000 madly-cheering fans.

It was the tremendous reserve strength of the Trojans which brought about the crash of a great offensive after the valiant aggression from the Smoky City had startled everybody, including the men of Troy, with a touchdown rush shortly after the opening kick off.

Credit Russell Saunders, quarterback, and Francis Tappan, left end, with a greater share of the work which turned the tide to a Southern California victory in the third period after the count was deadlocked at half time 12-12.

What the stately Saunders failed to do in his running attack he supplanted with unerring passes. It was his pass to Garrett Arbelbide which brought Coach Howard Jones' men their first touchdown after the team from Pittsburgh had swept all before it to send Murray Armentrout, giving the Tartans the lead.

Armentrout, who had been substituted only a moment before for Johnny Eyth at left half, covered himself with glory, not only by his touchdown but by superb cut-backs through the tackle and remarkable, shifty end runs. His 77 yards in fifteen attempts all but equaled the record of Saunders. The U. S. C. signal caller made 124 yards in twenty-four tries for a 5.8 yard average. The Tartan halfback averaged 5.1.

Harry McCurdy's fifteen-yard pass to Thayer Flanagan, who reached George Kennedy, put Coach Walter Steffen's eleven in a position to score. Flanagan pivoted and twisted his way to the shadow of the Trojan's goal line. It was a parade of 45 yards in eight plays which brought the score.

"THE GREAT SHIRES" WINS IN RING DEBUT

Art Shires, first baseman of the Chicago White Sox, baseball's bad boy, scored a knockout in 21 seconds in his ring debut at Chicago. Dan Daly of Cleveland was his opponent.

SCHISSLER SIGNS 5-YEAR EXTENSION OF OSC. CONTRACT

CORVALLIS, Ore., Dec. 14.—(AP)—Paul J. Schissler, head football coach at Oregon State college, has signed a five-year extension of his contract as head coach and director of inter-collegiate athletics. It was announced today by President W. J. Kerr and the student faculty board of control.

The contract carries a salary unannounced by the board and will extend to June, 1934 as there remains one more year on his present term. Schissler is also a regular member of the physical education faculty with the rank of full professor.

Schissler came to Oregon State in 1924 and has just completed his sixth coaching season. He has already served longer than any previous head coach here, and has had more consistent success than any other. He has broken even with Oregon games, has won the Northwest championship once and has made an impressive inter-sectional record.

Dean A. B. Cordley, chairman of the board of control, expressed satisfaction at the signing of the contract, emphasizing Schissler's value to the state in character building as well as being an outstanding coach. Similar statements were made by Wallace Kaddock, alumni and faculty member of the board, Jay Reynolds, alumni representative, and Ramon Meinke, president of the Associated Students.

Debuting in the ring today, Shires, a first baseman of the Chicago White Sox, baseball's bad boy, scored a knockout in 21 seconds in his ring debut at Chicago. Dan Daly of Cleveland was his opponent.

HACK'S BOSS IS NOT KEEN FOR SHIRES SETTO

Cub Fielder Has Not Signed New Contract, and Owner Thinks Athletic Efforts Are For Diamond Only—Landis Favors Bout.

By Charles Dunkley (Associated Press Sports Writer) CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—(AP)—The pugilistic worlds series involving a fist fight—in the ring, for important money—between the self-confessed great man, Charles Arthur Shires, and Hack Wilson, the Dempsey of the dugouts, was receiving tonight in a state of collapse, with the prospect that it might not come off.

Officials of the Chicago Cubs tossed a bombshell into the proposed battle by announcing they were opposed to it and that if Wilson did so through the fight, he would do so by his own volition, and not by the permission of the club management.

William L. Veeck, president of the Cubs, said he would refuse permission for Wilson to trade punches with the conqueror of mysterious Dan Daley, but added he could not stop the Cubs' centerfielder from going through with the match if he chose to do so.

"Wilson is a great ball player," Veeck said, "but I do not think it is within the province of any ball player to become a boxer. Wilson has not, and will not receive our permission to fight Shires. If he goes ahead with it, the thing will be entirely on his own responsibility."

DUTRA LEADS IN CATALINA MATCH; HAGEN IN SLUMP

AVAILON, SANTA CATALINA ISLAND, Cal., Dec. 14.—(AP)—Olin Dutra, Los Angeles professional except to a new competitive course record here today striking his way to a 61 to lead the qualifiers after two days of play in the annual Catalina Island $7,500 golf tournament, his score of 126 for the 26 holes marks him a favorite to win the event which will be concluded tomorrow.

Close on his heels came Billy Burke, New York; Charles Guest, Los Angeles; Tony Manero, New York; and Denny Shute, Youngstown, Ohio, all with scores of 127 one stroke behind the leader.

The rugged terrain showed the way out of the picture to a number of the nation's leading players while forty-eight of the field of 120 turned in qualifying scores. On the steep hills and deep canyons were left the hopes of such of the elite of golfdom as Tommy Armour, Detroit; Al Espinosa, Chicago; Ed Dudley, Wilmington, Del.; Al Watrous, Detroit; and Joe Kirkwood, Philadelphia.

The great Walter Hagen barely got in under the wire with a 123 which enabled him to enter tomorrow's final 18 holes.

Dutra had a chance for a better lead, but his possible 59 went glimmering on the tricky final eighteen when he shot two over par for his 61. This coupled with a 65 yesterday gave him the 126 total.

NICK BROPHY HAS A GOOD DUCKING

For the first time in his battling career, Nick Brophy, Eagle Point rancher admitted being "all wet" in the midst of a purchasing expedition which carried him into the Applegate district yesterday, according to a group of local friends.

The story has it that Nick and his son Vernon Brophy were looking over prospective buys during the afternoon. They came to the Applegate river and as Nick was crossing the bridge on horseback, that construction fell way and both horse and rider fell into the swirling water.

Both being good swimmers, no serious damage was done, it is said.
