

The Week's Society Happenings

Edited By Irene DeLosh

THE wrapping and mailing of Christmas packages has occupied the thought of the social elect these days to the exclusion of parties and all but the most informal of affairs, such as an occasional table of bridge.

However, there is always a lull before a great wave and it is already being whispered about that a large number of parties will mark the holiday season, especially among the "younger set."

Among the young college folk from up and down the coast who are arriving home to spend the holidays are: Miss Muriel Albert, instructor of science at Chincameg, Wash., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Albert and their son Marvin Albert of University of Washington; Homer Platt of the Junior College of Sacramento, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Platt; Miss Emily Brown, senior of Willamette University, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Frazer Brown; Lawrence Coleman of Oregon State college, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Coleman. Also Harry and George Eldon of Central Point, Miss Betty Barlow of S. C.; Miss Pauline Roberts of Oregon State college, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. Roberts. Also Bill Purdin of O. S. C.

Misses Frances and Harriet Sparrow, daughters of Mrs. A. Sparrow, and Miss Roxanna Ruhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ruhl, who are all attending Katharine Bronson school at Ross, Calif.

Louise Conner of Dominican college at San Rafael, Calif., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Conner.

Mary Lee and Dorothy Roberts, of Castilleja school for girls at Palo Alto, daughters of Attorney and Mrs. George Roberts. Also Miss Betty Barlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barlow who is attending Marlborough school in Los Angeles.

Miss Mary Hayes, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James C. Hayes, and Miss Catherine Applegate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Applegate, both of University of Washington.

Misses Ethel and Carol Dazey, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. K. I. Dazey who are attending Notre Dame at San Jose.

Corning Hanly Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Corning Hanly of Thatcher school at Ojai, Calif. Also Farwell Kenly and John Willis, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Willis, and Carlton Preston, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Preston, who are all attending Tamalpais school at San Rafael.

Students from Oregon State college include Orville Lottelle, Fred MacDonald, the Misses Mary Martha and Katherine Sweeney, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sweeney; Miss Elizabeth Swigart,

Thimble Club Members Entertain for Children

Members of the Thimble club of Chrysanthemum Circle No. 84, Neighbors of Woodcraft entertained the children at a Christmas party on last Wednesday evening at the home of Dorothy Scripser on Cedar street.

There was a short program, from Santa Claus arrived with gifts for all. A delightful evening was enjoyed.

The next regular meeting of Chrysanthemum circle will be January 13th. Members please note the change in dates.

The meeting, which was to have been held Monday evening, Dec. 23, is postponed on account of Christmas being so near.

Talent Camp Fire Girls Plan Cheer for "Shut-ins"

The Crater Lake Camp Fire Girls gave a very interesting entertainment to a large audience at the school auditorium Friday night.

The beautiful Christmas story, "The Other Wise Man," by Van Dyke, was presented to the audience in colored slides. The reading of the story was given by Miss McLarnin.

This entertainment is one of the series to be given by the Camp Fire Girls of Talent.

As this was a free entertainment the girls sold popcorn balls and candy to pay expenses.

During the month of December the Camp Fire Girls of Talent have been very busy. Christmas wreaths, popcorn and candy were sold, tin-foil gathered and flowers pooled for the "shut-ins" Christmas cheer.

The plants will be distributed the day before Christmas. As this is flower year for Camp Fire Girls this will make a cheerful ending for the year's work of 1929 for the Crater Lake Camp Fire Girls of Talent.

Mrs. W. F. Campbell Delphin Group Leader

The Delphin group of which Mrs. John Crews is leader, met at the home of Mrs. W. A. Gram, 537 West Tenth, with Mrs. W. F. Campbell as the leader for the month and a very enjoyable and inspiring study time is reported.

Miss Norris' Play Will Be Broadcast

Word has been received from Hollywood that a Christmas play written by Miss Helen Norris will be broadcast over station KXN at 7:50 Monday evening, December 23rd. Mrs. George Fawcett, well known in theatrical circles in California, taking the lead, Nester Aber, of movie fame taking the child's part of Joe, Howard Truendell, noted actor, playing the part of Seth Stinson. This play under the title of "Frankincense and Myrra," was presented last Christmas season over several coast stations but has been retained to meet the requirements of the Hollywood station. This will be broadcast by Georgia Efield.

Miss Norris received word this past week that the National broadcasting company will broadcast one of her newest plays, "The Story of Christmas," this afternoon. The time was not announced. This play will also be presented over KMED Tuesday evening, Christmas eve, through the courtesy of the California Oregon Power company.

This comes as welcome news to the many admirers of Miss Norris' radio plays which are not only popular throughout the Rogue river valley but all over the United States.

Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Clancy will have as house guests during the holidays their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Darg, and two grandchildren, Denise and Robert.
