REV., MRS. BELKNAP ON TRIP TO HONOLULU

Among the Medford passengers embarking at Portland last Thursday noon on the Matson liner, the Wilhelmina, for a voyage to Honolulu were Rev. and Mrs. L. F. Belknap, who are widely known in southern Oregon, especially in Jackson and Klamath counties, through his having held various Methodist Episcopal pastorates there. In its description of the sailing away of the Wilhelmina, and the embarking passengers, the Portland Journal said in part:

"After a lifetime of service in the Methodist church in Oregon, the Rev. L. F. Belknap of Medford, accompanied by Mrs. Belknap, sailed on the liner to spend six weeks or two months in Hawaii. The veteran minister, at the age of 77, looks not more than 60. He retired from active service five years ago.

"'Mrs Belknap regards this as the trip or a lifetime,' he said. He belongs to the family of Belknaps widely known in professional life in this state. The Rev. Belknap and Mrs. Belknap will join the latter's brother, H. B. Dorsey, of Waterville in Honolulu.

"The Wilhelmina had a large list of passengers and was well loaded with mail and general cargo."

DOG LICENSE FEES BROUGHT IN $3,815

The sum of $3815 was collected, with the main rush coming in April when 3542S was received. The dog owners of the county cooperated with the office in good manner and rushed for licenses in April due to penalties being placed on fees if applications were made after that date.

"Great Gabbo" Shows Craterian Tomorrow

James Cruze's first all-dialogue feature production, "The Great Gabbo," which will have its local premiere at the Fox Rialto theater tomorrow, will be the outstanding screen musical attraction of the season.

This is the concensus of opinion in Hollywood, not only in the player colony, but also among field and studio executives who have keenly watched every move Mr. Cruze has made since he embraced talking pictures.

"The Great Gabbo" is unique from a "fan" angle in that it presents Erich von Stroheim in his first dialogue role. Betty Compson, who is the feature feminine player with von Stroheim, has an equally prominent portrayal in this picture.

Ralph Ince Coming at Rialto Tomorrow

A timely topic — one that has been of prime importance for the past few months—the activities of the New York stock exchange—has been brought to the screen in a novel and romantic manner. The picture is "Wall Street," the all-talking film of love and finance with Aileen Pringle and Ralph Ince in the leading roles. It comes to the Fox Craterian theater tomorrow.

A picture of gripping realism, it tells a story of how a gigantic power on Wall street is crushed, only to win in his defeat that which all the money in the world could not buy—love.

Eleven Cent Mistake Calls for Heavy Thinking by Controller

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—(AP)—The mighty wheels of the government's financial machinery, which grind in their daily grist figures running into the billions, may pause for a moment over an 11-cent decision just handed down by Comptroller General McCarl.

In a four-page ruling, which bore down heavily upon various points of the law, the comptroller general asserted that a $5.42 bill submitted by a Washington company—which was corrected by a government department to $5.53—must be paid at the former figure.

"The interests of the government require," McCarl said in part, "that there be no increase by way of correction or alteration in the total amount claimed on a voucher, unless such correction or alteration be made by the claimants and then only in the form of a new voucher for the correct amount claimed."

Having spent considerably more than 11 cents in stamps and stationery in correspondence over the matter, the Lamb Seal and Stencil company, whose original multiplication or addition was wrong, indicated that it would probably forfeit the 11 cents rather than again tackle the skein of red tape involved.

DEFER DECISION IN KIDNAP CASE

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 28. — (AP) — Governor Norblad today, following a hearing, deferred for a week decision whether he will honor a requisition from California for the extradition of Robert A. Wilson, who is wanted in Los Angeles county on a charge of kidnaping his young daughter. Unusual features of the case, and a suggestion by Wilson's attorney that he be given time to communicate with the district attorney in Los Angeles caused the delay. Wilson attended the hearing in person and will return to Medford pending a decision on the requisition. He was apprehended at Medford.

Harold Lloyd Film Isis Theatre Tonight

Banjos playing . . . pretty senoritas dancing . . . gray-haired Mexican senors applauding . . . This might be the beginning of a story about a California fiesta, but it is only an idea of what went on at the Hal Roach studio during the making of Harold Lloyd's funniest Pathe comedy, "Why Worry?" which is to be seen at the Isis theater tonight.

There were times during the production of this great comedy when work seemed far from everyone's mind. Yet the work must have progressed, judging by the wonderful results attained.

TRI-POWER NAVY PACT ADVOCATED BY REP. BRITTEN

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—(AP)—A three-power naval armament agreement between England, Japan and the United States was recommended today by Chairman Britten of the house naval affairs committee in commenting on the French memorandum on the forthcoming naval conference.

Britten added that the French attitude, as shown in the memorandum, should not result in a breakdown of the conference.

The same opinion was advanced by Representative McClintic, Democrat, Oklahoma, member of the naval affairs committee, who said he saw no reason why, if France or Italy should withdraw from the conference, the remaining nations could not negotiate an agreement which would avoid offending the countries not participating.
