Informal Vote Shows Rejection of Proposals By Wisconsin Mentor-Point After Touchdown Continues in Favor.

NEW YORKs Decy $1.-(P)-The football rules will stand as they are if the National Fnotball

Coaches association has its way.

By an informal vote of about 4 to 1 the coaches, meeting here in annual session yesterday, rejected three changes in the code recommended by the association's rules committee, headed by Glenn Thiettethwaite, University of Wisconsin coach.

thethwaite, University of Wisconsin coach.

The most drastic change would have abolished the point after touchdown, an other suggested classifying penalties so that if two fouls were called on the same play, one major and the other minor, instead of the ball reverting to its original position the difference beginned to the two penalties would be tween the two penalties would assessed. The other propose change would have given a tea in possession of the ball with five yards of the sidelines the otion of putting it in play 15 yar from the sidelines with the loss a down.

Majority Vote. All three suggestions died a rapid death when R. W. P. Brown of Brown, pointing out that re-codification of the rules now was
