"Uncle Tom's Cabin" Draws Big Isis Crowd

George Siegmund, who enacts the role of the cruel Simon Legree in the dramatization of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," the Universal masterpiece playing tonight and tomorrow afternoon and evening at the Isis, is suitably built to play the part of the heartless slave driver.

He is six feet, two inches in height and weighs 230 pounds. He is an all-around athlete. His portrayal of the famous epitome of villainy has marked him as one of the finest players of this type that the public has ever seen. The picture is considered among the greatest screen epics of history.

Economy Groceteria THE HOME OF BREAD LIKE MOTHER MADE For 1930 Better Meals For Less To accomplish this involves just two things—a thorough knowledge of foods, and buying at the lowest price. And both are easy if you trade the Groceteria way. First of all, our entire food assortment is so arranged that you may inspect at your leisure and suggestions for the menu are met at every turn. Regular Groceteria shoppers invariably are classed as better cooks, and of course the real test of a cook is variety. As to buying for less, our lower business costs assure that—clerks, credits and small deliveries take the biggest slice of your time and money—and we save that for you. Try shopping the Groceteria way. Follow the crowds. Learn the pleasure of shopping at leisure—no waiting to be served, and no hurrying when buying because others are waiting. Save time and worry and add to your bank account by saving without self-denial.
