

Local and Personal

Following a joyous holiday vacation of sixteen days the public schools will resume sessions tomorrow morning, and the pupils are expected to settle down very quickly to the daily scholastic grind. An interesting feature of the re-opening is that with all the pupils again assembled a good check on general health conditions can be made.

See Brill's Sheet Metal Works for radiator, fender and auto body repairing. 21717.

Thomas A. Callerton Jr., left the office of the year for Oregon State college, where he will enroll as a student, beginning the mid-year term.

Dressmaking and remodeling at the Fashion Shop, 424 Medford Blvd. Tel. 1181.

County Clerk J. S. Orth went to Medford on Tuesday, and a January 3 news item of twenty-seven years ago, in the Ashland Times.

Everything in the baby department is 20% less during Sinclair's January Clearance Sale. 285.

An office building near the hangar at the new airport that was reconstructed into a small dwelling is now rented as living quarters by the pilots of the Pacific Air Transport, the city having rented it to them for $35 a month.

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Goldsberry have returned home from southern California where they had been enjoying a short vacation.

Boys and youths' bib and waist overalls, sizes 3 to 16, on sale at $1c at Sinclair's January Clearance Sale. 285.

Everett (Aby) Anderson, well known clerk of the Medford staff, will be absent two weeks, as is now chief clerk of the St. George Inn, Santa Cruz, Calif.

Ladies' and children's winter hats are being sacrificed in price at Sinclair's Clearance Sale. 285.

Medford sportsmen who had planned to enjoy some further duck and geese hunting in the Klamath section, will be interested in the following from the Klamath News: "As the close of the Oregon duck hunting season, January 15, approaches, a warning was sent out by Marion Barnes saying that hunters must have 1930 licenses for the remainder of the hunting season. Mr. Barnes also stated that a close check or all nitrods would be made from now until January 15 and all those not complying with the law will be apprehended."

Blue Bird pure silk hose, regular $1c, now on sale at 79c at Sinclair's. 285.

Mrs. Elizabeth Swigart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Swigart, left Thursday to resume studies at the Oregon State college where she is enrolled as a freshman.

"That good coal." We give green trading stamps. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239.

The Jackson County Primary Teachers' association will meet on January 11, 1930 at 2:00 p. m. at the court house. Primary writing and primary arithmetic will be the subjects discussed.

For Sale—Kindling by the load. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631, 24517.

A. E. Stevens of Tolent and Harold Coover and Ray Coffman of Phoenix, arrived home last Thursday from San Francisco where they had been spending the holidays.

Send your friends in the east or middle west copies of the New Year Mail Tribune, containing a review of the prosperity and progress of Medford and the valley the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Faber and Mrs. Everett Faber and baby Donald, and Don Faber spent New Year's at Butte Falls, the guests of D. M. Cleveland and family.

The old location, but a new shop. Expert operators. Medford Beauty Shop. "Ask a friend."

Mothers wishing to have children examined at the child welfare clinic at the Y. W. C. A. next Friday afternoon are urged to make early appointments by telephoning the county health unit. The clinic is open to children under six years of age and to infants. Dr. B. C. Wilson, county physician, and Miss Augusta Glover, county nurse, will be in charge. It will be the first clinic in 1930 and a comparatively large number of babies are expected.

Blue Bird delustrated rayon hose, regular 50c pair, now 3 pairs for 75c at Sinclair's January Clearance Sale. 285.

Following a short visit at the home of this city, Mrs. A. Bailey of Clackamas, accompanied by her niece, Margaret Bailey, of Glasgow, Scotland, returned to her home last week.

One Pound of Milk Bread such as baked by Fluhrer, contains 1200 calories and is your best and cheapest food.

Twenty years ago Medford and the valley were hopeful of another new railroad, as witness the following news item published in the Portland Journal of December 21, 1909, under a Medford date line: "Prediction is made that before another year elapses the Pacific and Eastern railways, which is being extended from Medford and Eagle Point to Eastern Oregon to connect with the Oregon Trunk line, will be completed."

Miss Edith Deuel was a New Year's day guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ross at Central Point.

A new four stall garage of cheap construction, capable of housing four cars is nearing completion at the airport. This, when finished, will do away with parking cars in the hangar building, as has been done for some time past.

Miss Opal Harvey left Friday to resume her studies at the University of Washington at Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Clark of Klamath Falls spent New Year's day at the home of Mr. Clark's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Joss Glass and family of Medford.

H. H. Pomroy, chief deputy, Sam McLaughlin and Clyde Warren of the state fire marshal's office at Portland are spending several days in Medford on business matters.

Following a visit here by her sister, Mrs. C. F. Nichols, Mrs. R. C. Conroy, of Ore., left on Thursday to visit other relatives in Grenada, Calif.

Now that the rush is over, bring in your fur work. We can give better service and better prices. P. W. Bartlett, Taxidermist and Furrier, 15 N. Fir St. 28415.

A recent issue of the St. Louis Dispatch carries a complete story of the capture of the DeAutremont twins, serving life sentences at Salem for the killing of a man at Skidway, south of Ashland. The article tells of the arrest of Roy and Roy by W. R. Conroy, an Ohio officer, and is vividly written.

Use Medford-made factory blocks. Medford Fuel Co., Tel. 631, 24517.

Dr. E. R. Elliott acted as host to Talent Boy Scouts Thursday night at his cabin at Shady Cove, where he entertained members of Lincoln school troop Friday night.

Mrs. Milton Ottoman and children are home from a several days' visit at Portland.

If you are proud of Medford's new airport and the new airways radio station, send your friends copies of the New Year Mail Tribune of December 31, containing pictures and stories of both.

Mrs. Ellen Benson, well known county resident residing near Central Point, is reported seriously ill at her home, where she sustained a paralytic stroke. She is in a critical condition, unable to recognize anyone. She is a sister of County Commissioner Victor Bursell and Dr. Bursell, a former Medford physician.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl V. Tenwald, fire Insurance Bldg. Phone 592.

Another Grants Pass boy who is making a reputation for himself in his college work is F. V. H. Hillis, son of John A. Hillis, Grants Pass real estate dealer.

Young Hillis, member of the Navy football squad, stands 23 high out of a class of 416 in examination, according to information reaching here. In monthly tests he has received the mark "Distinction," which to a prospective student means what an "A" does to a high school student. Hillis will graduate from the academy next June.

Grants Pass Courier.

For coughs and colds try Colvig's Mentholated Pine Tar and Honey with Eucalyptus and Cod Liver Oil. Sold only at Colvig Drugs, next door to Rialto theater.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Erickson of Ashland spent New Year's day with relatives in Medford.

Of the 94 students named on the honor roll at the University of Oregon for the fall term, one of them is Margaret Turner of Medford.

Notice to patrons of Fichtner's Garage: Having taken over the business, your continued patronage is solicited for this firm by Carl Fichtner, Prop. 288.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Pottinger are in San Diego, Calif., to spend the remainder of the winter, having left for that destination the forepart of last week.

Hemstitching, piecing, pleating, button making and hose mending. Handicraft Shop. 25717.

The next convention of the Pacific Coast Fire Chiefs' association probably will be held in Oakland, Calif.

You will be surprised how quickly your cold is relieved by using Colvig's Cold Capsules, for sale only at Colvig Drugs, next door to Rialto Theater. 290.

Mr. and Mrs. George Loox and family are expected to move to Ashland from Fort Klamath this week to spend the winter in that city.

On Friday, January 10, the W. R. C. social will be held at the home of Mrs. Telitha Pickle, 1014 Court street. A covered dish luncheon will be served. It will be an all day social.

Miss Elsie Davidson and Miss Anne Purucker have returned to their homes in Portland after spending the holidays here with relatives.

Mrs. Anna Hart, who spent the holidays here visiting relatives and friends, returned to Eugene Friday to resume her duties as house mother for the Alpha Chi Omega sorority at the University of Oregon.

Mrs. Anna Swinney of Medford is a visitor in Grants Pass, visiting with old friends and relatives. Mrs. Swinney was a former resident of Grants Pass.—Grants Pass Bulletin.

With public relations of the retailers as the central theme, the 26th annual convention of the Oregon Retail Merchants' association will be held at Corvallis, February 10 to 12 inclusive.

The next meeting of the Rogue River Valley Ministers' association will be held in Ashland Monday, January 27.

Howard Ralph, who has been salesman for the Union Oil company for the past year, is leaving the first of the week for Medford where he has been transferred. Mr. Ralph will be Union Oil salesman in the valley city. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Ralph of this city and has been prominent among the younger set here since he returned from college.—Klamath News.

The Medford volunteer fire department will hold its monthly meeting tomorrow night at the fire station. Fire Chief Roy Elliott has announced that he is anxious for a large attendance, in view of special drill work to be done.

There has been a decided decrease in the number of contagious diseases in Medford, according to City Physician L. D. Inskott yesterday. He reported that during the past week, ending Thursday, only two scarlet fever, three German measles and three chicken pox cases were reported.

Dr. Emily Boicem, former county doctor who resigned her position here last month, is now connected with the city health department of Los Angeles, according to cards received here from her.

Divorce decrees were issued in circuit court yesterday to John Callahan from Bessie Callahan, Gaston Fernand from Madeline Fernand and Ruby Davis from Newton Davis. All are county residents. A complaint was filed yesterday afternoon for divorce by Ruth Denhardt against Carl Denhardt on grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. The couple was married in 1915 and has three children.

Radio listeners are looking forward to the next California Oregon Power company play on next Tuesday night over KMEB, presenting "The Romance of Ames Corners," a drama by Helen Norris. The Copco players, well known throughout southern Oregon, will take part.

For the first time in several years, Robert Galligan will not be in Medford this winter. A card received from him recently indicates he plans to reside permanently with his relatives in Canada. Galligan claims he is a Canadian war veteran and usually spends a portion of his time selling papers on the street.

Included among the out-of-town visitors in Medford yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley of Mt. Pitt, P. E. Kessler of Lake Creek, Mrs. Nettie Shelby of Central Point, Mrs. Charles Grey and Mrs. Elizabeth Morse of Gold Hill, Ceel Roberts of Rogue River and Mrs. Elizabeth Edmiston of Lauriumhurst.

Permits to carry concealed weapons for protection were issued yesterday to Harry C. Fiedde and Gordon Stout, both of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Grievie of the Prospect district arrived home the last of last week from their several weeks' sojourn in the east.

LITTLE GIRL WOUNDED BY YOUTH WITH RIFLE

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 4.—(AP)—Helen Gleaser, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gleaser of Cottage creek district, near Cottage Grove, today with a bullet wound in her throat inflicted by an unidentified boy with a rifle. Physicians said the wound was serious. The name of the youth was not learned in Eugene.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

FOR EXCHANGE—Jewett two-door sedan for light coupe or roadster. Phone 697-124.

HEAR the new Spartan radio at Medford Electric Store. 2917.

GET genuine Edison Mazda lamps from Jack Moore, proprietor Medford Electric Store. 28517.

FOR RENT—Housekeeping rooms. Call after 5 p. m. and Sunday—533 Austin St. 287.

NEW YEAR PAPERS
Copies of the New Year Mail Tribune, giving in pictures and text Medford's development during the year 1929, mailed at 10 cents per copy or 5 cents not mailed.

Bring or send your list of names, accompanied by the amount, to this office.

Notice of Meeting.
The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Jackson County Building & Loan Association will be held at 29 North Central Avenue, Medford, Oregon, on Monday, January 6, 1930, at 7:30 p. m.

PHONE 51

Gold Seal MILK BUTTER ICE CREAM
PASTURIZED - SAFE - PURE
PRODUCED - PACKED - THE SANITARY WAY

WHERE TALKING PICTURES REACH PERFECTION

FOX RIALTO
Direction FOX WEST COAST THEATRES.

TODAY You'll sit
Awed Wonderment as This Magician's Hearts Lifts His Voice in Song.

HE SINGS!
AND THE WHOLE WORLD SURRENDERS
TO THE MAGIC OF HIS VOICE!!

Rudy VALLE WITH HIS
THE VAGABOND LOVER

With
SALLY BLANE & MARIE DRESSLER
A RADIO PICTURE

ALL SINGING, TALKING, MELODY
Comedy drama fired with ecstatic song . . .
Song swaying, soothing and seductive . . .
Song to lighten hearts, dim eyes, win a laugh and loose a tear!

LATEST FOX NEWS

Plus
The Season's Biggest Laugh Hit
Harry Gribbon, Andy Clyde in
"A HOLLYWOOD STAR"

Continuous Shows
Today 12:30 to 11
Admission
Mat. 10 and 25
Eve. 10 and 25

Direction FOX WEST COAST THEATRES.

FOX CRATERIAN

TODAY only
Continuous Shows Today 1:30 to 11

Radio Pictures present
"TANNED LEGS"
A JAZZ-TH
ALL-DIALOGUE
COMEDY-DRAMA

with
ANN PENNINGTON
...ARTHUR LAKE
SALLY BLANE
DOROTHY REVIER
LOYD HAMILTON

YOUTH
Struts its stuff in gorgeous revues. DARING GAY GIRLS LAUGH-SONG . . . LAUGH-TER.

Added
All Talking
Comedy
"TURKEY FOR TWO"
and the Happiness Boys
Singing Four Songs

Admission
Mat. 10 and 25
Eve. 25 and 50

FOX Scrip SAVES MONEY

COMING
TOMORROW THE GREATEST OF ALL
TALKING PICTURES

GLORIA SWANSON
"The TRESPASSER"

NEXT TO CRATERIAN

Larry Schade
YOUR FAVORITE JEWELER SINCE 1918

Watch and Jewelry Repairing

The New...
CHEVROLET

The Car You Have Been Waiting For!

New Six-Cylinder Smoothness

All Prices f. o. b. Medford

Sedan	$854.00	Club Sedan	$804.00
Coupe	744.00	Coach	744.00
Sport Coupe	804.00	Phaeton	674.00
Roadster	674.00	Sport Roadster	704.00

Equipped with 5 Tires, Bumpers, Tire Lock, Gasoline Gauge, Radiator Emblem Heat Indicator and many other new features.

COME TAKE A RIDE

Pierce-Allen Motor Co.