EXTRA FINE SUGAR TO ADVANCE FIVE CENTS

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—(AP) Western Sugar Refinery and California-Hawaiian sugar today announced that, commencing tomorrow, extra fine sugar will sell at 5 1/2c the hundredweight.

PORTUGAL BANISHES REDS TO EAST INDIES

TIAMOR, Portuguese East Indies.—(AP)—Portugals' reds, anarchists and all those sentenced to long penal servitude, expiate their crimes under the searching sun of this penal settlement in the Indian ocean.

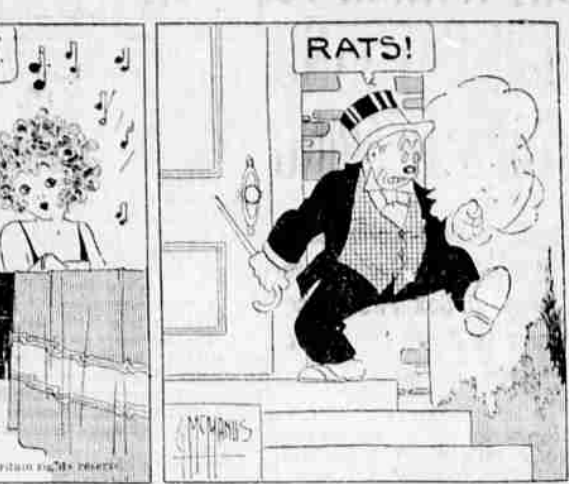

A few weeks ago, a grim prison-ship which makes the journey once a year, arrived here with a fresh cargo of three hundred desperadoes. The "doom-ship" had stopped at Loanda and Lorenzo Marques, two Portuguese penal colonies on the African coast to pick up those who, through mutiny and bad conduct, made themselves liable to a more severe punishment.

Alcohol Smuggling.
HELSINGFORS, Finland.—(AP)—According to authoritative estimates nearly 2 million gallons of alcohol were smuggled into Finland during the current year, of which amount only approximately 750,000 gallons were seized by the police.

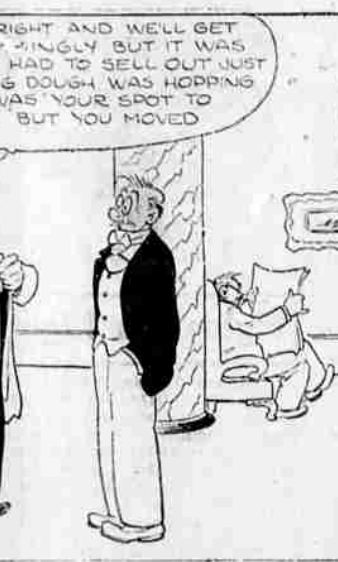

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—(AP)—Authority for Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and Wyoming to make an agreement for division and apportionment of the waters of the Columbia river, and other streams was sought in a bill introduced today by Senator McNary, Republican, Oregon.

FLORENCE, Italy.—(AP) An old superstition which caused farmers of a district near here to add a drop of water to each mill of fresh milk lest the cow sicken and die has been attacked by food inspectors. The latter averred that some of the drops were too voluminous.

THE NEBBS—Good News?

About New York

By Richard Massock.
NEW YORK.— Little tales of Manhattan.

One of the better press agents of up-and-down Broadway, known for his ability and conscientious devotion to his job, found at 5 o'clock on a recent opening night that the lobby display cards had failed to reach the theater.
