

Local and Personal

Preparing For Honor Roll

Pupils of the Medford schools were busy this morning getting ready for the health honor roll celebration to be held next Friday. Dr. R. R. Elliott was examining a group of boys and girls in the auditorium from the clinic.

Only Two Bones Broken

Reports from the Community Hospital today indicated that Max W. Cave, local boy who figured in a motorcycle mishap on the Pacific highway north of Central Point Sunday, was in a satisfactory condition today. He sustained a broken ankle and arm, but not a fractured hip, as had been first feared.

Wedded in Grants Pass

A marriage license was issued Saturday to Clifford Edwards Foster, 48, and Lucille Bryant Rowley, 49, both of Medford.—Grants Pass Courier.

16-in. green pine slabs, large or small loads. Valley Fuel Co., Tel. 3441.

From Eastern Points

Harry H. Sher of New York City, F. Skaggs of Chicago, Ill., and Raymond Wing of Philadelphia, Pa., are among the guests from distant cities registered at local hotels.

The Medford Beauty Shop will be open evenings until 7. Phone 191. We give K. & H. green stamps.

Building Work Handicapped

The rain of the past few days has handicapped the building program in Medford, as no new applications for building permits have been received by the city for the past few days. However, quite a number are expected when the weather becomes better.

See Brill's Sheet Metal Works for radiator, fender and auto body repairing.

Earwigs in Portland

The extent of damage caused by earwigs, about the home still seems a moot question. But there are few who do not experience an unpleasant shock when a little visitor with long tail drops from the heart of a rose and scampers gaily across the breakfast table.—The Oregonian.

Come to St. Mark's Guild hall Wednesday evening for a good time. Tickets for this spring party may be secured at the Electric Bakery on Main street or Larry Schade's Jewelry Store on Central Ave.

Leaves for Yreka

Walter Laverette left this forenoon for Yreka to make further arrangements for the opening of the new theater he has under construction there. He said this forenoon that it would be in operation in two or three weeks and would be open about two weeks before the new Holly theater in Medford.

Phone 542. We'll haul away your refuse. City Sanitary Service.

Immense Starpon Caught

Three Baker, Ore., men, Dr. C. J. Bartlett, W. D. Carter and Bud Blakely, landed a 200-pound starpon at the Baker ranch on Snake river Tuesday, after a struggle of four and a half hours.

Ethelwyn B. Hoffmann's have an exceptional group of dresses in sizes 14 to 44, reduced to $10 and $15.

Eight Licenses Yesterday

Of the eight auto licenses issued on the sheriff's office yesterday, six went to Medford motorists and one each to Central Point and Applegate.

Tomorrow only, 100 new straw hats, worth more than three times the price, for only 89c each. Kiddie hats 59c. The Emmy Lou Hat Shop in the M. M. Store.

Here from State Points

Among the Oregon residents registered at local hotels, other than those from Portland, are Geo. L. Wilbur of Hood River, W. E. Pedler and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. Enyatt of Eugene, C. Beckman of Bend, Fred Whitson of Salem, James Denford of The Dalles and A. H. Ferguson, H. D. Theiss, J. A. Denn, J. W. Smith and L. Bennett of Roseburg.

Phone all humane calls, Police Station, 854. 1212.

Use More Dairy Products

Specify Flaher's Milk Bread when you phone your grocer.

Car Collisions Yesterday

Three auto figures in a car crash yesterday on Riverside avenue. J. C. Smith was driving against the curb and two cars driven by Mrs. J. M. Deaper and Ivan Hockersmith, in attempting to dig around Smith, came together in a collision. The damage to the cars was not serious. Another collision in Medford yesterday involved cars driven by J. A. Denn of Roseburg and J. D. Russell, at the intersection of Ivy and Main streets, according to the police department today.

Spent Week End in Klamath

Mr. and Mrs. John Prescott and family and Mrs. Ruthanna Denton spent the week end visiting George Denton, of Fort Klamath, and returned to Medford yesterday.

Don't fail to see the 89c hats tomorrow at the Emmy Lou Hat Shop in the M. M. Store.

Fast Airmail to Far South

Airmail from Medford to Argentina and Uruguay will be delivered hereafter with a considerable saving of time, with the new time schedule which goes into effect this week. All mail to Central and South America leaves Miami.

Green fir slabs, heavy kind, with lots of mill end blocks. Medford Fuel Co., Phone 631.

Railroad Man Here

A. W. Schenck, commercial agent for the Missouri Pacific, arrived in Medford last night from Portland and is spending the day here conferring with local shippers. Chas. A. Fuller, assistant general agent for the Chicago Great Western railroad, is also in business caller from Portland.

16-in. green pine slabs, large or small loads. Valley Fuel Co., Tel. 3441.

Medford Boy Pledges

Ralph Jackson Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bailey, 24 West Jackson street, was pledged last week to Alpha Kappa Psi, honorary fraternity in commerce, at Oregon State college. Ralph is in his senior year and graduates in the second of June. He is also pledged to Beta Kappa Psi, honorary fraternity in accounting. Mr. Bailey spent the week end in Corvallis with his mother, having taken four members of the Medford track team to Eugene. She witnessed the state typing contest, in which Medford placed second.

Tomorrow only, 100 new straw hats, worth more than three times the price, for only 89c each. Kiddie hats 59c. The Emmy Lou Hat Shop in the M. M. Store.

Dined at Ashland

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Rinabarger and family and Lorraine Roseberry of Medford were guests at the A. A. Maheen home in Ashland on Sunday.

A special grouping of tweed and travel coats reduced to one-half their original price at Ethelwyn B. Hoffmann's.

Guests from California at Medford hotels include R. S. Graham, Mae Nolan, J. Brunst, E. B. Perrine and A. R. Kluge of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Smith of Beverly Hills, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lee, guest of Oakland, Mark White of Chico, James Fredericks of Oxnard, Orin May of Glendale, and the following from San Francisco: Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hicks, R. L. Tucker, E. Beaton, Marcia Stevenson, J. E. Irandon, W. E. Duffin, Jack Freedlander, T. G. Rogers, F. M. Smith and H. Hoefler.

Dry kindling $2.50 per load. Valley Fuel Co., Phone 76.

Visitor Here This Forenoon

Everett Faber, former high school basketball star and now a well known Central Point merchant, was a visitor in Medford this forenoon. He brought with him his usual bright outlook on the future of his city where he reports real estate has been especially active during the past few weeks. Quite a number of new residents have made their home there since last fall.

Ladies, just think, a smart new hat for only 89c, if you buy tomorrow. A kiddie hat for only 59c. The Emmy Lou Hat Shop in the M. M. Store.

Health Department Busy

The county health department yesterday, under the direction of Dr. J. C. Wilson, county health officer, and Mrs. Lydia King, county nurse, administered 400 tuberculosis tests in the Gold Hill and Central Point schools. SKIN tests will be given this week at next at Willow Springs, Sams Valley, Antioch and Agate.

Dressmaking and remodeling at the Fashion Shop, 424 Medford Bldg. Tel. 1181.

Astoria Fishing Fleet Picture

The gathering of the 2300 or more fishing boats registered at Astoria and vicinity at some particular spot along the waterfront April 26, the day before the fishing season opens, for a panoramic picture has been suggested by the Astoria Kiwanis club.

Ladies, just think, a smart new hat for only 89c, if you buy tomorrow. A kiddie hat for only 59c. The Emmy Lou Hat Shop in the M. M. Store.

Road Being Improved

The stretch of road which lies just beyond the Provoil store is being widened, which will add much to the safety of travelers. This is on the first turn after passing the store, going towards Williams, and a new and wider bridge has been put in besides the road being improved.—Grants Pass Courier.

Hemstitching, piecing, planting, button making and hose mending. Handicraft Shop. 25712.

Returns from Yreka

John Green, local contractor, has returned to this city after spending the past week transacting business in Yreka.

Dynge's dance, Dreamland Wed. and Sat. Gents 75c; ladies free. 25

Visitors Today

List of visitors in Medford today from the neighboring localities include: Wm. Briggs, attorney, of Ashland; Thomas Nichols and wife and Fred Dutton of Eagle Point, and Ernest Faber of Central Point.

Anyone who would like a bargain in a high grade banjo should call at this office and inspect the banjo left here for sale, a sacrifice regardless of cost. 25712.

Child Health Objective

By official proclamation Governor Nisblad has made May day and Child Health day synonymous, according to a statement issued by the Oregon state board of health. Eventually the day will come into recognition it is believed. Oregon's May day goal, the board points out, will be cooperation of all parents in the protection of childhood in the home and in the community.

Don't fail to see the 89c hats tomorrow at the Emmy Lou Hat Shop in the M. M. Store.

Ashland Couple to Wed

A marriage license was issued at the county clerk's office yesterday to Ivan Elmer Wilson, 24, and Viva Evelyn Williams, 28, both of Ashland.

We specialize in radiator and fender repairing at Van's Garage, 23 So. Bartlett. Phone 204.

Club Leader to Speak

H. C. Seymour of Corvallis, at the head of state club work, is to be one of the main speakers at the county school graduation exercises to be held in Ashland May 23 for pupils completing the eighth grade work.

Hello, There. Meet me at the Armory May 7. Greater Medford Club musical comedy. 41.

Dentists Meet Saturday

The regular meeting of the Southern Oregon Dental society was held Saturday evening at Hotel Del Rio, Grants Pass. Routine business was transacted.

For Sale—Cut flowers. Mixed bouquets a specialty. Also orders taken for corsages. Call at 325 South Holly st., or Phone 399-L. 29

Amended Complaint Filed

Mary Wakefield, in an amended complaint filed at the county clerk's office today against the Mead-Purch Company, seeks damages of $1000 for personal injury she claims to have received as the result of a motor mishap in Medford January 24, 1929, when the rear end of a car she was driving was struck by one owned by the defendant. The plaintiff also seeks $25.00 for damage to her car and desires to be reimbursed for doctor's fees.

Green fir slabs, heavy kind, with lots of mill end blocks. Medford Fuel Co., Phone 631.

Ashland Tuberculosis Test

Cooperating with the county health department, Dr. C. A. Haines was busy Monday treating more than 20 Ashland school children with the tuberculosis test. Forty-eight hours after the test is given reactions will be taken and children showing a positive reaction will be given clinical treatment. Every underweight child in Jackson county is being given his opportunity to receive this test.—Ashland Tidings.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl V. Tenwald, Hotel Holland Bldg. Phone 995.

Divorce Decree Granted

The circuit court yesterday granted a divorce decree to Jane Staples from Edwards Staples on grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment.

Notice to all Eagles: Attend the meeting Friday, May 2. Important business to attend to. Secy. T. H. Kinney. 49.

Swimming Party Saturday

Members of the junior class of the Grants Pass high school, on the annual picnic in the Applegate country, came on down through Medford Saturday and went over to the Jackson Hot Springs to enjoy swimming in its sulphur waters. They reported the water in great condition and it is possible that small class parties will come to this county for swimming parties at the springs from time to time.

We are offering a number of work and saddle horses for sale cheap. C. C. Hoover, Tel. 697-H-2. 41.

Kidney Clinic Thursday

The regular monthly child welfare clinic for Medford will be held Thursday afternoon by the county health department at the Y. W. C. A. on North Bartlett street. Mothers wishing to have children examined are requested to telephone the department headquarters, 1352, at the courthouse, for appointments.

Dynge's dance, Dreamland Wed. and Sat. Gents 75c; ladies free. 25

Are you going to the Armory Friday night? See "Hello There." It's a scream. Follow the crowd, laugh your troubles away. 41.

From State's Metropolis

Residents of Portland registered at Medford hotels include L. V. Rex, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Dargatt, H. G. Woodruff, J. H. Cox, F. E. Harris, H. J. Kozlosky, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. LeValley, C. C. O'Brien, D. Norton, A. W. Shoemaker, Wm. Oswald, L. J. Bennett, J. R. Stone, R. A. Blakney, C. J. Doyle, Charles Conkling, M. O. Kuris, R. H. Evans, Jay Collins, A. W. Stone and A. W. Morgan.

The Peasley's new studio now open, opposite new Holly theater. 41.

Visitor Praises Valley

J. R. Morford of Portland is a guest of his son, F. H. Morford and wife. He says Southern Oregon is very beautiful at this season of the year.

16-in. green pine slabs, large or small loads. Valley Fuel Co., Tel. 3441.

Giant Poppy on Display

An Oriental poppy of unusual size, grown by Mrs. L. M. Lounsbury of 22 Keene Way drive, is on display at the Chamber of Commerce building today. The brilliant orange blossom is five inches in diameter. Mrs. Lounsbury has a bed of the flowers and is anticipating a vivid array of color which will overrun the garden when more of them bloom.

Eyes Saved Strain

Through the courtesy of the Harwood Service company, students of the Medford grammar schools and the junior high school looked at the sun eclipse yesterday through photo film, sufficiently dark to afford a good view of the phenomena. The film was supplied to all students desiring same.

Let us haul away your garbage and refuse. Phone 542, City Sanitary Service. 35712.

Electrical Company Visitors

H. H. Nichols of the Graybar Electric company and Dan Flynn of the General Electric Supply company were business visitors here today from Portland.

Tennis rackets re-strung; 24-hour service; guaranteed work. Robinson, 417 Woodstock (across street from high school courts). 45

Address Copco in Klamath

J. C. Boyle, M. D. Field, G. L. Jackson and H. L. Bromley of the Copco general offices left this afternoon for Klamath Falls, where they will address a meeting of the Klamath division employees of the power company.

The Peasley's new studio now open, opposite new Holly theater. 41.

Norris Play Tonight

Much interest is being shown in tonight's radio presentation of the California Oregon Power company, which will take place from 9 to 9:30 p. m. The Copco players will broadcast the first production of the latest Helen Norris play entitled "Pete Goes to Market," a clever new drama, full of punch and interest. The play will feature Phyllis Quisenberry in the leading part.

Don't miss the biggest, funniest play ever staged in Medford. "Hello There," Friday night at the Armory. 41.

Green fir slabs, heavy kind, with lots of mill end blocks. Medford Fuel Co., Phone 631.

Special Sale of Pabco Paints Starts Tomorrow

Local dealers are doing much to benefit residents and to stimulate pride in their homes and their home town by focusing interest upon the beautifying and protecting of the home thru the use of paints and painting materials. Their timely offerings at much reduced prices include the entire line of the famous Pabco Multi-Service paints, enamels and varnishes. Instead of waiting for the slack time of year and then reducing prices to stimulate trade, the Big Pines Lumber Co. are giving their customers, right at the height of the paint-up and clean-up season, the full benefit of tremendous savings made possible only by buying in large lots direct from the manufacturer.

The 10-day sale now being staged gives the public an unusual chance to purchase a six months' or year's supply of paint, at almost unusual savings.

Tomorrow being opening day of the sale, the Big Pines Lumber Co. will give free with every $10 purchase of paint one quart of paint or varnish and with each $20 paint purchase a wall paint brush free.

See the page ad elsewhere in this paper.

FOR SALE—1122' screen in full view of the building, adjoining Medford south city limits, near Pacific highway. Price $5000, including crop terms. Owner 1122-F-2. 40

FOR QUICK SALE—Almost new 4-room modern home on pavement, fine lawn and garden. Attractive price. See contract very small payment down. Call 324-H after 6 p. m. 49

FOR SALE—Good 25 den. boxes and harness cheap. Phone 842-X. 42

RELIABLE young man, experienced in bookkeeping, stenography and general office work wants employment. Tel. 654-R. 40

FOR SALE—Furnished Guernsey built off 6 mo. old. J. E. Weaver, 609½ Margaret of Sams Valley school. 48

FOR SALE—By owner, creek bottom ranch, 2 acres alfalfa and 2 1/2 acres orchard, garden, good well water and electricity, close to Central Point. 1187 Geneva. 44

FOR RENT—3 rm. apt. with lights, water, garage. $17. Tel. 492-H. 44

FOR SALE, TRADE OR RENT—My home at 1951 Narragan. Tel. 498-R-2. 49

WANTED—Couple with work of any kind, city or country. Address: H. Morris, Sunrise Auto Camp. 49

LOCAL DEBATE TEAM RETURNS WITH LAURELS

William Dougherty and George Winne, Medford high school debaters, accompanied by their coach Ralph Bailey of the high school faculty, returned to Medford this morning from Roseburg where last night they defeated the affirmative team by a 2 to 1 vote.

Debate on the cabinet form of government, and its adaptability to Oregon.

Jennie Dick, salutatorian of Roseburg, and Robert Coen, valedictorian, upheld the affirmative. Professor Rinehardt, Bond, and Schumacher of the University of Oregon acted as judges.

The victory gives Medford the right to meet Corvallis Tuesday evening, May 6, in Medford. The winner in this contest will meet the McLoughlin union high school team of Bilton-Freewater in Eugene May 16 for the state finals.

The Medford team for the year was composed of George Winne, Laury Bailey, William Dougherty and George Bennett. Winne and Dougherty were chosen to represent Medford in the inter-district contests. Laura Drury and George Winne defended Klamath Falls for the right to meet Roseburg.

Miss Drury has been chosen for the valedictorian of the local school and William Dougherty, salutatorian, William was also winner in the state constitutional contest in Portland Friday, winning the right to enter the coast finals in Seattle.

Cheap lumber. Several thousand feet of boards, shipping and dimensions as follows: 2" x 12" x 12' at 50¢ per 100 ft. Medford Lumber Co., Phone 629. 42

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

FOR SALE—1122' screen in full view of the building, adjoining Medford south city limits, near Pacific highway. Price $5000, including crop terms. Owner 1122-F-2. 40

FOR QUICK SALE—Almost new 4-room modern home on pavement, fine lawn and garden. Attractive price. See contract very small payment down. Call 324-H after 6 p. m. 49

FOR SALE—Good 25 den. boxes and harness cheap. Phone 842-X. 42

RELIABLE young man, experienced in bookkeeping, stenography and general office work wants employment. Tel. 654-R. 40

FOR SALE—Furnished Guernsey built off 6 mo. old. J. E. Weaver, 609½ Margaret of Sams Valley school. 48

FOR SALE—By owner, creek bottom ranch, 2 acres alfalfa and 2 1/2 acres orchard, garden, good well water and electricity, close to Central Point. 1187 Geneva. 44

FOR RENT—3 rm. apt. with lights, water, garage. $17. Tel. 492-H. 44

FOR SALE, TRADE OR RENT—My home at 1951 Narragan. Tel. 498-R-2. 49

WANTED—Couple with work of any kind, city or country. Address: H. Morris, Sunrise Auto Camp. 49

SUPPLEMENTARY HARBOR REPORT MADE TO ARMY

A supplementary report in addition to the one presented at the hearing at Crescent City last Wednesday is being prepared by Attorney William P. Ellis for the Northern California-Southern Oregon Development association, and will no doubt be in the hands of Major E. H. Repes, district engineer, within a week. The report for the most part will contain estimates of the possible tonnage over the Crescent City harbor five years hence and also a very thorough analysis of boat and truck freight rates as compared with those of the railroad serving this section.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Plans for establishment of the Roy Scout camp at Lake O' Woods were announced today, following return of Wm. Lee Bricker, scout executive, who the 6th attended and also a very thorough analysis of boat and truck freight rates as compared with those of the railroad serving this section.

This location for a camp had been approved by Mr. McDonald.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

LAKE O' WOODS CAMP FOR SCOUTS PLANNED

Plans for establishment of the Roy Scout camp at Lake O' Woods were announced today, following return of Wm. Lee Bricker, scout executive, who the 6th attended and also a very thorough analysis of boat and truck freight rates as compared with those of the railroad serving this section.

This location for a camp had been approved by Mr. McDonald.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.

Time did not permit Mr. Ellis to have this ready by hearing day.