BIG PINES OFFERS BUILDER'S SERVICE

"For nearly a quarter century the Big Pines Lumber Co. have maintained a builder's service of some nature, and they are now offering a builder's service, equal to most of the large cities of the Pacific coast," said Manager H. A. Thierolf today.

"Modernization, the spirit of the present age, is a public demand. The new and beautiful now enters into every phase of the present day scheme of things. Color and beauty are no longer confined to the home. It has penetrated the office, shop, and factory, the most present development affecting machinery and equipment," he continued.

"The home of the present day is as unlike that of a few years back as are the modern modes of transportation compared to those of twenty and thirty years ago. The affect has been an advanced standard of living, a deeper and broader appreciation of the beautiful in everything.

Through the service of the Big Pines Lumber Co. it is now possible to secure complete interior and exterior decorating schemes, pertaining to every detail of the home. They have arranged with

FOUR WOMEN DESPISED DAN PARADOS

EACH of them had suffered by contact with Parados' iniquity—Celia Ferris, his secretary; Mrs. Parados, his wife; Miss Jahries, the housekeeper, and Carolino Brent.

In each one, there stirred fervent hopes of a revenge without limit. All four were in the Parados home, had been alone with its master in the room where, 30 minutes later, he was found dead, shot through the heart.

MURDER AT HIGH TIDE

by Charles G. Booth

This noted author has written another stirring novel of intriguing mystery. Around these four women suspects, however, he has woven a striking, unusual romance, in a sinister setting of plotting, murder and superstition.
