NEIGHBORS WOODCRAFT WILL JOIN ASHLAND IN MEETING MONDAY NITE

(Contributed)
Chrysanthemum Circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, meeting at the I. O. O. F. hall Monday night voted to accept Ashland's invitation to meet with them Monday night, May 5, at which time Grand Guardian Minnie Hiner will be here. It will be a treat for all who have not heard her talk on Woodcraft, and we hope for a good attendance.

A letter from headquarters was read commenting on the small number of juvenile members Medford has in comparison to the membership of W. O. W., and we were urged to bring our young folks into the order.

Medford and Klamath Falls met with Ashland April 21 and enjoyed a very pleasant time.

There was a fine program composed of music, both vocal and instrumental, and tap dancing. The climax was brought about when announcement was made we were to witness the wedding ceremony of a Klamath Falls-Medford couple.

The blushing bride was a handsome young lady from Klamath Falls and the groom one of Medford's most popular young men. It was evident the young man had serious intentions for he had supplied himself with the ring and a license issued by Hal E. Hosa.

DIRECTOR PRAISES CLUB SHOW CAST

The cast for "Hello There," musical comedy to be presented Friday evening, May 2, in the Medford Armory, under auspices of the Greater Medford club, is working diligently to perfect the production, Miss Rosella Zura, director, announced this morning.

"It is an interesting sight to see this large group of local talent 'do their stuff,' she added. "They practically eat up those different steps and routines. Nothing seems too hard for them to attempt, and after a few trials they accomplish the steps."

"Perhaps the most interesting of the groups is the 'Baby Dolls,' composed of very small youngsters."

A bevy of girls in choruses and clever stunts appear in the show. The dialogue is unusually witty, according to reports, and members of the Greater Medford club are anticipating a record crowd for the event.

PLANNING SEPTIC TANK DEMONSTRATION MAY 7

The Jackson county home economics committee is meeting this afternoon with Mrs. Mabel C. Mack, home demonstration agent, to complete plans for the septic tank demonstrations to be given next week.

The first demonstration, scheduled for May 7, will be held at the home of Mrs. Oscar Shepard, Rogue River, and the second, May 9, at the H. E. Whetstone ranch near Tofo. The executive committee will also meet with the Garden club committee this afternoon at the library to assist in planning for state highway clean-up day.
