DUCKS CHANGE LINEUP TO WIN 6-5 OVER STARS

Seals Continue Two-Year Jinx for Senators—Oaks Dazzle Angels at Wrigley Field 5 to 4.

(By the Associated Press)
A revised lineup with Joe Bowman, outfielder playing third base, allowed the Portland Ducks to defeat the Hollywood Stars, 6 to 5, in a free-hitting game at Portland yesterday. The Ducks came from behind to score three runs in the seventh inning. "Junk" Walters, pitching his first game since the opening week of the season, was the winning hurler.

Jimmy Ryan, manager of the Sacramento Senators, will have his fingers crossed for the remainder of the season with the Seals at San Francisco this week in the hope that a two-year losing streak will be broken.

Yesterday, for the 15th straight time, the Seals defeated the Senators by a score of 8 to 6. Ryan selected his leading bat, Ray Kautsky, to subdue the locals, but Kautsky's spittball was unequal to the occasion.

Jimmy Zinn, the most potent hurler at Nick Williams' beck and call, lunged up his fourth victory of the season.

Two runs were registered by "Red" Wynn of the Seals and by Meryl Hoag of the visitors.

Jack Lovell's Los Angeles club saw red yesterday when Carl Zambuck and his Oakland marauders visited Wrigley field for the first time this season. The sprinting Zambuck's men, in keeping with the brilliant color scheme of their uniforms, was too much for the Angels, the Oaks winning a 6-to-4 victory.

Ken Douglas, southpaw of the Missions, stopped a nine-inning rally by the Seattle Indians and the former team won the series opener, 4 to 3. Douglas relieved Castor, who weakened in the ninth inning. A home run by Bill Bonds, Mission shortstop, in the eighth inning was the winning hit.

SECOND CARNERA LOCATED IN ITALY; JUGGLES CANNON

VOLTABAROZZO, Italy, April 30.—(AP)—In Giovanni Camporez of this township, a technician 32 years old and 6 feet 6 inches tall, weighing 242 pounds, after a month's intensive training, boxing promoters of nearby Padua, home of the gentle Saint Anthony, believe they have found a Primo Carnera. Camporez completed his service with the mountain artillery two months ago.

His comrades aver that his favorite sport while with the colors was presenting arms with a barrel of M. M. field pipe or holding five husky soldiers in a pyramid on his massive shoulders.

He is now undergoing a more intensive training and is said to be developing considerable aggressiveness, speed and ring generalship. He expects to have his first fight about two months hence.

KRUSE WILL FIGHT AGAINST HEADLOCKS

It was two years ago when Ed (Strangler) Lewis, then the world's heavyweight champion, appeared in Medford and in less than five minutes defeated a young wrestler, Bill Shaw, after the latter had spent several weeks here preparing for the bout. However, Lewis is not expected to have such an easy time when he meets Bob Kruse, Portland, Saturday night at the armory.

Kruse is a veteran of many ring battles and once before he was in a tight bout in Canada, giving the ex-champ considerable trouble before being defeated. The Portland man has ambitious plans for Saturday night and is perfecting a good defense against Lewis' headlocks.

VOLUMINOUS VENETIAN BARRIED IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, April 30.—(AP)—Primo Carnera and four members of his managerial staff today were suspended by the New York state athletic commission. The suspension followed the arbitrary action by California boxing authorities arising out of the big Italian's questionable bout with Leon Chavaler at Oakland. Three members of Chavaler's staff were declared ineligible as they did not hold New York licenses.

HEAVY BOMBARDMENTS SEEN IN SEVEN CONTESTS AS EXAMPLE OF NEW WINNING TECHNIQUE.

By Hugh S. Gallerton, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer
The idea of having one big inning to win a baseball game seems to be coming more and more into favor by accident or intent. The sluggers of the big leagues, now finding their batting eyes rarely after rather slow starts, are becoming a group of opportunists, pounding out enough runs to gain a victory by accident or intent. The sluggers of the big leagues, now finding their batting eyes rarely after rather slow starts, are becoming a group of opportunists, pounding out enough runs to gain a victory by accident or intent.

The seven big league games played yesterday gave just one set of illustrations of this fact, out of the many that have turned up lately. The Cincinnati Reds and St. Louis Cardinals had no chance to hit, due to wet ground.

The Robins and the Giants carried the ball to its limit as Brooklyn won for the second time in a row by a score of 15 to 15. Brooklyn scored eleven runs off four shut pitchers in the second frame only to have the Manhattan warriors come back with a nine-run third frame.

Win in One Frame.
Philadelphia's National league club likewise won an entire game in one inning with the Boston Red Sox as their victims. After seven scoreless stanzas of a duel between Ray Benge of the Phillies and Bob Smith of Boston, Philadelphia suddenly started hitting in the eighth to score all its runs in an 8 to 2 triumph.

The Pittsburgh Pirates gave the Chicago Cubs seven runs in the first three innings and got them all back in one to beat the National league champions, 15 to 9.

The Washington Senators, in their tilt with the Yankees, produced the only big inning in the four American league games to win, 8 to 8, their eighth in a row and make their winning streak the longest either major league has seen this year.

The champion Philadelphia Athletics were content to get their runs in four, but led by Al Simmons and Mickey Vernon, they got to two times an extra single to beat the Boston Red Sox, 5 to 5.

Wall Street Report

NEW YORK, April 30.—(AP)—The stock market had a two-sided affair today with the high priced specialties, oils and public utilities presenting strength while renewed weakness developed in many of the steels, copper and rails. Prices generally bounded upward at the start, ran into a storm of selling before midday, then made irregular recovery.

Copper prices broke sharply on the London metal exchange, leading to rather widespread expectations of a further cut here, probably to around 15 cents a pound.

Persistent selling of the steel, copper and merchandise groups offset efforts to lift the oils, utilities and motion picture shares. The close was irregular. Sales approximated 4,000,000 shares.

deat and, probably, the human race has been improved somewhat by destroying murderers as fast as they were caught.

It is a mistake to burn prisoners alive in unsafe prisons, a mistake to jail them like "caged animals." Quite apart from human decency, it doesn't pay. Men thus caged, apt to cause trouble when they leave the cage.

Delegates to the naval conference are back from London "confident that real results have been achieved."

A majority of citizens are satisfied to know that no great harm has been done.

Delegates have not fought back any five-power agreement under which this country would be obliged to send over billions of money to be spent, and men to be shot, in case Europe decided to start another war.

Senator Capper of Kansas, who knows the people of this country, makes this sound statement: "The American people will never again participate directly in Europe's troubles by taking up arms."

Those responsible for the American government, bearing that in mind, should not promise things that the people will not allow them to perform.

Fred Williams, able flier at the Long Island Curtis airport will attempt to break the world's "looping" record.

Charles V. Holman now holds a record with 14 1/2 loops, and Williams hopes to make 2000 loops.

The dangerous effort is doubtless useful in testing strength of planes. Otherwise, it doesn't matter whether a flier loops 100 times or 2,000 times.

You can buy "dumbler pigeons" that tumble over and over in the flight. But for service you need the carrier pigeon that goes straight ahead.
