Thayer, have been the inspiration for many social affairs of the week, among the most recent being the dinner given in their honor by Mrs. M. N. Hogan at her home, Siskiyou Heights, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Burns plans to leave Sunday for her home and Mrs. Loomis and her daughter will remain in Medford for another week. Several affairs are being planned for them. The Loomis family formerly lived in this city. They have been greeted on their return by hosts of friends.

"Hello, There" Holds Boards Tonight.

Drama minded residents of Medford and members of various clubs of the city interested in the promotion of the Greater Medford club building fund will attend the showing of "Hello There," musical comedy, directed by Miss Rosella Sure, under auspices of the Greater Medford club at the armory tonight.

Many of the city's leading artists will appear in the humorous production, which is punctuated here and there with colorful choruses and clever songs. Co-operation is asked of all civic organizations to make the returns from the presentation equal to the effort exerted to bring to Medford such fine entertainment.

Medford students that will appear in the May Festival at Ashland May 8 and 9, will put on a program at the senior high school Wednesday evening at 7:45. Fifth and sixth grade students, the Junior high mixed chorus, and the Girls' Glee club of the senior high school will each give three numbers.

The high school band under the direction of F. Wilson Wait will play three numbers. All interested in the program are cordially invited to attend.

Alumni of several universities and colleges were in attendance from Ashland, Grants Pass and Medford. Following the covered dish supper several hours were spent at bridge.

Members present were Mrs. Earl Voorhies, Mrs. Ward Hammond, Mrs. Martha Bash and Mrs. C. H. Woodward of Grants Pass; Miss Katherine Vincent and Miss Linton of Ashland; Mrs. Wilson Wait, Mrs. Emerson Merrick, Mrs. Arnold Butler, Mrs. J. P. Moffatt, Mrs. Glen Jackson and Mrs. Don Newbury of Medford.

YOUNG PLAYERS CAPTIVATING IN FANCIFUL THEME

(By Mary Greiner)

The earnest logic of youth, overtoned with the philosophic humor of maturity, effected a well rounded appeal in the three-act play, "Crystal Heart," written, directed, and yesterday afternoon produced by Tom Swem in the new Valley School auditorium on Siskiyou Heights before a large and appreciative audience.

With 40 small boys and girls in the cast, each contributing a necessary characterization to the fanciful story of youth's crystal heart, the presentation was declared by many to be one of the most ambitious as well as one of the most unique of its kind ever seen locally.

The dialogue, part of which was written in verse and interspersed with musical numbers, carried along in a delightful and rhythmically pleasing vein the theme of springtime and those characters which conspire to make her the most colorful season of the year.

The plot concerned itself with youth's crystal heart which was stolen from the golden-haired child, Bee, (Natalie Tengwald) by a Mischievous Breeze (Billie Salade) who carried it to the Sad Poet (Ruth Mosher).

Saddened by the loss of her beautiful heart, Bee was championed by the whimsical Kitty Willow (Alicia Ruhl), the Stray Sunbeam (Jean Schuler), the Wind (Granger Kenly), Peter Rabbit (Douglas Janney) and other vigorous characters who finally guided the poet into the little girl's garden.

The melancholy verse-maker, however refused to surrender the heart until presented with something that would outweigh it on the scales held by the Weather Prophet (Shelby Tuttle).

Gold and priceless treasures were pledged but, also, they failed to make an impression on the scales. The book of memories and the rose colored spectacles of Gammer (Patricia Thompson) and Gaffer (Jimmie Beesley) balanced the scales but did not outweigh the crystal heart.

A startling climax was brought about by diminutive Susan Vilas, who as the sleepy little hyacinth, stretched her arms toward the audience and plead:

"Is there any Mother Love out there?" Her appeal met an immediate response across the waves of sympathetic laughter, and so deluged was she with this required quality that the crystal heart was outweighed and restored to the anxious hands of Bee.

The scenery and costumes, effective and colorful, were also supervised by Mr. Swem and executed by the young students and faculty members of the school. They, in addition to the dramatic presentation, represented thoughtful planning, patience and hard work.

Among the additional principal characters who contributed to the story of "Crystal Heart" were Goodman Farmer, played by Bobby Conroy; Mrs. Anne Scherer; Madame Rouge Gorge, Anne Dean; Robin, Bill Vester; Helios, Jimmy Henry; Spring, Helene Salade.

Not only as a scene painter, costume maker, stage carpenter, stage director, but as author, Mr. Swem was called before the curtain at the close of the play, to receive the hearty applause and congratulations of the enthusiastic audience.

PORTLAND, Ore., May 2.—(AP)—Mrs. J. H. Keller, 50, died in a hospital here today from injuries suffered last night in an automobile collision. DEPUTY SHERIFFS NAB ALKY RUNNER ON PHOENIX ROAD

The third big alcohol seizure to be made by the sheriff's office in a week occurred this morning when Deputy Sheriffs Louis Jennings and Charles Bennett arrested W. Free of San Francisco for the possession and transportation of 170 gallons of alleged alcohol. The arrest and seizure were made on the Pacific highway south of Phoenix.

Free was to have a hearing in justice court this afternoon. His car a big Master Six Buick coupe, has been confiscated by the officers.

The man claimed he was en route from San Francisco to Seattle on a regular trip. He was accompanied by his wife, against whom no charge will probably be placed.

The cargo of alcohol, with the exception of a gallon, was to be poured into Bear creek this afternoon. A law passed by the last legislature makes it impossible for state officers to save any of the alcohol for the benefit of hospitals or physicians having a legitimate use for it. Any violation of the law by officers means a penitentiary sentence. Alcohol captured so far by officers in this county has been destroyed with the exception of a small amount saved for evidence.

A SIMPLE STEP TOWARDS HEALTH

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is a Daily Essential and Millions Know Its Effectiveness in Relief of Constipation

Perhaps the one simple thing you are not doing to guarantee permanent health is having sufficient roughage in your food. Absence of this roughage is the direct cause of constipation which results in so many other ills—headaches, listlessness, general depression, indigestion and, sometimes, serious disease.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is roughage. It is positively guaranteed to relieve both temporary and recurring constipation or the purchase price will be refunded. Two tablespoons daily (in serious cases, with each meal) is the proper amount.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN also helps you to health in other ways. It is rich in iron, practically all of which goes into the blood, bringing red, healthy color to the complexion. It helps prevent anemia. Be sure to include it in reducing diets.

Many eat Kellogg's ALL-BRAN with cream or milk added. It is a delicious addition to cereals, fruits and soups. In cooked foods, such as bran muffins, it is just as effective in the relief of constipation. Recommended by doctors. Ask your grocer for Kellogg's ALL-BRAN in the red-and-green package. Served everywhere. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.
