

CAMERAGRAMS

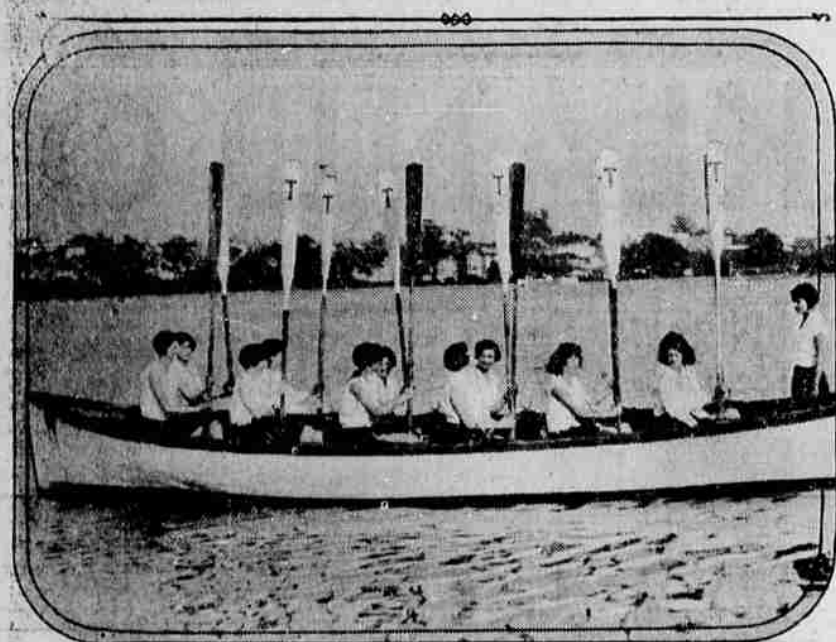

BRIDESMAID—Charming Miss Rosamond Holton, above, of Boston, was maid of honor at the fashionable wedding of her sister, Eleanor, in the historic Old South Church in Boston recently.

A LITTLE WATER COLOR FROM TOKIO TO MAINE—As charming as the design in a Japanese print is the beautiful celebration arch pictured above. It stands in front of the Imperial Palace in Tokio from where Emperor Hirohito started the reconstruction festival recently. Crossing the Pacific to San Francisco the giant Carquinez bridge, below, looms impressively across the bay. In the background is a sugar refinery working at full blast. Another magnificent thing on water is John Pierpont Morgan's palatial $3,000,000 yacht, Corsair, shown at the left, following launching ceremonies at Bath, Me.

GIVING THE CAPITOL A RING—You know there's something in the air when these army planes start laying down smoke screens. This striking photo shows such a plane completing a ring around the state capitol at Sacramento, Calif., where 1930 army air maneuvers were held.

THREE CHEERS AND A TIGER—And N. B. Boomhower, above, sportsman, of Del Monte, Calif., had plenty to cheer about when he bagged this great Bengal tiger during his jungle hunt in India recently. The animal measured five feet six inches.

LOOKS LIKE A SQUEEZE PLAY—but Rogers Hornsby, star second sacker for the Chicago Cubs, is merely showing pretty Laura Lee, movie actress, how to handle the stick. And it seems that Laura has made a hit.

"MUCH OBLIGED FOR THE LIFT," as the donkey might have said. This is how Joseph Schnell, first-class seaman on the U. S. S. Pittsburgh, and champion heavyweight wrestler of the U. S. navy, gets his daily workout. The photograph was made at Soochow, China.
