Mrs. M. N. Hogan was hostess at a dinner party at her home on Siskiyou Heights Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Edith Loomis and daughters, Mrs. Bruce Burns and Miss Adele Loomis, who are guests of Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Thayer.

By Carvel Reames

Miss Marion H. McClench, national president of Business and Professional Women's clubs, will give a lecture for these clubs in Medford during the convention, May 16, 17 and 18.

Miss McClench is a graduate of Smith college. She could have easily entered the insurance business in Massachusetts for her father, William H. McClench, was president of the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance company. But she was not satisfied with this easy way so she went to the Detroit offices of the company where she was comparatively unknown. Miss McClench has always been deeply interested in clubs for women.

Mrs. Dagg is Guest at Bridge Luncheon

Mrs. R. W. Clancy entertained with a bridge luncheon at her home, Medford Heights, yesterday afternoon, honoring her daughter, Mrs. H. M. Dagg of Seattle. Several hours were spent at the bridge tables, prizes being won by Mrs. William P. Gillmore and Miss Gertrude Butler.

Mrs. Dagg, who is accompanied by her young son and daughter, Robert and Virginia, plans to spend another week in this city with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Clancy, before returning to her home in Seattle.

Card Party To Be Thursday Event

The Pythian card party will be held Thursday evening, May 8 in the Knights of Pythias hall. Mrs. J. W. Nixon, Mrs. C. J. Wolfe and Miss Maxine Hoehne will be hostesses for the occasion. Five hundred and pinocle will be the diversions of the evening, followed by serving of refreshments. The public is invited.

Allons Club Members Guests at Bolger Home

Mrs. Everett Brayton and Mrs. W. S. Bolger were hostesses at the latter's home Thursday evening to members of the Allons club. Tulips, irises and spruce were arranged in bouquets about the room for the occasion. Following several hours of bridge, with three tables in play, first prize for high score was awarded Mrs. E. J. Sullivan and second went to Mrs. Wm. Lee Bricker.

Mrs. Lamm Hostess
Mrs. A. H. Lamm entertained with a luncheon at the Town and Country shop Friday of the past week in compliment to Mrs. Chas. P. Witter, popular guest from Berkeley, Cal., who is spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hill.

Miss Marion H. McClench, national president of the federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, who will be guest of the Medford and Grants Pass clubs during the state convention to be held in this city May 16, 17 and 18.

Spring Dance, Guild Hall Colorful Event

A festive affair of the past week was the spring dance given Wednesday evening in the St. Mark's Guild Hall by the St. Ann's Altar society. The new impetus social events have experienced during the second week of the after-Easter season was evidenced in the spirit of this party.

Colorful bouquets of spring flowers were arranged about the hall, converting it into an artificial garden. Music for the dancing was furnished by the high school Melody Makers and for those persons not dancing, card playing was arranged on the platform by Mrs. Melaine Herbert and Mrs. W. H. Fisher, chairmen of the card committee.

Decorations and other details of the event were completed by the general committee composed of Mrs. Leo Garlock, Mrs. J. W. Young and Mrs. M. Gerdes, who also acted as hostesses.

Miss Kelleher and Mrs. Garrett served at the punch bowl.

Graduate Nurses Entertained Friday
Mrs. J. Leo Shaughnessy and Miss Adeline Burchard entertained members of the Graduate Nurses' association at the former's home, 507 King street, Friday afternoon.

A brief business session was held, with Mrs. W. E. Bolger, president, presiding. Following this a very interesting talk was given by Mrs. Thomas Barry on "The Developments of Nursing in the United States."

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

The following graduate nurses were present: Mesdames Bolger, Raymond Fish, E. E. Osborne, W. C. Ashpole, Clarke, Thomas Barry, Humphreys, Thompson, Frees, Janson, Hemphill, R. A. Smith, Kent, Shaughnessy, and Mesdames Hazel Swayne, Carmen Dorothy, Thelma Kent, May Johnson, Marie Miller, Agnes Daugherty, Augusta Glover, and Adeline Burchard.

Entertain With Dancing Party
Miss Janet Trill and Miss Luella Corn entertained a group of their high school friends with a dancing party at Miss Corn's home on Route 2, Friday evening.

Those present were: Mesdames Mary, Frances and Bertha Arnspiger, Lella Van Denmark, Geraldine Fox, Luella Littrell, Florence Newman, Madge Kungman, and hostess, Mesdames Paul Turner, Melvin Anderson, Nelson Flory, Wendell Tolle, Berle Thornton, Budd Gail and Arthur Cook.

Cards Enjoyed at Hedrick Home
Mrs. E. H. Hedrick entertained a group of friends with a bridge party at her home Wednesday evening. There were two tables in play and first prize for holding high score was awarded Mrs. C. D. Thompson and second given to Mrs. Wilson Walt.

Mrs. Hedrick was also hostess at a theatre party for eight during the past week.

Surprise Party For Mr. Solinsky
About thirty friends of Mr. E. C. Solinsky called at the Solinsky home on Queen Ann last Saturday evening to help him celebrate his birthday. The guests came unannounced and dressed in costumes which made them almost unrecognizable.

Several hours were spent around the bridge tables after Mr. and Mrs. Solinsky had been dressed in costumes which vied with those of the guests in strange styles.

Prizes were awarded Mrs. Earl Day, Mrs. F. G. Thayer, Dr. R. W. Steeter, Dr. Goldsberry and Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Hogan. Mayor A. W. Pipes was also awarded a prize for the best costume.

Leo's Wives To Meet With Mrs. Shangle
Mrs. J. Verne Shangle will be hostess to members of Leo's Wives at a covered dish luncheon to be given at her home on Wednesday, May 7 at 12:30 p. m.

A delightful event of the past week was the bridge luncheon given at her home on Siskiyou Heights by Mrs. Don Newbury on Friday afternoon. The rooms were gay with bouquets of tulips, spruce and columbine for the occasion. Following the luncheon the guests enjoyed a short tour through the garden after which several hours were spent at the bridge tables. There were four tables in play.

Prize for high score was awarded Mrs. Glen Jackson, second high went to Mrs. W. S. Bolger and Mrs. Glenn Smith was given consolation prize.

Auxiliary Members Visit Local Society

Bouquets of rhododendrons about the rooms, yellow candles and blue glassware on the table, created a colorful scene for the Monday night meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Medford Post, American Legion held in the club room at the armory.

Visitors from Crescent City and Ashland met with the local group, Mrs. Gordon McCracken of the latter city being chief speaker of the evening. Mrs. E. Winn of Crescent City, well known contralto, sang several solos. Other visitors from the Crescent City auxiliary were Mrs. Leo Ward, Mrs. Frank Sims, Mrs. Ed Potter, Mrs. M. Williamson, secretary, and Mrs. F. Hoffman, president.

Mrs. N. C. Chaney, department president, presided over the meeting in the absence of Mrs. Wm. Lee Bricker.

Initiation composed a part of the program and Mrs. A. H. Hanwell and Mrs. Boothby were taken through the ceremony.

Following the business session and program refreshments were served by the committee headed by Mrs. Edward Leach.

Will Make Home Here
Local social circles are welcoming the addition to this city of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lee Barnes, who recently arrived from Portland to make their home here.

Mrs. Barnes was the inspiration of much entertaining in Portland before coming to Medford to join her husband, who has entered business here.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Hornall of Arbuckle, Cal., enroute home from Victoria, B. C., stopped to see their former pastor, Reverend James E. Conder, Thursday.

Merland Tollefson, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Tollefson, is a popular young tenor, having placed second in the state high school music contest conducted last week-end at Forest Grove. Mr. Tollefson also appeared on the Glee club program at the senior high school Wednesday evening.

Shower Given For Local Bride-to-Be

The Mesdames Maurine Carroll, Carmen Hiltson and Hilda Bundy were hostesses at a delightful party and shower given Thursday evening, May 1 at the home of Mrs. E. C. Jerome honoring Miss Jessie McEwen, whose marriage to Mr. Earl Johnstone of Mariposa, Cal., will be a social event of early summer.

The eighteen guests spent the evening making linen towels and holders for the bride-to-be. As refreshments were being served the door bell rang and Miss McEwen was called to receive a beautiful May basket in pastel colorings filled with gifts.

Attends Junior Week End Festivities
Miss Marlan VanSooyce is among members of the local younger set spending the week-end at the University of Oregon, Eugene. Miss VanSooyce motored to that city Friday with Mrs. B. H. Bryant, who is a guest at the J. L. Reed and Dr. W. E. Buchanan homes.

Mrs. W. M. Shepard and children will leave Medford next Saturday for San Francisco, from which city they will sail for Buenos Aires May 25th, to join Mr. Shepard who has been located there since last summer.

Mr. Shepard is associated with the Electric Bond and Share company in South America and the family will make their future home in Buenos Aires. They will be greatly missed in social circles of Medford.

Former Residents Feted Upon Return

Many affairs of the past week have been given in compliment to Mrs. Edith Loomis and daughters, Mrs. Bruce Burns and Miss Adele Loomis, who are guests in this city of Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Thayer. Mrs. Burns, who lives in Hollywood, plans to return to her home today. Mrs. Loomis and Miss Loomis, who reside in Long Beach, will remain in Medford for another week and several events are being planned in their honor for the next few days.

Mrs. Loomis and daughters formerly lived in Medford and are always welcomed back to this city.

Mrs. Moffatt Hostess
Mrs. Francis Moffatt was hostess to the 1:30 luncheon and business meeting of the Wenomah club Thursday afternoon at her home on West 9th street.

After the luncheon which was composed principally of desserts, President Sadie Nichol called the meeting to order.

It was voted to piece a quilt to raise funds for entertaining the California members in June. The next meeting, in the form of a card party, will be held at the home of Blanche Rinsbarger on Vancouver avenue May 13.

Mrs. Osborne To Be Hostess
The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the First M. E. church will meet with Mrs. E. O. Osborne, 512 South Oakdale, Tuesday, May 6th. Social committee, Mrs. Wheldon, Mrs. Conklin, Mrs. Barrett, Mrs. O. C. Boggs will be the leader. General invitation is extended to all.

Complete Visit Here
Mrs. D. M. Reedy and children and Mrs. M. Matthews of Spokane, who were the inspiration for several delightful social events, while house guests of Mrs. C. B. McMath of this city, left the first of the week for their home.

Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Hayes returned the early part of the week from Seattle, where they spent several days visiting their daughter, Mary, student at the University of Washington.

Mrs. Fletcher Fish, who will appear in the role of Mrs. Bumpstead Leigh in the clever comedy to be presented Tuesday and Wednesday of this week by the St. Mark's Guild.

Bridge Luncheon at Blue Flower Lodge

Numerous affairs have been given this week in compliment to Mrs. Chas. P. Witter and Mrs. Wm. N. Gilmore, who are guests from California of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hill. Mrs. Ernest Smith, Mrs. Reese Braley and Mrs. Searle Spencer were hostesses at a bridge luncheon given for them at Blue Flower lodge Tuesday. Tables were beautifully decorated in iris of many varieties and candles, which blended with their rich colorings. Covers were laid for 24.

Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon and first and second prizes for high score were awarded Mrs. Glenn Smith and Mrs. O. C. Boggs.

Garden Club Enjoys Address
Members of the Medford Garden club and friends were entertained at the Thursday night meeting at Hotel Medford by Mr. Ben Bones of Grants Pass, who gave a talk on bulb growing. Culture of gladiolus, tulips and iris plants received most of Mr. Bones' attention. He brought with him a display of tulips, from his own gardens.

In Two Places at Once ...

--a modern miracle

Tonight she will have guests for dinner. And the dinner will be delicious. Yet here she is ... this woman who does all her own housework ... just sauntering out of a theatre at five o'clock in the afternoon.

The Electric Range actually accomplishes this modern miracle ... it enables the woman who does her own cooking to be in two places at once. Were she to spend the entire afternoon standing over a hot stove, she could obtain no more perfect cooking results than she does by simply setting the little dials which regulate the cooking speed and cooking heat of this magic range. At the proper moment, the cooking current turns itself off ... at the proper moment it cuts itself off. It's as simple as that—and the steady, uniform heat assures perfect flavor always.

Call on your dealer today and let him demonstrate for you this clean, carefree way of cooking ... show you the very latest models, and explain his easy payment plan.
