

Local and Personal

Not Open After Hours
The sheriff's office will close promptly at 5 o'clock, no special provision being made to stay open late to allow taxpayers to make tax payments at the last minute. There was a big rush at the office today, bringing in tax payments from all parts of the county. Quite a number of payments are also being received through the mails, and if mailed before midnight tonight will still be received without being regarded as delinquent.

Visit in Grandale
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Mason and daughter, Mrs. W. W. Dinkens, spent Sunday at Grandale, visiting Mr. Dinkens, who is employed in that city.

Big Crop Expected
Indications point to a fine fruit crop in the Table Rock district this year, according to E. W. Carlton of Redskin orchard, who was transacting business here this morning. Mr. Carlton's crew has only commenced this season, the last time being early Sunday morning. Some orchards of the neighborhood have been forced to fire their smudging stoves on three mornings.

Special Edition Published
A 64-page issue of the Del Norte Triplette of Crescent City was received by the Mail Tribune, and in a concise way sets forth the resources and scenic beauties of that northern California county, of which Crescent City is the metropolis. The big feature underlying the publication of the issue surrounds the further construction of the Crescent harbor breakwater which work has been progressing for several years. Pictures of local men appear in the paper and descriptions are given of Klamath and Josephine counties, but for some reason Jackson county is omitted, although there are two pictures of the Medford airport and of a fruit picking scene.
