Hex Underwood Visits Southern Oregon.
The many Medford people who plan to attend the second day of the music festival in Ashland tomorrow will be pleased to find Hex Underwood of the University of Oregon school of music directing the combined orchestras in the afternoon program. The numbers to be played are the "Tannhauser March" by Wagner and "Valse Trieste" by Sibellus.

In the evening the university orchestra, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Underwood and Dr. Mez, will be heard in recital. The Underwoods will be guests of Mrs. E. J. Gore at a 10 o'clock breakfast in her home in this city Sunday morning before motoring back to Eugene.

Marheads to Occupy Shepard Home.
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Muirhead, who have purchased the W. M. Shepard home on Siskiyou Heights, will move into the residence Saturday of this week. Mrs. Shepard and children leave the same day for San Francisco, from which city they will sail for Honolulu Aires to join Mr. Shepard.

Local Girl in Orchestra Tour.
Miss Buelah Gore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gore of this city, is one of the 35 students chosen to make the tour with the University of Oregon orchestra this week. Miss Gore plays violin and is attending her first year at the university. The orchestra played in Lebanon last evening and will give concerts in other Oregon cities.

Leo's Wives Meet at Shangle Home.
The home of Mrs. J. Verne Shangle, 624 Dakota, was crowded with bouquets of California azaleas, lupine, rhododendron and other flowers when the Wives of Leo met here yesterday afternoon for a covered dish luncheon. Hostesses for the luncheon were Mrs. Clay Parker, Mrs. Eugene Thornclay and Mrs. Shangle.

Following the luncheon a business meeting was held. The guests then adjourned to the card tables, where several hours were spent playing bridge. High score was held by Mrs. Lawrence Pennington. There were three tables in play, several of the guests having to leave immediately after the business session.

Will Attend Mother's Day Program in Eugene.
Mrs. Carlton James plans to leave Medford tomorrow morning for Eugene to spend the week-end with her daughter, Miss Betty James at the University of Oregon. The students have prepared an elaborate program of entertainment for their mothers this week-end in celebration of Mother's Day, which is Sunday.

Named President.
Mrs. Nina Cole Mulholland was elected president of the Delphian club for the coming year to succeed Mrs. Vivian Barto at the all day meeting held yesterday at Mrs. Glenn Fabrick's cabin on Rogue River. Other officers elected are Mrs. Fabrick, first vice president; Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, second vice president; and Mrs. Aethna Vetter secretary-treasurer.

Guests Here From Klamath.
Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Sismore of Klamath Falls are in this city visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Orth of South Oakdale. Mrs. Sismore recently returned from Australia, where she spent considerable time with her sister, Mrs. James Cotchett.

Mrs. Charles Strang leaves Medford tomorrow for Seattle to visit her daughter, Mrs. Helen Holmes and granddaughter.

High School Groups Enjoy Picnic.
About 30 high school Endeavorers from the First Christian churches of Medford and Ashland journeyed to the forks of the road near Wagner Gap Tuesday evening for a hobo picnic. Although snow and rain were encountered on the trip, the young people had a delightful time.

Hobo stew, buns, marshmallows and coffee were served by the boys.

These social meetings are to be held every month.

Daughters of Nile Meet Saturday.
The regular May meeting of Zuleima Temple No. 13, Daughters of the Nile, will be held in the Medford Masonic temple on Saturday afternoon, May 10, following luncheon at the Hotel Medford at 12:30.

A good attendance is desired by Mrs. Sweeney, queen of the temple, as this is the last meeting before the convention of the supreme session in Chicago, to which Mrs. Sweeney is a delegate from Zuleima Temple.

A special program has been arranged for the entertainment of members and is in charge of Mrs. John Perl, assisted by Mrs. O. O. Alenderfer.

Vote of Thanks.
A vote of thanks was extended station KMED for broadcasting the program of German operatic music for the club in the morning. Following the business session a covered dish luncheon was served followed by several hours of cards.

Five States for Bone Dry

The chief feature of the last Literary Digest poll on prohibition all favor the dries, although repeal still leads strict enforcement by over 400,000 votes—a total of 1,969,579 for repeal and 1,248,589 for strict enforcement.

For the first time the total for strict enforcement passes the total for modification by about 17,000—the totals being, for strict enforcement, 1,248,589, and modification, 1,231,849.

Also, where as at the outset only one state—Kansas—was bone dry, that is, with over 50 per cent of the total vote for strict enforcement, there are now five, as follows: Kansas, Arkansas, North Carolina, Oklahoma and Tennessee.

On the other hand, only three of the wet states now have over a 30 per cent vote for repeal—Connecticut, New Jersey and Rhode Island.

Regarding all votes against the strict enforcement of prohibition as wet, gives the following result for the country at large:

For prohibition—1,248,589
Against prohibition—1,231,849
The complete table follows:

CAPACITY HOUSE FOR REPETITION OF GUILD SHOW

Crowds of Medford people filled St. Mark's hall to capacity last night to view the second presentation of "Mrs. Bumpstead Leigh," presented under the auspices of St. Mark's Guild. Many went for the first time and many others to take a second look at the clever comedy-drama interpreted in such an interesting manner by local artists.

The humor maintained the same high level the second night, which was established on the first, and the only cry heard about the city today was the expression of hope for a third performance, and desire to hear Fletcher Fish recite "Chic Sales" Specialist after hearing him proclaim the glories of tombstones of superior design.

Members of the cast responsible for the dramatic feast, devoured frosting and all by Medford people these two nights, are: Mrs. Fletcher Fish, Wm. Hamilton, Roberta Ward, Bobb, Miriam McDonald, Jo Murray Rostel, Frances Kenney, Ann Hamilton, H. S. Hinman, Gene Wright, Harold Brown, Ralph Burgess and Fletcher Fish.

YEOMEN TO HOLD MEETING TONIGHT

May being the annual ladies' month for the Brotherhood of American Yeomen, all offices will be filled and all the business conducted during this month by the women of the order. Tonight will be the regular business meeting for May at which time there will be regular initiation. Among the matters of business to be discussed at this time, will be the completion of plans for the Rhodanthus degree to be put on May 31st. All members eligible for this degree should be present at this meeting and assist in planning a big time for May 31st.

May 23rd, is the social night for May and the ladies have planned a special program and evening's entertainment and urge all members to come and make whoopee. Lunch will be served after the meetings.
