

GAME OF POKER IN SENIOR PLAY HOLDS SUSPENSE

Whether T. Boggs Johns, played by Charles Thomas, or George Nettleton, acted by Norris Porter becomes the butler for the other member of the firm following their game of poker, remains to be seen. These two high school seniors as the partners in the Eureka Pill company furnish a great deal of entertainment in the senior class production, "A Pair of Sixes" to be given at the Craterian Theater Tuesday, May 13 at 8:15, under the direction of Miss Isabel Willis.

That the partnership will dissolve sooner or later is evident when the members of the firm are unable to agree on the advertising policy of the pill company. One wishes to advertise the medicinal qualities, while the other, who originally suggested the violet-colored coating, think this should be the drawing card.

Margaret Melling as Miss Florence Cole adds her bit of humor to the play as the fiancée of T. Boggs Johns. The role of Mrs. Nettleton is well taken by Alberta Wirth, while Millard Younger is the book-keeper who claims the record for making the most errors. Merland Tollefson enacts the part of the lawyer, Dorothy Whitman is the English maid, who is violently in love with T. Boggs Johns.

SCOUT DRUMMERS HOLD REHEARSALS RECRUITS SOUGHT

A practice of the boy scout drum and bugle corp was held last night at the Washington school under the direction of Clayton Leases and Mr. Burke. More drums will be needed to fill the unit and they are requested to all turn out next Thursday at the school at 7:00 o'clock sharp. There is also an opportunity for a few more buglers to enter.

Special instruction is being given in bugling so that those scouts who will compete for the Sterling silver bugle to be awarded the troop which produces the best bugler may prepare for that contest.

The prize bugle is donated by Mr. Leases of the Palmer Music House and will be competed for annually until some troop has won it for the third time when it will become the permanent possession of that troop. The bugle will be engraved with the name and date for each troop which wins it. The drum corp will have a demonstration at the field meet to be held Saturday, May 24th. The contest in bugling will also be staged at that time.

Paul Berlenbach, former light heavyweight champ, was a deaf mute until he was 14 years old.

WARNER BAXTER STAR OF CRATERIAN FILM

A fascinating and intriguing Elinor Glyn story and a cast of unusual excellence make "Such Men Are Dangerous," Fox Movietone all talking drama now playing at the Fox Craterian theater, a triumphant success as screen entertainment. Warner Baxter who came into prominence for his performance as the "Cisco Kid" in "In Old Arizona," portrays the leading male role and reveals a new and delightful Baxter in a most difficult characterization. The leading feminine role is enacted by Catherine Dale Owen appearing as the beautiful bride who deserts her husband on the night of their wedding on account of his repulsiveness. She is practically a newcomer to the screen, but is, nevertheless, a talented actress and possessed of both charm and extraordinary beauty.
