ed in local circles in the sermon to be delivered tomorrow morning at the First Presbyteran church by at the First Pressylveran church by Rey. Cornelius H. Patton, D.D., secretary emeritus of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions. Dr. Patton is an uncle of Hamilton Patton of Medford and is known by several local citizens, who formerly lived in the east. Before taking up his work with the American board he held pastorates in New Jersey, Missouri and Minnesota.

In my opinion the greatest fact "In my opinion the greatest fact in the world today is the influence of Jesus Christ," is the message Dr. Patton expressed when recent-ty interviewed by the press, "That figure far back in history is reaching his hand down through the years and shaping the ideals and, considerable extent, the instituf our twentleth century The rapid development of many signs of the extraordinary potency of our Christ. Never was more apparent that in His name
