

Medford-Bend Game Sunday at Fairground Touted as Thriller

LOCALS EXPECT HARD TILT WITH HEAVY HITTERS

Cliff Best in Shape for Mound Duty — Valencia Out of Game—New Talent Added to Lineup.

The ball game tomorrow between Bend and Medford has all the earmarks of being a humdinger. Bend has a good fielding team and several heavy hitters, the Medford Merchants have already established themselves as a hard hitting team. Our boys in order to make it a clean-cut victory around the circuit, will work hard to win. Cliff Best, with his arm rounding into shape, should pitch with his old-time vigor. Turk Valencia has a bad leg, and can not play first base. However that position will be well taken care of, as the team has taken on a couple of new players, either of whom can play first base.

With good weather tomorrow it is to be hoped that the fans will show a good turnout. Business Manager Hall says: "Give us two or three more jobs and Medford will have a real ball team." Any business firm having jobs open are asked to communicate with Court Hall at once. The Pacific Highway will be open to all fans from the north.

KETCHELL DRAWS WITH LEO LOMSKI

SEATTLE, May 17.—(AP)—Wesley K. O. J. Ketchell of Salt Lake won a feather in his hat last night when he gained a six-round draw with Leo Lomski of Aberdeen, Wash., one of the leading light heavyweights in America. The Salt Lake southpaw dropped Lomski for two nine counts, one in the first round and the other in the third. Ketchell knocked out Lomski's front teeth and blackened his right eye. The Aberdeen Assasin, rallied in the last three rounds when Ketchell was endeavoring to ride on his big lead to even up the match. "Doc" Snell, Tacoma welterweight, knocked out Arizona Joe Rivers of Phoenix in 20 seconds.

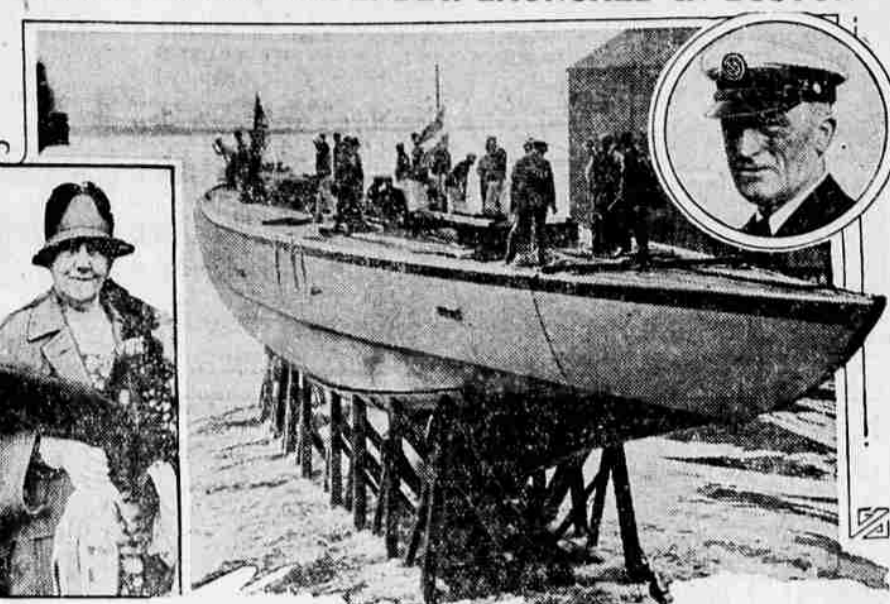

TWO GAMES SUNDAY AT GRANTS AUTO STATION

Two games are again scheduled Sunday on the Grants Service station diamond on Crater Lake highway. Kenwood will play Modoc in the morning opener at 9 o'clock and the "Strickers" will meet Brownson's tossers at 2 p. m. Admission is free for both games.

CABINET OFFICER GETS 8-FOOT MOTHER SHARK

PORT ARTHUR, Tex., May 17.—(AP)—It looks difficult for any fisherman in the cabinet to beat this Arthur M. Hyde, secretary of agriculture, hooked a shark, eight feet five inches long. After it had been pulled out on the dock there were soon eight sharks. The shark had children.

AMERICA'S CUP DEFENDER LAUNCHED IN BOSTON

The whirlwind, second and largest of four prospective defenders of the America's cup against Shamrock V. Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger, was launched in Boston. Mrs. Edwin Thorne, mother of Langdon K. Thorne, head of the owning syndicate, sponsored the launching. Capt. John Muir (above) is the new boat's skipper.

RAIN FALLS AS DERBY MOUNTS AWAIT SIGNAL

Light Precipitation and Overcast Skies Mars 56th Renewal American Turf Classic.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 17.—(AP)—A light rain and overcast skies greeted the thousands of visitors who poured into Churchill Downs today where 14 colts and one filly were ready for the 56th running of the Kentucky Derby. The rain was rather misty and light, but the clouds for a time hid the sun.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 17.—(AP)—High tariff or low, big navy or small, wet or dry—today was Derby day.

Times may have changed, more exciting scenes may have ushered in previous Kentucky classics of the turf, higher fevers of wagering may have been manifest in more prosperous times, but today at least the thoroughbred once again was king in the bluegrass region. Louisville, as of old, seethed with the turbulent spirit, the thrill and hubbub of the most spectacular of American horse races, the Kentucky derby, at one mile and a quarter, with $50,000 added, a gold trophy to the winning owner and a horde of roses to the thoroughbred crowned monarch of his class. They came to see whether Earl Sande will fulfill popular expectations and ride the eastern favorite, Gallant Fox, to victory over such horses of the west as Tarnery, Gallant Knight and Buckeye Post.

MEDFORD FOLK BUY SHADY COVE HOMES

SHADY COVE, Ore., May 17.—(Special) Mr. Snider of the Snider Creamery Co., of Medford has bought a house in Shady Cove park. The Smith summer home in Shady Cove has been bought by Miss Swearingen, patron of the Community hospital, and two of the nurses.

Mickey Worried

Mickey Walker

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 17.—(AP)—Mickey Walker, middleweight champion today realized that he had been in a real fight last night and narrowly escaped being knocked out by Paul Swiderski, Syracuse heavyweight, in the feature ten-round non-title encounter on the American Legion's Derby Eve festive program. By staging a remarkable comeback, however, Walker captured the last six rounds and won the newspaper decision.

Walker was floored for the count of nine in the second round, but arose to clinch with Swiderski and precipitate a near riot when the referee, "Tot" Wilkerson, was unable to separate them. After the gong sounded, seconds and handlers engaged in a free-for-all as an added attraction, but police stopped the unscheduled melee.

ASSOCIATED OILS AND TYPOS TAKE CAT BALL TILTS

Mail Tribune chalked up another victory in the city catball league last night by defeating Lamports 7 to 4. This puts the typos in a three-way tie for first place with Associated Oil and Jennings Tire, each with two games won and none lost.

The game last evening was replete with sensational plays on both sides. In the outfield, Chuck Clay and Howard Scheffel, both for the Mail Tribune, naded some unusually long flies that looked impossible.

Montgomery, Tribune hurler, held the Sports to but 3 hits. Associated Oil won from the Post Office, 5 to 3, and Your Office Boys took Sperry Flour into camp, 17 to 5.

Monday a thrilling game is predicted in the contest between Mail Tribune and Your Office Boys. Jennings Tire will meet Sperry Flour.

WESTERNS GAIN SERIES EDGE IN NATIONAL LOOP

Robins Only Team to Uphold Supremacy of Atlantic Seaboard — Dazy Vance Hurls Good Game.

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr. Associated Press Sports Writer Just as the east had the edge in the first inter-sectional play of the American league, the west held the upper hand in the opening east-west series of the National league, which came to its rather damp close yesterday. With only the Brooklyn Robins upholding the honor of the Atlantic seaboard, the west won 27 of the 49 inter-sectional games against 22 eastern victories and placed three teams in the first four in the standing for the series.

Brooklyn captured first place through its 10 to 3 triumph over the Cincinnati Reds yesterday, as Dazy Vance pitched another of his fine games, while the Brooklyn sluggers pounded out 16 hits and scored eight runs in the first three innings.

The Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs staged a thriller, ending in a ninth inning St. Louis rally, which brought a 3 to 8 victory.

The Boston Red Sox put on a lesser ninth inning rally to win the closest American league game by a 5 to 4 count from the New York Yankees.

Washington's Senators, with Bump Hadley and Ad Liska dividing the pitching burden in a brilliant fashion, scored more easily in both halves of a double header to take first place in the Philadelphia Athletics. Hadley pitched steadily while the Senators hit freely to win the first contest, 5 to 3. In the second game, Liska held the world's champions to three hits in a close duel with George Earnshaw, winning out by a 4 to 0 count.

The final clash between the Phillies and Pittsburgh was rained out.

SPORT SLANTS

Alan J. Gould

The Kentucky Derby always has been among the most colorful of American sports events. It is one of the few that retains the rich flavor of tradition for the old horsemen of the Blue Grass regard this race as their own and conduct it accordingly, even though airplanes and special cars bring in annually their quota of wealthy turfmen from all parts of the country.

This year England's Earl of Derby, descendant of the man for whom the original Epsom race was named, will witness Kentucky's classic bit America's Earl—none other than the great rider, Earl Sande—will be the focus of all eyes if he stages a comeback astride Galant Fox, the Belair stud's favorite.

Sande's career has been one of dramatic episodes. He was America's premier jockey when he rode Zev to triumph over the English Derby winner, Papyrus, in the $100,000 international race at Belmont Park in 1923. Zev won the Kentucky Derby that year and in 1925 Sande was up on another Derby winner, Gifford Cochran's Flying Ebony.

Sande was nearly killed in an accident at Saratoga. He has owned his own stable. He was disbarred for rough riding in Maryland and reinstated. And now he is back to the races, riding with all the daring and skillful daring of a jockey that made him so famous. Kentucky will give him a cheer and a big one at Churchill Downs on May 17.

Public links golf, now a $10,000,000 enterprise annually for some 275 courses scattered all about the country, first attracted notice when a municipal tournament was held at Van Cortlandt park, New York, in November, 1896. In contrast with the present high-powered national championship for public parks' players, the U. S. G. A. recalls that 35 contestants finished the first tournament and that the medal was won by C. M. Hamilton with a 99 for 18 holes. Ninth on the list was Walter J. Travis, later amateur champion of both the United States and Great Britain, who used an artificial rubber tee and compiled a score of 110.

The late William Howard Taft was a strong early advocate of using public parks for athletic purposes, particularly golf, which he once told interviewers "is the least injurious of outdoor games to the landscape features of our parks."

The Sharkey-Schmeling fight figures to be the first Class A heavyweight encounter in something like three years, but the preliminary battles has left the onlookers extremely cold and apathetic.

There is talk of a million dollar gate, but even the charitable object of this fistie enterprise hardly can justify an expectation of receipts in excess of $400,000 or at the most $500,000.

There was talk of a $400,000 gate at Miami last winter, but there is no way to find an adding machine and when they got through with the figures, the total was less than $200,000. Sharkey's erratic record and Schmeling's long absence from competition in this country not only make the "build-up" difficult, but present obstacles to forming any definite conclusions about what may happen.

SOLONS RETAIN TOP AS ANGELS REGAIN SECOND

Ward's Homer in Ninth Enables Sacs to Even Series With Seals—Stars in Bat Fest.

By the Associated Press. Sacramento still topped the coast league baseball standings today, Oakland and Los Angeles, however, again had swapped positions, the Angels returning to second place, while the Seals dropped to third. Otherwise the standings remained unchanged.

Sacramento had considerable trouble defeating the San Francisco Seals, 4 to 1 at the capitol city yesterday, thereby squaring the series at two games each. Until the last half of the ninth the score was deadlocked at one all. Aaron Ward, Senatorial second sacker, however, stepped to the plate in the last half of the ninth with two on and two out. Davis grooved one and Ward planted it outside the left field fence.

Running short of right-handers, who won the first three games of the series for Oakland, Manager Carl Zambach of the Oaks sent in Martin Dumovich, a southpaw, to do the honors with the result that the Angels won, 6 to 2. Dumovich, however, was responsible for only two of the six runs scored against him.

A new season mark for runs scored in a single game was established at Los Angeles, where Hollywood defeated the Seattle Indians 29 to 19. The Stars outslug their opponents 26 to 13 and gathered four errors to Seattle's three.

Portland's winning streak of two games straight was broken by the Missions, who won 8 to 5. The Beavers scored all their runs in the eighth while the Missions spread their scoring out over the third, fourth and fifth innings.
