

The Week's Society Happenings

Edited By
Eva Nealon

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Monday
Crater Lake Guild will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. Don Newbury.

Tuesday
East Side Circle will meet with Mrs. R. A. Koppes, 23 Rose avenue, this afternoon.

Wednesday
Mrs. Hazel Fry, 407 Laurel street, assisted by Mrs. Stale DeVore, will entertain the Woodcraft Thimble club with an evening of cards.
Covered dish supper at the Pythian hall 6:30 p. m.
The Catholic ladies will hold a cafeteria supper at the parish hall this evening.

Thursday
Pythian Sisters hold card party this evening.
Building Bridge club members will entertain their husbands and guests at the home of Mrs. J. W. Young at 8:00 o'clock this evening.
The Carnation club will meet with Mrs. Campbell on South Grape street.

Friday
Junior high school exhibit and carnival this evening.
Meeting of the Roosevelt P. T. A. New officers will take chairs.
Ella D. Bubba tent, Daughters of Veterans will meet at the Armory.

Miss Warner

Miss Ruth Warner, who was heard in her farewell recital during the past week, will leave soon to make her home in New York City.

Misses Ryan Brides at Tuesday Wedding

News of the marriages of two well known former members of Medford's younger set, the Misses Dorothy and Lenore Ryan, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Luke Ryan of San Diego, was received in Medford this week.

Tuesday, May 13th, Miss Dorothy was married to Mr. Joe McGowan of San Diego and Miss Lenore to Mr. Weldon McBeie, formerly of this city.

News of the anticipated return to Medford of Mr. and Mrs. Ryan has also been received by local friends, who expect them to arrive next week. Mr. and Mrs. McBeie, also plan to make their home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Ryan lived in Medford for many years, prior to locating in San Diego and will be welcomed on their return by numerous social groups.

Mrs. Sweeney to Go to Chicago Session

Mrs. Chas. T. Sweeney of this city will attend the supreme session of Daughters of the Nile to be held in Chicago, May 26 as representative of Zuleima Temple. Plans for her trip were completed at the recent meeting of the lodge held in this city.

The splendid meeting was opened with a luncheon at Hotel Medford, followed by a program presented in the Masonic hall, Mrs. John Perl and Mrs. O. O. Alender acting as chairmen.

Mothers Honored
Mr. and Mrs. J. O. N. Poling entertained last Sunday. Mothers day with a dinner at their home near Phoenix. Both Mr. and Mrs. Poling's mothers were present.

Mrs. Vincent, Mrs. Poling's mother, well known around Phoenix, and Mr. Poling's mother, who is visiting here from her home in the east. There were also little presents and remembrances for the two ladies. Other present were Dr. Dan E. Stansford, Theodore Andreanoff. A very enjoyable day was spent by all.

The Rogue River valley has won the admiration of two more individuals from the east and Medford is going to be the home city of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Cottrell, who recently came here from Baltimore to visit Mr. Cottrell's sister, Mrs. W. Y. Crowson. They plan to obtain a permanent residence here soon.

Building Bridge Club Holds Banner Party
Mrs. Jack Stewart and Mrs. R. M. Moty entertained the Building Bridge club and several guests Thursday afternoon at their homes on 10th street. Both homes were decorated with spruce, columbine, poppies and choice roses. Guests of the afternoon were Mesdames McGowan, Garrett, Wilkinson, Quisenberry, Schmidt, Scheffell, Frederick, Antle, Young, Elwood, Wagner, Gilbert, Miss Kolchort, Miss Weeks, Miss Meyers, Miss Schoch, Mrs. Shay, Mrs. West, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. Satchell and Mrs. Fred Parsons.

Ten tables were in play. At the close of the games delicious refreshments were served at the little tables. The hostesses were assisted by Helen Vincent, in the serving.

High score was held by Mrs. Quisenberry and consolation by Mrs. Scheffell at the home of Mrs. Stewart while Mrs. Giesch held high at the Moty home and Mrs. Bigelow consolation.

Next meeting will be with Mrs. J. W. Young at her home on South Oakdale Thursday evening, May 22nd.

Here From San Rafael
Mrs. R. A. Martin of this city has as house guests this week Mr. and Mrs. George W. Barlow of San Rafael, who plan to spend two weeks in the Rogue River valley, enjoying the fishing and other sports.

Mesdames Gillmore and Witter Leave Medford for South

Mrs. Wm. Gillmore and Mrs. Chas. P. Witter left on the Shasta Thursday for Los Angeles, following several weeks' visit in this city. During their stay here they have been guests of honor at many affairs.

Wednesday, Mrs. R. G. Bardwell entertained in their honor with a bridge luncheon at the Hotel Medford, at which nine guests were present. Two tables of bridge were in play. Mrs. Beaumont T. DeLoach entertained at Hotel Medford Thursday in honor of Mrs. Witter and Mrs. Gillmore.

They were accompanied by their mother, Mrs. A. L. Hill, on their trip to Los Angeles where they will visit Roy Hill, their brother. Mrs. Gillmore will then journey east to Washington, D. C., where she will join her husband, Captain Gillmore.

Mrs. Witter will then return to her home in Berkeley, and Mrs. Hill to Medford.

Social Time Enjoyed By Reames Chapter

The short business session of Reames Chapter, O. E. S., held Wednesday evening in the Masonic hall was followed by a social gathering opened with serving of refreshments in the downstairs dining room. Tables were prettily decorated in spring flowers and candles of harmonizing colors for the occasion. The officers of the chapter were presented with lovely corsages from an unknown donor.

There were about 100 members present and several hours were spent at the card tables with high score for women going to Miss Detweiler and high for men to Mr. Bray.

Mrs. Prue Angle Platt and her committee were responsible for the evening's entertainment with the exception of card playing, which was arranged by Mrs. Grace Boyl.

Mesdames Williams and Hess Hostesses

Mrs. Leo Williams and Mrs. Arthur D. Hess entertained at the home of the latter on Vancouver avenue, on Monday afternoon with a surprise birthday party honoring Mrs. A. B. Williams and Mrs. Dora Hess, whose birthdays are in May.

After a pleasant social afternoon, the hostesses served refreshments at a table attractively decorated in a color scheme of green and yellow. A bowl of yellow iris and columbine was used as the floral decoration for the table.

Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Hess were the recipients of many lovely gifts.

Those present were Mrs. A. B. Williams, Mrs. Dora Hess, Mrs. L. N. McCollom, Mrs. R. H. Seeger, Mrs. W. F. Rector, Mrs. C. A. Pickel, Mrs. H. W. Hall, Mrs. H. C. Glascock, Mrs. T. C. Dugan and the hostesses, Mrs. Leo Williams and Mrs. Arthur Hess.

Mrs. Taylor Honor Guest Thursday

Mrs. H. A. Taylor, who left this city Friday for Roseburg, where she will make her home, was complimented at a party Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Kate Collins, given by the women of the J. C. Tenney store, where Mrs. Taylor has been employed.

Following a general social time a buffet luncheon was served. Rooms were colorful with flowers for the occasion. Mrs. Taylor was the recipient of a lovely gift from the ten guests present.

Brown-Larson Wedding Wednesday in Portland

Miss Hattie Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvine J. Brown of Milwaukee and Harold L. Larson of this city were married at a quiet ceremony at the parsonage of the First Presbyterian church in Portland, Wednesday, May 14, Rev. Edgar officiating.

Following a two weeks' trip through northern cities they will be at home to their friends in Medford. Mr. Larson is employed at The Toggery in this city.

Guests From Pasadena

Dr. and Mrs. Edward H. Anglo of Pasadena, Calif. are visiting in Medford, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Gaddis, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Platt, and Chas. Angle and families.

Dr. Anglo is well known in the dental world, being the "father" of the orthodontia, also the inventor of many of the appliances used in dentistry.

This is the first visit here for a few years and he sees great improvement in Medford and Rogue river valley.

Mrs. Joe King, accompanied by her daughters, the Misses Lucia and Helen King, former residents of Medford, are visiting Medford friends over the week-end. The first of the coming week they will motor to Portland and will return to their home in Palo Alto at the end of the month.

R. N. Lewis and wife of Lincoln, Nebraska, are guests in Medford of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Westman. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis are making a tour of the west and this is their second visit in this city.

Miss Anne Purucker arrived in this city on the latter part of the week to visit with her mother, Mrs. George Purucker.

Popular Violinist

Miss Geraldine Thompson

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Thompson, who is frequently heard in musical events at the University of Oregon, where she is a student. She was a member of the cast of 300, who took part in the Oratorio of Haydn's "Creation," at McArthur Court Friday.

Local Women Named Wedding Event of Tuesday Evening

At a lovely ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle C. Franklin, 443 South Central avenue, Miss Margaret McCulloch of Yakima, Wash., and Mr. Charles Trafton of Medford were married Tuesday evening, May 13. The ceremony was read by Father Wm. B. Hamilton.

The bride wore a gown of blue georgette. Roses and potted plants made the house beautiful for the occasion.

Following the wedding a supper was served by Mrs. Franklin and Miss Myrtle Pankey. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. MacCargar, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Willoughby, Miss Pankey, Mr. Clarence Reiser, Mr. Matyger, Mr. Pat Riley, Mr. William Haskins and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin.

Mr. and Mrs. Trafton will make their home in Yakima, Wash. Mr. Trafton is assistant manager of the local Pacific Fruit and Produce company.

Celebration Held By Lodge Members

St. Tammany day was celebrated on Monday, May 13th by the members of the Redmen and Po-ahontas lodges and their families at the Redmen hall. A covered dish dinner was held at 7 o'clock, after which a short program was presented. Fred Purdin told of the origin of St. Tammany and Redmenism.

Tap dancing was a feature of the evening. Old time music for dancing was furnished by Nellie Purdin, Frank Martin and H. W. Conner.

McCaskeys Entertain Los Angeles Guests

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McCaskey of the Old Stage road, who recently returned from a week's visit in Pacific Grove, Cal., with Mr. McCaskey's mother, had as house guests during the past week, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gage of Los Angeles, who motored to this city via the Redwood highway.

Mrs. Amelia Branch of this city returned from Oswego about a week ago. She has been visiting for the past several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Ella Smith who formerly lived in Medford.

The Carnation club will meet with Mrs. Campbell on South Grape street next Thursday.

Medford Students Heard in Unusual Musical Program

Medford was well represented in the presentation of the oratorio of Haydn's "Creation" at McArthur Court, University of Oregon, Friday evening of the past week, with eleven members of the orchestra and chorus either students from Medford or former residents of this city. They were: Geraldine Thompson, Beulah Gore, Martha Sweeney, Geraldine Gardner, Alice Holmback, Evelyn Dew, Cecil Coss, Dr. Burnett and daughter, Grace, Marcus Wood and Herbert Doran.

Welcomed by music lovers of the state as the greatest musical achievement of the university, the oratorio will be long remembered. The 300 people in it were directed by John Stark Evans of the school of music.

Arthur Boardman, head of the voice department, was tenor soloist in the production. Oother soloists were guest artists, one coming from Chicago.

Carpenters Return Last of This Month

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Carpenter have sailed from Liverpool for the United States after spending several months abroad. They are expected to return to their home on the Old Stage Road the last of May.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, who also spent the winter abroad, arrived in Medford from San Francisco the early part of the week after being met in the bay city by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Scherer and H. Chandler Egan.

Birthday Party Given

Miss Gloria Williams was guest of honor at a birthday party at her home on Reddy avenue on May 7th, the occasion being her eighth birthday anniversary.

After playing games, refreshments were served at a table prettily decorated in green and yellow. Two large birthday cakes adorned the table.

Miss Gloria received many lovely gifts from her little friends. Those enjoying the afternoon were Mary Elizabeth Shreve, Ruth Storah, June Williams, Nancy Wall, Jean Jennings, Ruth Nordwich, Barbara Bigger, Donna Stevens, Betty Reames and Gloria Williams.

Mrs. Williams was assisted by Mrs. Arthur Hess.

Mesdames Trowbridge Hostesses Tuesday

Mrs. E. G. Trowbridge and Mrs. Emma Trowbridge entertained at the home of the latter with a dinner party for Mrs. Anna Seman, Tuesday evening honoring her eighty-fourth birthday.

Many lovely gifts and friendly greetings were received by the honor guest, who is the mother of Mrs. E. G. Trowbridge.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Jack Wakefield, Mrs. Sarah Cornwell, Mrs. B. J. Trowbridge Sr., Mrs. R. O. Davidson, Mrs. Sedman and the hostesses.

Former Local Artist Gives Recital, Astoria

News of Mrs. Vernon Day, formerly Miss Esther Palmer of Medford, received in this city from Astoria during the past week, informs members of musical circles here that she continues to play a prominent part in musical activities. Mrs. Day gave a concert at the First Baptist church May 9, assisted by Mrs. Fred Lindsford, vocal soloist.

The Astoria Evening Budget is enthusiastic in its praise of her ability, speaking of her as "a finished performer and very popular artist with her audiences."

Mr. Slater Johnson has returned to his home in this city following the winter's stay in Bermuda and Florida.

Mrs. C. A. Hartley will entertain a small company of friends at her home on Vancouver avenue Monday afternoon.

In Oratorio

Miss Gertrude Butler, one of the students from Medford, who appeared in the presentation of the oratorio of Haydn's "Creation" at the University of Oregon Friday.

Dr. Mary Strickler Is Much Feted Here

Several social affairs have been given during the past week in compliment to Dr. Mary Strickler, mother of Mrs. Chas. Wing, who is making a short visit here prior to sailing for Europe next month.

Mrs. T. W. Miles and Mrs. R. A. Holmes entertained for her with a bridge luncheon at the Miles cabin, Edgewood park, Tuesday afternoon. Wednesday Mrs. E. C. Dillard and Mrs. Myron Root were hostesses at an evening of bridge at which she was honor guest.

Mrs. Gael Green and young daughter Gael, returned to Medford the first of the week from spending six weeks visiting relatives in Idaho and Washington. In the former state she was with her mother, Mrs. C. T. Metcalf, of Kamiah, for several weeks.

The Roosevelt Parent-Teachers' association will meet Friday, May 23. The new officers will take their chairs at this time and important business will be transacted.

Mrs. E. W. Wilson of this city spent several days of the past week visiting in San Francisco.

Spain Wins Favor Local Residents, Who Return from Abroad

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter returned to this city during the past week after spending the winter abroad. They made the drive from San Francisco to Medford over the Redwood highway as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Scherer.

Speaking of their travels of the winter, Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter are more enthusiastic about Spain than any other country of the European continent.

Miss Butler Leaves Soon for Europe

Miss Gertrude Butler will be guest of honor of Mrs. Don Newberry, Siskiyou Heights. Miss Butler, an instructor of romance languages in the local high school, will leave in a short time for Europe, where she will make an extended tour.

Miss Butler is vice president of the Crater Lake Guild, and has been very active in this organization for some time.

Covered Dish Supper Wednesday

Of special interest to Pythian Sisters the coming week, will be a covered dish supper at the Pythian hall, 6:30 p. m., preceding the regular meeting of Tallman Temple No. 40, Wednesday, May 21st, 8:00 p. m.

It is hoped that every member, and visiting member, will make it a point to be present and participate in the supper, also the regular meeting following.

Leave for Boston

Dr. and Mrs. Cornelius H. Patton of Boston, who were weekend guests in this city of Dr. Patton's nephew, Hamilton Patton and family, left the first of the week to continue their journey home. Dr. Patton, who is secretary emeritus of the American board of commissioners of foreign missions, delivered the sermon at the morning service of the Presbyterian church Sunday.

The Roosevelt Parent-Teachers' association will meet Friday, May 23. The new officers will take their chairs at this time and important business will be transacted.

Mrs. E. W. Wilson of this city spent several days of the past week visiting in San Francisco.

Exchange Your Old Watch for a New Gruen

For DISTINCTION Choose a Gruen

A Gruen Guild Watch With its fine traditions of craftsmanship, its enduring beauty and accuracy, is assuredly a gift of Distinction and most qualified as a remembrance at Graduation.

Use More Home Dairy Products and Build a Great Home Industry

Gruen... a handsome, masculine $40 model for men and young men. Its 15-jewel Guild movement assures the utmost accuracy.

A Gruen for the Girl Graduate... its smartly fashioned case is $35... a thing of exquisite beauty. Accurate 15-jewel movement.

A liberal Allowance on your old watch when on the purchase of a New Gruen.

Brophy's JEWELERS MEDFORD, ORE.

Convention Center, Women's Interests

The convention of the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, in session in Medford this week-end, has monopolized the social calendar for most women of Medford. It will close in Grants Pass at noon today following the breakfast and installation of officers for the coming year.

Noted one of the most successful conventions in the history of the state club, the program in Medford has been filled with delightful social affairs. Among them are the breakfast and luncheon at Lathin Springs Hotel, Ashland, for which Mrs. Winnie Weishaar was chairman; the Friday evening banquet at Hotel Medford, arranged by Mrs. Sadie Howard, assisted by Mrs. Edna Isaacs; the Saturday night banquet at Hotel Medford for which Mrs. Elsie M. Brown was chairman, assisted by Mrs. Marie Schoepf; the emblem break Saturday morning at Hotel Medford, arranged by Mrs. Mabel Mack, and the International luncheon, with Mrs. Winnie Weishaar, chairman.

The splendid manner in which Mrs. Maud Chapman, president of the local club, and her committee, as well as Mrs. Phina Kasdorf, Grants Pass president, and her committee, acted as hostesses, was the source of much complimentary comment.

The coming week will undoubtedly seem very quiet to the club women after the completion of such an extensive program.

George Neuner and Family Here Monday Evening

United States District Attorney and Mrs. George Neuner, son George, daughters, Elizabeth and Carol Mae, and Miss Evelyn Noland, niece of Mrs. Neuner, all of Portland, will arrive in Medford by auto this evening enroute to San Francisco on business and pleasure.

They will spend the night with Mr. and Mrs. S. Sumpter Smith and leave Tuesday to continue the journey.

Mrs. R. A. Koppes will be hostess Tuesday afternoon to members of the East Side Circle at her home 23 Rose avenue. Mrs. E. C. Koppes will have charge of the program. Visitors are invited to the circle.

The Minutes You Have Waited Years to See

One doesn't have a graduate in the family often. Now... the moment is here. Your son or your daughter steps to the rostrum. Your love goes along. And your gift... a beautiful Elgin watch... that tells of your love.

Quality Jewelry—Fair Prices Intelligent Service

Lawrence's

WEDDING Announcements and Invitations, "socially correct," made without the expense of a copper plate.

SWEM'S Kodak, Book & Gift Shop

"Partners in Community Development"