

Medford Merchants Pound Out 10-1 Win Over Bend Athletics

BEST'S HURLING PROVES ENIGMA TO EASTERNERS

Inlanders Secure But Five Hits As Locals Lay Down Bat Barrage — Klamath Beats Ashland, 5-2.

The Medford Merchants, behind the gilt-edge pitching of Cliff Best, defeated Bend 10 to 1 yesterday at the fairgrounds, before a fair-sized crowd. It was a much better game than the score indicated, the latter overtaking the visitors when their outfielders lost long legs in the sun.

Best pitched one of the best games of his local career, and was the scribe's squad swung freely. In two innings he required six men on six balls. He allowed five hits, two of them scratch, and was stingy with free passes. The first man up in the first inning gained free transportation, and that was all.

Donovan, who started for Bend, was hit on the shoulder in his first time at bat. He was wild, and his out curve was fooling nobody, so he developed a pain, and retired to the outfield. Stewart covered to pitch and was lambasted for 10 hits, mostly for extra bases.

Pass Gives Run. Bend scored its only run in the first inning, aided by a free pass. A long hit to center scored the runner, but the hitter was too ambitious, and was thrown out at third. After that the visitors never threatened. Fast fielding held them at bay.

The Medford team looked the best of the season, and for the first time this year, "used" their leads.

There was a good crowd present, but it did not come up to the expectations of Manager Court Hill. The fans' his squad will hit the financial rocks. The attendance will improve as the fans get their temperature up.

Chester and Brackett were the leading swatters for the locals. Chester was robbed of a home run by a sensational catch by the Bend third baseman.

The Bend infield is plenty fast, but they have no heavy pitching. At Klamath Falls the Pelicans defeated Ashland, 5 to 2 in a hot game. The Lithians had no luck. Each team garnered two hits.

Victorious Walker Cup golf Team

LOCAL RACQUET WELDERS DRUB G. PASS TEAM

With the exception of "Shorty" Sans, former southern Oregon champion, Grants Pass Tennis club players were outclassed by the local clubmen in the first interclub match of the season at the high school courts Sunday. Medford wins six matches to one. Sans outlasted Harry Butler of the Medford club and won the third and deciding set, although forced to concede to put over his victory. Sans turned in the only two sets taken by the Climate City team.

The Medford club will play a return match with Grants Pass on June first.

Yesterday's results:

Butler (M.) lost to Sans (G. P.), 3-6, 8-3, 9-7.

Tollefson (M.) beat Wieland (G. P.), 6-1, 6-1.

Edmiston (M.) beat Nielson (G. P.), 6-4, 6-2.

Wilson (M.) beat Swigart (G. P.), 6-0, 6-1.

Ramsey (M.) beat Everton (G. P.), 6-1, 6-4.

Tollefson and Edmiston beat Sans and Wilson, 6-1, 6-1.

Wilson and Ramsey beat Swigart and Nielson, 6-1, 6-1.

CLARK, HAMMOND IN GOLF TOURNEY

The Medford golf club will be represented at the state amateur tournament which will be played at Eugene next week by two players, Donald Clark of this city, and Bob Hammond Jr., also of Medford who is now a student at the state university.

While neither of them expect to win the title against such amateurs as the Moo and Dolph boys, three of whom are both enthusiastic and skillful players and can be depended upon to give a good account of themselves. Don Clark will leave for Eugene the last of the week, and try out the course there, for a few days before the matches start.

WAVELY PRO TO RUN LOCAL LINKS

Ken Jeffers, who resigned as pro at the Medford golf club last week, has departed and Joe Miel, assistant pro at the Waverly golf club of Portland, has been engaged to take his place beginning his duties the first of June.

The officials of the club are delighted with Miel's acceptance of the post. He is not only an expert golf club maker and instructor, but a good tournament player himself, and is well and favorably known throughout the state.

For two years he was pro at the Eureka, Cal., golf club, where he was known as a capable and reliable person in both a professional and business way.

ALLEN APPOINTED AS McNAIR'S SUCCESSOR

SALEM, Ore., May 15.—(AP)—John P. Allen of Corvallis was today appointed by Governor Knappa as a member of the state board of pharmacy to succeed W. H. McNair of Ashland, whose term has expired. The appointment is for four years.

JONES WINS VASE IN 36-HOLE PLAY

SUNNINGDALE, England, May 19.—(AP)—Bobby Jones today won the golf vase of "Golf Illustrated" in a 36-hole medal play competition with leading amateurs of the United States and Great Britain.

The American open champion returned a 36-hole total of 143 to win the trophy. He followed a fair 75 in the morning with a brilliant 68 in the afternoon round.

The other American Walker Cup players entered in the competition also scored well. George Voight had a total of 146, George Von Elm 147 and O. F. Willing 152.

FORMER MANAGER OF JACK DEMPSEY DEAD

NEW YORK, May 19.—(AP)—Leo P. Flynn, former Madison Square Garden matchmaker and manager of Jack Dempsey, died today.

Pneumonia was the cause of death. His widow survives.

A veteran of the boxing game, Flynn was known as one of the shrewdest managers and conditioners of fighters in the ring. He handled Jack Dempsey in the Manassa Mauler's second battle with Gene Tunney, as well as in his fight with Jack Sharkey.

Flynn would have been 61 years old on June 1.

Home Run Clout Good For Single After Hard Run

MILWAUKEE, May 19.—(AP)—Harry Harder hit a home-run yesterday, and by dint of speedy running stretched it into a single.

Harder, a negro pitcher, slammed the ball to the edge of the playing field, and ran like sixty. He circled the bases and came in standing up, leaning all over. In the meantime the outfielder, Bob Simmons—a brother of the well known Al—was fielding the ball.

Harder's teammates began speculating wildly. It appeared he had neglected to touch first base. So Harder started all over again, sprinting like mad down the first base line. He got there just in time, and the scoreboard gave him a single.

Speedboats Seen in Action Sunday

Boat tryouts at Emigrant lake yesterday for the big outboard motorboat races to be held there next Sunday by the Medford American Legion post attracted a large crowd of spectators, who watched the local racers put their boats through their paces. Quite a number of boats were on the water, including those of Helmer Flohrer, John Ehnert, Herb Strang and others. Judging from results of their time yesterday, spectators can expect close races next Sunday. There will be several important announcements made on the races during the week.

Starting Blocks Record Illegal

BERLIN, Ger., May 19.—(AP)—The records committee of the International Amateur Athletic Federation today recommended rejection of the American proposal to recognize sprint records made with the use of starting blocks. This action forecast disapproval of the mark of 9.2-5 seconds for 100 yds. by George Simpson of Ohio State, as a world's record.

Simpson's "nine-two" hundred, turned in at Chicago on June 8, 1929, was accepted by the Amateur Athletic union at its convention last year on the condition that the blocks be approved by the international federation.

Sonnenberg and Ed Meet Tonight in Title Bout

KANSAS CITY, May 19.—(AP)—Gus Sonnenberg, claimant to the heavyweight wrestling championship of the world, and Ed (Strangler) Lewis, from whom he wrestled his title claim, will meet here tonight with the reputed championship again at stake.

The Missouri Athletic commission has passed on to the referee, Walter Bates of Kansas City, the responsibility of determining if Sonnenberg's alleged tackle should be declared illegal and barred.

The California commission barred Sonnenberg's tackle after he had defeated Everett Marshall, La Junta, Colo., grappler, in Los Angeles two weeks ago by its use.

HEAVY HITTING MARKS DOUBLE GAMES SUNDAY

Coast Batters Garner 194 Hits From 34 Pitchers—Ken Williams Clouts for Circuit.

By the Associated Press.

Batting averages soared generally higher as the eight clubs in the Pacific Coast league battled through a schedule of doubleheaders yesterday and got new life for their troubles, each of the morning game victors being in turn defeated in the nightcap. Large droves of fans, attracted by ideal playing conditions, saw the league's sluggers pummel 34 pitchers for 194 hits, and 116 runs in the eight games played.

Although defeated 10-6 in the final game, the San Francisco Missions captured the series, four games to three by defeating the Portland Beavers, 11-8 in their morning clash. Ken Williams, former big leaguer, hammered one out of the lot for the Beavers in the matinee.

Temporarily shoved into second place when they lost to the San Francisco Seals 7-4 (ten innings) at Stockton in the morning, the Sacramento Senators rallied behind the excellent pitching of young Tony Freitas on their home grounds in the afternoon and reversed the verdict to regain the league lead. The Senators took the series, four games to three.

Brief Hints for Oaks.

Carl Zamboni's Oakland club occupied top position in the standings for a little more than three hours by virtue of a 7-4 morning win over Los Angeles. The Angels quickly knocked them down again, however, winning the matinee battle, 10-7. The series went to the Oaks, 6 to 2.

At Los Angeles, Seattle and the Hollywood Stars split a pair, the Indians taking the first game, 9-1 behind Dutch Reuther's steady pitching and the home club the second, 11-9. Barbee, Indian's right fielder, hit for four bases in each contest. Hollywood took five of the seven games played.

This week's schedule will see Los Angeles at Sacramento; Seattle playing the Missions at San Francisco; San Francisco at Oakland and Portland at Hollywood.

Gallant Fox and Sande Sensational Combination

By Alan Gould.

(Associated Press Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, May 19.—(AP)—Horsemen are reluctant to rush in prematurely with laurel wreaths of greatness. They prefer to let time and the records do it. In these matters, today, however, they readily concede that Gallant Fox, the 3-year-old colt, and Sande, the 3-year-old filly, are a sensational combination since Man o' War and Chrysene Kummer were unbeatable 10 years ago in three-year-old competition.

The winner, in succession, of the $10,000 Wood memorial, $50,000 Breakers and $60,000 derby, has developed uncomparable habits as a three-year-old whereas this big black son of Sir Galahad third was just fair to middlin' as a juvenile.

At the rate Sande has been piloting William Woodard's colt through the spring campaign, Gallant Fox has a royal chance to capture the third of the big three-year-old classics, the Belmont, June 7, and boost his total money-winnings beyond the $200,000 mark.

Wall Street Report

NEW YORK, May 19.—(AP)—Stocks were sluggish and heavy today and the market was deaf to Secretary of Commerce Lamont's prediction that business would return to normal within three months.

Business and trade reports were mostly colorless and unimpressive, and the market was even more torpid than on Saturday, when trading was the slowest in nearly two years. Such activity as developed was largely bearish.

The closing was weak. Sales aggregated 3,400,000 shares.

BROOKLYN FANS SEE FLAG HOPE FOR THE ROBINS

Twin Victory Sunday Puts Team in First Place — Hack Wilson Slams Out Pair of Homers.

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr. (Associated Press Sports Writer)

Brooklyn's baseball fans are brimming over with hope for their first National League pennant in 10 years. The Robins won the title in 1920, and since then they have spent most of their time in the second division. But they are right up in this year's close race, holding first place today as a result of a double victory in yesterday's double header against the Phillies.

The leading teams are so closely bunched that Pittsburg, in fifth place, is only one full game behind the Robins. While Brooklyn was defeating the Phillies yesterday, 3 to 0 and 7 to 5, the New York Giants were dividing one double header with the Boston Braves, and the St. Louis Cardinals and Chicago Cubs were splitting another to line up in order behind the Robins.

The Braves captured the first game from New York, 4 to 1, taking the second 5 to 2 in 11 innings.

Cubs Stop St. Louis

The Cubs drove out 16 hits, including Hack Wilson's 10th and 11th home runs of the year, to stop the St. Louis winning streak at nine games. The Cubs won the first game, 5-8, the Cardinals took the second, 8 to 2.

Ervin Brame gave Pittsburg a 2 to 1 victory over the Cincinnati Reds.
