ERNEST W. JAQUA CALLED BY DEATH HAD LONG ILLNESS

Ernest William Jaqua died at his home, 113 Cottage street early Tuesday morning, after an illness dating back over three and one-half years. Mr. Jaqua was born at Napoleon, Ohio, April 11, 1888. He married Lillian Rose, at Findley, Ohio, June 15, 1892, and to this union was born one son, Claren, who survives with the widow and one grandson, James Hall, Jr.; also two sisters, Mrs. J. P. Weinacker of Mobile, Ala., and Mrs. Minnie Chapman of Beverly Hills, Calif., and two brothers, Lester E. and Guy L. Jaqua of Detroit, Mich.

The family were residents of Mobile, Ala., for nine years, coming to Medford 15 years ago. He was a prominent member of Tallman lodge No. 31, Knights of Pythias and Woodmen of the World, secretary of Fuhai Burkan temple, D. O. K. K. and elder of the Presbyterian church, and was a man of fine Christian character.

Mr. Jaqua was a wonderfully skillful cabinet maker and his work graces many of the homes of this community and his church.

Funeral services will be held at the Peril Funeral Home, Thursday at 2:30 p. m., Rev. Claud B. Porter officiating. Services at the grave in charge of Tallman lodge, Knights of Pythias, interment in Medford cemetery.

Active pallbearers will be from the Knights of Pythias, H. G. Wortman, J. W. Wakefield, Ed Robinson, Everett Trowbridge, J. C. Godlove and Frank Yashan. The honorary pallbearers will be from the Presbyterian church, C. J. Brommer, Walter Frazer Brown, F. S. Carpenter, Dr. W. F. P. Holt, C. B. McNath, H. F. W. Spilver, L. A. Crane, J. H. Conley.

The loyalty of Mr. Jaqua as an officer of the church, is very much appreciated by the pastor and congregation.

MISS NOLAND IS FIRST DRIVER TO BUCK LAKE SNOW

Miss Evelyn Noland, niece of U. S. District Attorney and Mrs. George Neuner, has the distinction of driving the nearest to Crater Lake of anyone so far this year. In company with A. S. Rosenbaum, Miss Noland left Medford at 5:30 a. m. today and drove the car to within 200 yards of Crater Lake, reaching there in a blizzard and snow storm at 9:10 a. m. They first encountered snow at Union Creek and it snowed all the way to the lake, the storm increasing in fury as they drew nearer the lake. They had to walk the last 200 yards over five feet of snow. Although the storm kept them from seeing the lake...
