

How I coaxed him to eat!

ONCE I was worried. Meal-time was getting on my nerves. I prepared many appetizing dishes, but John simply would not eat—just 'mimed' at his food. Perhaps sometimes a little grouchy, I began to fear he was 'slipping.' What was I to do? Love, home, happiness, business success—all depended upon an improvement in his condition. The blood-ionic idea suggested itself to me. My Druggist recommended S.S.S. He told me that S.S.S. was a great blood tonic; that it had been successful for over 100 years; that it was made from strictly fresh vegetable drugs and was beneficial to the most delicate system. Also that it would build up the blood and improve the processes by which the body is nourished. I brought home a large size bottle. John agreed to try it. Well, in just a few days I could see the difference. His improvement has been so rapid he is going to take several more bottles, and not only that, but he is now telling his friends to take S.S.S.

off diseases. Loss of appetite is only a symptom. General weakness pervades the entire body. There is no desire to work or play. It is dangerous to let the red-blood-count remain below normal. S.S.S. is daily helping people to regain their strength. Thousands of users have testified to its benefits in unsolicited letters of gratitude. It promotes a keen appetite, gives vitality to the body, clears the skin and wards off diseases. All Drug Stores sell S.S.S. in two sizes. Ask for the larger size. It is more economical.

New Portland Airport Rules Orders that all passengers arriving at or departing from Swan Island airport at Portland be handled through the airport's new administration building and that all departing planes use the field's take-off runway, were issued Monday by the airport superintendent.

More systematic control of the airport's traffic is aimed at in the new regulations. Before completion of the administration building, passengers had been discharged and taken aboard planes at the various hangars. Heretofore, too, the field's main runway had been used both for takeoffs and landings. Under the new order, departures from the takeoff strip and landings on the main runway are mandatory.

BUSINESS WOMENS MUSICAL COMEDY MAY SHOW IN G. P.

A request for presentation of "Two Feet High," musical comedy, written by Mary Greiner Kelly and Jeannette Butler and staged at the armory last Monday evening, with all local cast, was received from the Grants Pass Business and Professional Women's club and read at the noon luncheon of the local club at the Hotel Holland today.

The neighboring club would like to have the comedy presented at the employers' banquet to be given in Grants Pass at an early date.

No definite action concerning the request was taken at today's luncheon. Discussion of the recent state convention held here brought to light a better financial condition for the club than was anticipated. When all expenses are paid there will still be money in the treasury, Mrs. Maud Chapman, president, announced.

Other activities to be undertaken in the near future were discussed. All members present were agreed.
