

GRIFFIN CREEK FESTIVAL ENDS SCHOOL SEASON

Pupils and Parents Join in Colorful Climax of Class Work — Sewing Awards Made.

The May festival, the brilliant and colorful climax of a successful school year, was held at the Griffin creek school house last night. From all parts of the beautiful Griffin creek country came school children, parents and guests to enjoy the May pole dance, folk dancing and songs in the brightly lighted school yard and to inspect the displays of handiwork completed by the children's sewing classes and 4-H club workers.

As a result of a contest which has been waged by the three sewing divisions at the Griffin creek school house this year, Mrs. Otis Mack's hand work division, the winners of the contest, will be guests of Mrs. Carl Bohl's first division and Mrs. J. D. Brown's second division girls at a picnic next Wednesday.

This picnic, according to pre-arranged plans, will be held on the beautiful hillside grounds surrounding the Otis Mack home. Three disinterested judges, including Mrs. Mable Mack, county home demonstration agent, had a difficult task in choosing between the exceptionally fine sewing work of the three divisions.

Contest Winners.

The fourth grade or hand work division, which won the contest, is composed of little Betty Jean Cundiff, Ruth Hill, Nellie Mack, Winona Cook and Verla Woodbury, who completed their work and won honorable mention, as well as Ruth Riggs, Dorrie Cherry, Thelma Edmunds, Edith Gibson, Violet Gibson and Marion Edmunds who did excellent work, but didn't quite complete the division work. Mrs. Otis Mack was instructor of this division.

Those in the second division, under the direction of Mrs. J. D. Brown were: Helen Judy, Alice Horner and Mary Fisk, who won honorable mention and completed the work and Alice Cherry, Marie Gutches, Lucile Stearns, Anna Scheel and Lois Remington, who did fine work on their sewing which was nearly completed.

Completed Work.

Four members of Mrs. Carl Bohl's first division completed their work and won honorable mention. They were Lillian Brown, Joyce Durham, Winifred Jones and Helen Snyder. Marjorie McKee, Flora Scheel, Thelma Edmunds, Florence Meadows and Marjorie Jones nearly finished their sewing and did very good work. Little Nellie Mack won the prize for having done the best work in the winning hand work division while Helen Judy was first in division two and Lillian Brown the winner in division one. Practically all of the Griffin Creek students won health badges and various prize winners were awarded 4-H pins. Cora Crandall took sewing alone in division three and her work won a well-deserved honorable mention.

Fred Snyder, Robert Cherry, Gerald Kime, Billie Kime and Carl Herford were the boys who completed their work in camp cookery and won honorable mention. These boys have planned an entertainment for the fourth grade girls who completed their sewing before May 1. These little girls are Betty Jean Cundiff, Nellie Mack, Ruth Hill, Winona Cook and Verla Woodbury. The boys held their last meeting at Rybee bridge, where they matched their skill with the funny devices of the Rotary and were successful in landing a nice one.

The picnic at the Mack home next Wednesday is being anticipated with eagerness by all who participated in the sewing classes.

Page The Specialist! Fairground Structure Does Strange Fadeout

A series of black alley cats, which weren't picked up by the shiny new ambulance the humane officer drives must have scurried across the path of the Jackson County Humane society, unseen, all members passed under ladders and none remembered to carry rabbit feet in their pockets—for they have just had "bad luck, bad luck." And it isn't four-leaf clover they're hunting now to counteract the hoodoo but the ladies' comfort station they sold to the Medford Gun club. The Humane society purchased the buildings on the old airport when they thought the organization, still without a definite location, would occupy them. Among the buildings were two comfort stations. One marked "ladies," one marked "men."

When opposition to having sick dogs living in the same neighborhood as prize Durhams, exhibited at the Jackson county fair, became too strong for quieting, it was decided that the Humane society should locate some place else. The organization agreed and another site was promised the leaders. Then they sold the two comfort

SHRINE RADIOCAST OVER KMED TO CARRY A SURPRISE

Radio fans are looking forward to the Hillah Temple Shrine broadcast planned for Friday night. A surprise program has been arranged, in addition to addresses by Shriners, through the assistance of KMEY's staff.

The Big Pines Lumber company has donated the 15-minute period from 6 to 6:15 o'clock and the main program's time, from 6:30 to 7 o'clock will be presented through the courtesy of Harwood's photo service. The Shrine program will be offered in these two units with the Mail Tribune news review coming from 6:15 to 6:30.

Plans are under way for a brilliant and colorful ceremonial in Ashland Sunday evening and the Hillah radio broadcast will help to spread the details of that special event to all who are interested in Shrine activities. Potentate R. E. Detrick, Ceremonial Committee Chairman E. C. ("Jerry") Jerome and other well known Shriners will appear before the "micro" and Carl Y. Tenswald will present the various announcements.

EDISON MARSHALL ARRIVING MONDAY

Edison Marshall, author of international reputation, whom Medford claims for his own, will arrive in this city Monday, May 26, from his home in Augusta, Ga., to spend a month visiting with relatives and friends, according to letters received here today.

Marshall is not planning any big game hunts or fishing trips for this trip west, it was stated this morning. He isn't trying to gain "new atmosphere" for another best seller. He's going to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Marshall, of South Oakdale; his brother, Verne Marshall, and family of this city, and hosts of friends.

He will spend part of his time on the University of Oregon campus, where he was formerly a student, according to the Eugene press.

FACE THE FACTS!

"Coming events cast their shadows before"

When tempted to over-indulge "Reach for a Lucky instead"

Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. Avoid that future shadow* by avoiding over-indulgence, if you would maintain that modern, ever-youthful figure. "Reach for a Lucky instead."

Lucky Strike, the finest Cigarette you ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED." Lucky Strike has an extra, secret heating process. Everyone knows that heat purifies and so 20,679 physicians say that Luckies are less irritating to your throat.

"It's toasted"
Your Throat Protection — against irritation — against cough

*Moderation in diet seems to me the first and great requisite of any treatment which may be counted upon as ultimately satisfactory," says Dr. Beverley Robinson in the New York Medical Journal. We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky instead," you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.
