ATTENTION! School notes are requested to be in by Friday evening at 6 o'clock. They will not be accepted after 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

Junior High

Spelling The average for the building was 95.6 percent. The I-1 class averaged 95.5 percent; the II-1, 100; the III-1, 99.6; III-2, 99.4; and the III-3, 99.5 percent.

Clean-up Report The Roosevelt school had almost as good a clean-up report as usual. The report runs like this: Miss Watzling, 1B, 100 percent; Mrs. Carter, 2A-2B, 100 percent; Mrs. Carlson, 3B, 100 percent; Mrs. Wilkins, 5A, 100 percent; Miss Aspinwall, 6A, 100 percent; Miss Van Meter's history room 100 percent; Miss Webb, 3A, 99 percent; Miss Curry, 4B-4C, 99 percent; Mrs. Maxwell, 1A, 91 percent and Miss Schneider, 4A, 90 percent.

Circus 'Jolly and gay is the funny old circus; jolly and old fellow who comes to our town.' Maybe this is true and maybe it's not, but many of the Roosevelt boys and girls surely enjoyed the circus Monday afternoon at the circus. We also enjoyed the rest of the circus. There was no school in the afternoon so many of us must have fed the elephants peanuts. We wonder if any of the little boys in our school were inspired to be clowns.

Health Poster Hurray! Three cheers for Esther Froehlich! And now I suppose you want to know what it's all about. Esther has won $3.00 for her own personal use, but Roosevelt gets the honor. Esther designed a poster for the health poster contest and ran away with first prize. The title of her poster was, 'The Modern Pled Piper of America.'

Exams Coming On Goodness! Exams are coming on. The 6A class will go to Junior High. The exams usually aren't very hard, but we do dread them.

The Blackbird Pie a Success The newly organized Junior High Dramatic club made its initial bow to the public Friday evening in the school auditorium. The members had been in training for several weeks and the play was the culmination of weeks of hard work.

Personals Miss Gertrude Parker left Friday evening immediately after her play to spend the weekend at her home in Klamath Falls. Barbara Stevens has recently entered our school from Portland.

Roosevelt School

Reporters La Verne McCulloch, chairman, Velda Hoduffer, Evelyn Schmitt, Robert Littrell, Virginia Lindley, Dove Harrett, Mary Powell, Betty Vilm, Amy Elliott, and Mary Ann Gates.

Health Oh, boy! We surely are holding our own in health. The report, as you can see, is about the same as last week: Building 99.5 percent banner room 1B, 99.9 percent.

Geography In geography in the 6A grade we are having chairmen of certain committees for studying countries of South America. The chairman has his other pupils recite on a given topic. South America went fast and we had a good description of each country, which were very interesting. We feel we shall always remember something worth while about South America.

P. T. A. Meeting The Roosevelt Parent-Teachers association held its last meeting of the year on May 22, 1930. The 6A pupils were guests, with the mothers of the class acting as hostesses. The following program was put on by some of the pupils of the 6A class. It was well rendered: Piano solo, Dove Barnett; song, Stars of the Summer Night; recitation, The Questions They Ask a Boy; Harvey Field; a tribute to our mothers, Betty Vilm; recitation, Faith of Our Mothers, Amy Elliott; dance, Minute, Mary Powell; an appreciation of our teachers, Howard Grover; song, a Farewell Greeting, 6A class; piano solo, Virginia Lindley. After the program a pleasant social hour followed.

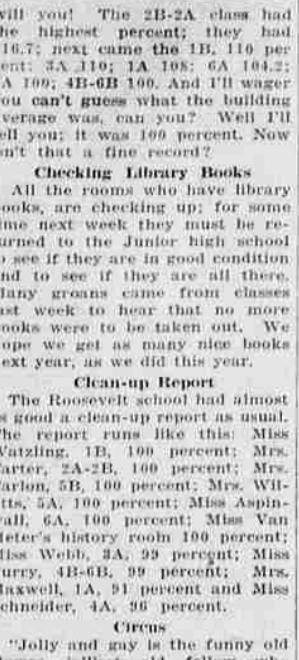

Those entertained by the P. T. A. were as follows: Dorr Barnett, Raymond Dougherty, Richard Eversizer, Amy Elliott, Harvey Field, Rachel Groat, Howard Grover, Velda Hoduffer, Frank Hill, Robert James, Bertha King, Dove Lewis, Robert Littrell, Virginia Lindley, Wendell Mathew, Verne McCulloch, Robert Parucker, Mary Powell, Evelyn Schmitt, Deloras Sloper, Betty Vilm, Steve West, John Wheeler and Mary Wheeler.

Jean Hill is a member of the 6A class, but she lost out by being laid up with a broken leg.

As the Roosevelt school was dismissed Friday afternoon just before P. T. A., they were greeted with the sight of a lovely Maypole dance on the lawn.

It was by the 4th grade boys and girls under supervision of Miss Schneider. The girls were dressed as yellow roses and the boys were white suits. It was a great success with not a single mistake in winding.

New Outfit Reduces Operating Expenses

Car owners are finding a pleasant way to reduce automobile operating expenses through the use of a new type, patented, non-drip pump and five-gallon can of lubricating oil, according to the Western Auto Supply Company, distributors of Zerolene. The use of the pump is said to eliminate oil wastage and the necessity of handling the heavy container.

Ye Poet's Corner

THE POPPY Soon we'll wear the crimson poppy. The thought our soul enchants. It seems but a few short years Since we left our boys in France. In each flower we read a story. As we count them all apart, Each petal tells its message Of a loved ones' broken heart. It tells of the love of sweethearts That parted on that day. Of bitter tears and tears of pride That were paid in the battle's fray. Their petals tell of a mother's love. Of the day she gave her boy In yonder Flanders field Of death that claimed her joy. And the petals tell of husbands, Noble turn and grand. Who went to fight for wives and mothers And died in a far off land. They also tell of children Waiting to see their 'daddy's' face. Who in that far off country Was filling the warrior's place. Those petals tell of empty chairs, Of mothers old and gray, Whose face might still be young Were it not for poppy day. Yes, we'll wear the crimson poppy. Lost in this fleeting time We for one moment may forget The boys in that far off clime. We'll wear one for the unknown lad, Whose mother perhaps is gone; And no one to wear the poppy red, For the soldier who sleeps alone. The stamens too, we will unfold, Unfold to the bleeding heart; And too, they tell of soldier boys, That make the tendrils start. No peaceful sleep is theirs in Flanders field. We see them crippled, sick and blind. Oh! To these suffering valiant boys, May every soul be kind. We'll wear one for the orphan, For sweetheart, wives and mothers; For never can the debt be paid, To those who gave their all for others. And the stem of the crimson poppy Will stand for the crosses white, And may God in Heaven who loves our boys His vigil keep through the day and night. —Mae Mark.
