Senior Reception Colorful Event at High School Friday

An outstanding social affair of the school year was the senior reception given at the senior high school Friday evening, which many of the juniors and seniors, as well as their parents attended. The gymnasium was changed to a beautiful futuristic pavilion, blue sky above and silver stars shining from the heavens.

Futuristic panels decorated the doorway, with pink lights playing on the silver designs from behind pale green shades. Music for dancing was furnished by the Melody Boys, a high school orchestra.

The program consisted of marimba solos by Charles Whillock, a toe dance by Zoe Della Lantis and Ethel Chord, and two harp solos by Betty Stennett.

Committees for the reception were as follows:
Decorations—Merland Tolleson, Laura Drury, Gretchen Green, Alberta Knips, Virginia Gregory, Lorraine Redden, Alvin Potter, George Winne, James Edmiston, Glenn Simkins and Jewell Waddell.

Refreshments—Marcella Nelson, chairman, Helen Porter, Sibyl Harrell, Marjorie Flisk, and Francis Cook.

Program—Marguerite McAllister, Gordon Turner, Ben Day, Roberta Stearns, and June Hall.

Clean-up—Laura Drury, Alberta Knips, Ben Day, Morris Porter, Charles Thomas and Robert Lewis.

Lighting and wiring—Jewell Waddell, Gordon Turner.

Construction—Alvin Potter, Charles Barnes, Lyle Glenn, Dencie Wood, Robert Lewis, Gordon Turner.

Return From Islands

Mrs. Ben Hilton and daughter Marjorie, who recently returned from spending several months in Honolulu, with Mrs. Hilton's mother, Mrs. S. G. Barnum, who has also returned to the states.

Mesdames Barnum and Hilton Home From Honolulu

The islands are still romantically fascinating and no ship leaves without a shower of floral leis, Mrs. Ben Hilton, who recently returned from Honolulu, Hawaii, accompanied by her young daughter, Marjorie, and mother, Mrs. S. G. Barnum, informs her friends.

The lovely customs of hospitality for which world powers have no time, are the life of the island people and as necessary to their existence as food.

Mrs. Hilton and her mother returned to the states last week, Mrs. Barnum having spent seven and Mrs. Hilton and Marjorie three months in Honolulu, being located most of the time in apartments on Waikiki beach.

The weather there, however, has experienced the same strange currents complained of here, and reports give out the coldest season ever known at Waikiki beach. There were days, Mrs. Hilton said yesterday morning, when there were no people seen on the beach because of lack of sunshine.

While in Honolulu, Mrs. Barnum and Mrs. Hilton visited Clyde C. Barnum, formerly of Medford, who is now associated with the Hawaiian Sugar Planters association. Mrs. Barnum has been in the islands for six years doing experimental work in bacteriology.

Mrs. Miles Elected Head of Wednesday Study Club Here

On Wednesday, May 21 the Wednesday Study club enjoyed a most delightful afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carlton Jones.

The important business of the afternoon was the election of officers. It has been the happy custom of the Wednesday Study club for the officers to serve two years and this being the alternate year new officers were elected. Mrs. T. W. Miles to serve as president, Mrs. J. H. Cochran as vice president, and Mrs. B. G. Harding as secretary. Mrs. J. O. Grey, who has so graciously and efficiently filled the office of president for the past two years, now retires to the honorable position of "past president."

Mrs. A. J. Hanby, who deserves much credit for conceiving the idea and with the president's assistance so ably carrying out the plan of honoring Tokio's charming "Good Will Envoys," reported as a special committee. Each envoy was presented with a Wednesday Study club booklet with its plan of the year's study of Japan, flowers, and a message of greeting from the club. That this small effort was appreciated locally and officially by the Japanese of Medford was evident when Mr. Maru of the Japanese association of Medford, thanking Mrs. Hanby for the club, informed her that Medford was the only place on the coast where a women's association had greeted them. He presented to Mrs. Hanby for the club in behalf of the people of Tokio and Japan a beautiful book entitled "The Reconstruction of Tokio." This wonderfully illustrated book of the Wednesday Study club decided to place in the library, not for circulation but for reference, so that anyone interested may have the pleasure of reading it.

The afternoon's entertainment consisted in viewing and guessing the names of baby or youthful pictures of members. After a delightful visit and discussion of next year's study, the "good times" committee served refreshments. Mrs. J. O. Grey and Mrs. H. M. Sheddler presided at the tea table, and Mrs. W. C. Jones, the hostess, was assisted by her committee, consisting of Mrs. H. G. Wortman, Mrs. J. P. Lawrence, Mrs. N. T. Hodges, and Mrs. L. B. Humphrey.

Mrs. Hanby Hostess Series of Parties

Mrs. A. J. Hanby entertained a few guests at an informal tea Friday afternoon. This is the second party of a series Mrs. Hanby is giving. Those enjoying her hospitality were Mesdames Kimball, Merritt, W. E. Tamy, Spilver, C. B. Porter, Garfield, Luke, Clement, Howard, Dyan, Susan Nason, J. F. Mundy, Detweiler, the Misses Nichols, Margaret Nason Anna Detweiler and Mrs. McDonald, who recently returned from a trip abroad and entertained the guests with an interesting description of her experiences.

Merrill Tavern Elects Members

Nine new members were taken into the Merrill Tavern at the meeting of the club at the home of Miss Roberta Stearns Monday evening of the past week.

Those elected are Anna Mae Fuson, William Dorn, Maxine Hagen, Adra Edwards, Peter Winne, Kathryn Stearns, Fred Colvig, Richard Applegate and Susan Dyan.

Birthday Party Friday

Mrs. Ed Brock entertained Friday afternoon in honor of her daughter Pearl's third birthday. The afternoon was spent with the small children playing games, after which the hostess served ice-cream and cake to the guests.

Those present included Pearl Brock, Verna St. Clair, Yvonne Lester, Margaret Nerriman, Herbert Nerriman, Velma Brock, Volney Brock, Jane Gould, Dolores Gould, Winifred Brock, and Ralph Brock.

Last Meeting Planned By Music Teachers

The Wagner Creek summer home of Mr. and Mrs. John White will be the scene of the closing meeting of the year for the Jackson county chapter of the Oregon Music Teachers' association Tuesday, June 19. Miss Imogene Wallace, president, and Mrs. Rawley Moore, program chairman, who have been active in making the monthly meetings in the past a great success promise interesting entertainment for the picnic supper.

Miss Lay Presents Revue In Grants Pass

Miss Ruth Lay, local dancing instructor, presented the students of her Grants Pass classes in a revue last evening at the Rivoli theater in the latter city. The program was much enjoyed by the Grants Pass audience and guests, who attended from Medford.

Appreciation Shown Mrs. Anderson for Work in Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. A. J. Anderson, president of the board of directors of the Y. W. C. A. for the past six years, was especially honored Monday evening. When she entered the club rooms to preside at the regular monthly business meeting of the board, she was greeted by the members who had assembled to surprise her, with speeches and congratulations for her faithful work in behalf of the Y. W. C. A. during her term as president.

Mrs. Anderson was presented with a gift, which was given by the members of the board.

Mrs. E. Iverson made the presentation speech after which refreshments were served by Mrs. W. F. Campbell, Mrs. Gove, Mrs. Iverson, and Mrs. Fewell.

To Mrs. Anderson is due a great deal of praise for her untiring work in the Medford "Y," with her executive ability, and wonderful Christian character, and pleasing personality. She has made many friends for the "Y," doing the work day by day as demanded, and spending many hours to carry out her plans, sparing neither her time nor money for the improvement of the club rooms, and comfort of the girls who live there.

Mrs. Anderson was instrumental in keeping the "Y" alive during a crisis which occurred last year due to lack of funds. This year, with the help of the community chest the "Y" has been re-decorated and painted inside and the yard landscaped, and many supplies bought. At this time nearly all the rooms are rented and many organizations meet there weekly.

Mrs. J. O. Grey is the capable house mother who looks after the home life of the girls who reside at the "Y." Mrs. Fewell has been an inspiration to the board with her help and co-operation during the past year. The present board is made up of the following Medford ladies: Mrs. A. J. Anderson, president; Mrs. R. C. Mulholland, vice president; Mrs. H. I. Gove, secretary; Mrs. A. R. Clement, treasurer; Mrs. W. F. Campbell, Mrs. H. F. Nordwick, Mrs. R. A. Koppes, Mrs. E. Iverson, Mrs. B. H. Bryant, Mrs. W. A. Holloway, Mrs. W. S. Gilmore, Dr. Eva Carlow.

Honored Guest

Mrs. A. J. Anderson, prominent participant in Y. W. C. A. work in this city, who was honored at a recent meeting of the local group.

Smiths Entertain Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Allen R. Smith, of 1035 Queen Ann, are enjoying a brief visit from Mrs. Smith's parents, the Reverend and Mrs. Robert Franklin Norton, of New York and Los Angeles, who are enroute from their winter residence in southern California to their summer home at Lake Placid.

Edison Marshall to Visit Home, Local Friends for Month

Edison Marshall, author of international reputation, who formerly made his home in this city, and was a student of the Medford schools, will arrive here tomorrow from Augusta, Ga., to spend a month visiting relatives and friends.

While here he will be guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. Cuning Kenly and other friends as well as visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Marshall of South Oakland and brother, Verne Marshall and family, also of this city. Relatives from other sections of Oregon will be in Medford during part of his visit for the family re-union, which is being planned.

Dinner Party at Blue Flower Lodge
Miss Myrtle Otterdale entertained with a dinner party at the Blue Flower lodge Wednesday evening. Covers were laid for thirteen. Yellow roses and tapers composed the centerpiece.

The remainder of the evening was spent playing bridge. Miss Helen Inch received high honors and Miss Ruby Hamlin consolation.

Those present were Mesdames James Banister, Neil Newland, Wm. Kirkpatrick, Ted Leonard, Dave Young and the Misses Helen Inch, Dorothy Goff, Gladys Glenn, Ruby Hamlin, Mae Heath, Alta Beeson and Montana Mahan.

The Chrysanthemum circle, No. 84, Neighbors of Woodcraft, will meet Monday evening, May 26 at the Oddfellows' hall for a social. Saddle Gill will be chairman of the gathering.

K. I. Dazeys Honored Prior to Leaving for San Francisco

Considerable entertaining is being done in Medford in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. K. I. Dazey and daughters Ethel Claire, Carol and Dorothy, who will leave soon to make their home in San Francisco.

Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Hoffman gave a dinner for them Wednesday evening of the past week and several events are planned for the coming week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dazey will be missed in both social and philanthropic circles, where they have played an active part.

Husbands Club Guests

The Building Bridge club members entertained guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Young Thursday evening. Mrs. Herbert Mrs. R. L. Lewis and Miss Keleher assisted the hostess in serving. The prizes were awarded by Mrs. Keirsted. This was the first occasion the husbands had the pleasure of attending. Altho the club has been organized three years, meeting every week for a jolly good time.

It has been suggested that the men invite the club members next guest evening and give ladies the privilege of paying and returning the courtesy.

Pupils To Be Heard Over KMED Tonight

The vocal expression pupils of Miss Sara Van Meter and a group of piano pupils from the studio of Mrs. E. E. Gore, will give a program over KMED this evening from 7 to 8.

Many Tours Planned For Summer Season

Sailing, sailing—Medford society will go this summer if early indications are any criterion of what's coming later. For each day brings more ship talk and most every group is wishing one or two members bon voyage.

Next Saturday Mrs. M. H. Russell, mother of Mrs. C. H. Paske, will sail from San Francisco for Japan via Honolulu. In Tokio she will be joined by her daughter, Miss Mildred Russell, with whom she will tour China, returning to the states by the northern route. Thursday evening friends of Miss Blanche Giffen, assistant city librarian, were invited to an informal party at the home of Miss Helen Hinck to wish the former a pleasant journey on the S. S. Empress of France. Miss Giffen will sail from Quebec June 4th for Europe, where she plans to spend two months of the summer season touring France, Italy, Switzerland and Germany. She will attend the presentation of the Passion Play at Oberammergau and return to Medford in the fall.

Younger Set Guests at Tea Yesterday

The Misses Margaret and Winifred Warner were hostesses at tea yesterday afternoon at their home, 519 South Oakdale avenue, from 4:00 to 6:00 o'clock. One hundred twenty-five guests called during the afternoon.

The Misses Melva Parrett, Adra Edwards, Anna Mae Fuson, and Dorothy Slead poured, assisted by the Misses Geraldine Latham, Barbara and Laura Drury, Audrey Lofland, La Donna Calder, and Roberta Stearns.

Miss McNiven Honor Guest

Miss Jessie McNiven, whose marriage to Mr. Earl Johnstone of Mariposa, Cal., will be a social event of next month, was commemorated Thursday evening at the bridge party given by Miss Phyllis Roberts at her home. There were three tables of bridge in play.

Teachers Praised

Much credit is due the teachers of the Jackson school for the fine program presented Friday afternoon. A large number of mothers attended. At the conclusion of the program the children were served punch and cookies.

The last meeting of the P. T. A. for this year was held, Mrs. O. O. Nichols presiding. Following the meeting refreshments were served by the teachers.

Graduation From High School

Is One of the Biggest Events
In the Life of a Boy or Girl

To commemorate that event properly the Graduation Present should be a gift that will last—something in the line of jewelry that the graduate may look at in years to come and recall the thrill of that Graduation Day—and the donor of the gift.
