Plans for Vacation Bible School Made

At a meeting held in the Christian church Thursday evening, committees of the Baptist, Presbyterian and Christian Bible schools met and formulated plans for a Vacation Bible school to be conducted for two weeks in the Christian church, on South Oakdale, beginning June 16th.

Strawberry Show Planned by Bible Class Tuesday

Women's Bible class of the First Presbyterian church will be the guests of Mrs. Geo. H. Field at a strawberry festival Tuesday afternoon, May 27, in the church parlors. All members are most cordially invited, as this is an annual event, the members are looking forward to a most enjoyable afternoon. Mrs. Thompson and Mr. Hodgkins will be heard in a vocal duet. Jennette Field will read and Mrs. N. C. Chaney will give a paper on "Church Problems in Russia."

What the Girl Scouts Are Doing

The Girl Scout book shelf at the public library is now ready, states Miss Woolsey, the librarian. This book shelf is downstairs in the basement, and through this arrangement will be available to all Girl Scouts and interested girls, no matter what their ages. Books will be added to the shelf from time to time, and in a few years at this rate, should constitute a young library in itself.

Home Recital Announced

Mrs. Eve Benson, local dancing instructor, will present her pupils at a recital of beautiful and varied numbers at the Fox Crater on the evenings of June 6th and 7th between 8 and 10 o'clock.

Former Residents Return to Medford

Social groups are welcoming back to this city, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Ryan and daughter Elizabeth, and sons Homer and Robert, who arrived from San Diego the first of the week. While the Ryans have been home guests not only in their own school but all schools in Jackson county. Knowing that all the service clubs of the city take an active part in child welfare it leaves only a part of this work to Parent-Teacher associations.

Roosevelt P. T. A. Leaves State Organization

Beginning with the Maypole dance given by boys and girls of the 4th grade on the lawn at the Roosevelt school Friday afternoon until the serving of delicious refreshments, a large number of parents and friends were enjoyably entertained. This being the last meeting of the year important business was discussed, and by a three-to-one vote it was decided to withdraw from the State Parent-Teacher association.

The Happiest of Gifts for GRADUATION

MISS WILSON Pleas Alpha Phi Sorority
Miss Elbow Mae Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wilson of this city, has been pledged by the national women's society at the University of Washington, Seattle, according to news received here the first part of the week.

Miss Wilson, who is known here as one of Medford's finest sopranos, is playing a prominent part in the musical activities at the northern university. She is also frequently heard in programs broadcast from stations, KJR and KOZO.

MISS JOHNSTON Returns
Miss Vivian Johnston, well known and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Johnston of 293 Stark street, closed a very successful year in teaching at North Powder, Oregon, and is returning the first of the week, to spend the summer with her parents. She will spend a few days enroute, visiting relatives at Greendale, before returning to her home city. Miss Johnston has been engaged to teach in Power City for the coming year.

The Pythian club will meet at the home of Mrs. Baker Yarbrough, 44 Quince street next Tuesday evening, May 27. A large attendance is desired. The last meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Chas. Campbell and was a most enjoyable affair.

MISS LAUNSPACH Here for Vacation
Miss Margaret Launspach arrived in Medford Wednesday night to spend her vacation. She completed her second year of teaching in Klamath county on May 3. On May 19, she left for Portland by way of Bend and the McKenzie Pass, and visited with her sister, Mrs. R. D. Hines, for a week. While there she went to Astoria to see Mrs. Vernon R. Day, formerly Esther Palmer, a former classmate.

A splendid paper on "Colonial Gardens," written by Mrs. A. M. Childers, who was absent because of illness, was read by Mrs. Wm. W. P. Holt.

Mrs. Childers' description of the gardens of our ancestors, the arrangement, flowers and colors which were favorites, the love and pride with which they were regarded by their owners, was most interesting and appropriate to the season of the year.

The paper closed with a beautiful tribute to the "Father of Our Country," and the well known gardens of Mt. Vernon.

During the social hour which followed the guests enjoyed and admired the lovely gardens and grounds of the hostess, Mrs. Steiger was assisted by Mesdames W. M. Van Sooyce, Kathleen Smith, Fred King and Wilson Wait.

Members of the Wenonah club met at the home of Blanche Rinabarger for a card party Thursday afternoon, May 15. There were three tables of bridge and two of five hundred in play. Mable Quackenbush won high score in bridge and Blanche Rinabarger, low, and Carrie Stines held high score in five hundred with Ethel Huette holding low.

Lovely refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Fidelis Platt and Nettie Purdin. The next meeting, which will be a covered dish luncheon, will be at the home of Nellie Purdin on Thursday, June 5.

Popularity for a woman is so often simply a matter of time... time to do the gracious little things if life that mean so much in making and-keeping friends. For those things the woman who does her own housework finds time, if she is wise, by employing electrical servants to aid her.

No matter how large, no matter how trivial the household task, there is an electric appliance to cut the work in two. And whether a woman does her own cleaning, her own cooking... or merely supervises the work of her household... she owes it to herself to investigate the possibilities of electricity in her home.
