THE HOME OF BREAD LIKE MOTHER MADE

Yes---A Lot of Folks Remembered---

Remembered What? The bread like mother made of course—and last Saturday nearly 4000 loaves served to remind over 2000 families that childhood's relish for good fresh bread is not just a memory but is here just the same — with the same kind of bread. And it is the same kind — baked in the same way — from the same wholesome home ingredients that mother used. Costs a little more to bake that way — to leave the substitutes out — but it's worth the difference — and anyway it costs you less — our direct selling from bakery to consumer makes that possible. Come in tomorrow and get your Sunday's supply — take a fresh crust slice and put some butter and jam on it — try it yourself or better still, give it to the children and see if they won't notice the difference.
