"Here Comes the Bride"

A hundred orchestras softly playing the ethereal "Wedding March"—a hundred blushing brides and as many bashful grooms—a shower of rice and singing of bells—so will the coming month be ushered in.

THE MONTH OF JUNE

has always been known as the month of many weddings. We are all ready to do our part in the way of furnishing all the delicacies for the wedding breakfast, luncheon or dinner, and we can furnish the wedding cake, too.

AFTER THE WEDDING

the young people will find our store a friendly and pleasant place to do their grocery shopping. Consider this an invitation to call and look over our stock of quality merchandise.

TWO INJURED BY RUNAWAY TEAM

An old fashioned horse runaway on Kirtland farm yesterday resulted in injuries to two men, C. E. Green of Tolo and W. W. Mills of Central Point. Green is in the Sacred Heart hospital recovering from severe bruises when crushed in the mishap. Mills was not as badly injured. The horses became excited, County Judge Alex Sparrow, operator of the farm, said this forenoon and crashed through gates and fences. At the first gate, the horses left the hay rack and then ran through two more gates and finally ended up by running into a tree. The men were unable to hold them and were thrown off the rig during the early part of the runaway. Portland.—L. H. Hoffman received general contract to erect group of buildings in vicinity of 19th and Kearney streets at cost of $200,000.

Had to Take Purgative Nearly Every Night

MYRON P. HARWOOD

"This new Sargon treatment brought me the first lasting relief I ever got for stomach trouble and constipation that I suffered with for twenty years. I had to take some kind of purgative nearly every night. Four bottles of Sargon made me feel like a new man. I now eat with a hearty appetite, and the pills regulated me thoroughly. I'm in better shape physically than I've been in twenty years."—Myron P. Harwood, 79 Lenox St., Rochester. Sargon often triumphs in stubborn cases after all other medicines have failed—that's why it is called the medicine with a million friends. Magill Drug Store, agents.
