Al Droulette, who played such a wonderful game at Bond, will stop the slants of Cliff Best. Valencia's leg is still bothering him, and should Turk not be able to play, either Kelley or O'Brien can ably take care of the initial bas. The weather forecast is "warmer, cloudy, but no rain."

Plenty of Elks will be in attendance to handle the large attendance expected.

The grounds have been put in the finest possible condition and many thrilling fielding stunts will likely be pulled off.

REAL WRESTLERS HAVE WORN BELT

There are "championship" wres-ling bolts in the United States that ave less significance than a basehall game has to the king of Spain but the junior middleweight championship belt, diamond and ruby studied, now on display at Brown's not one of the so-called fly-by-night girdles. It has an interesting history and perhaps a bit will be added when Henry Jones, Provo, Utah, present holder, meets Yaqui Joe, Sonora, Mexico, to defend it at the Armory next Monday night. Carl Zamloch's Oakland augrega tion, which held a tight grip on second place for some weeks, was displaced by Portland's double win yesterday, and the lat-ter team moved up to a position from which it may rival Scattle for seventh place. Fred Ortman and Curtis Fullerton both turned in nuccessful games for the Beavers, the first 3 to 1 and the second 6 to 2. Neither Daglia nor Edwards was effective for the Oaks, as they dropped their third and fourth straight games to Portland.

Los Angeles moved into second place by virtue of the Oaks' losses and a split double header between the Angels and the Missions, 2 to 1 and 7 to 10.

Memorial Day Games Shake Up Standings—Cubs Tied With Pittsburg for Third

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr.,

In a pair of pennant races as close as those in the two impurbaction have been through the early part of the season, the results of the doubleheaders of Memorial day came as something of a surprise. Eight pairs of games were played yesterday, and only two were divided, while the rost figured to a considerable extent in shaking up the standings.
