

The Week's Society Happenings

Edited By
Eva Nealon

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Monday

Y. W. C. A. board of directors will meet at 7:30 this evening in the Y club rooms.

Luncheon for Past Matrons club at Hotel Medford at 1:00 p. m.

City Council P. T. A. will hold last meeting of the season with installation of officers.

Tuesday

Women's Foreign Missionary society of the First M. E. church will meet with Miss May Phipps, 293 East Main street.

Missionary society of the Christian church will hold regular monthly meeting at the church at 2:00 o'clock.

Business meeting of the Missionary society of the South M. E. church.

Wednesday

Rosena Circle, 122, will meet with Velma Slinger, 27 Rose avenue.

Pythian Sisters will hold their regular meeting at the hall at 8:00 o'clock.

Thursday

Senior girls of the local high school will be entertained at tea by the Misses Maurine Carroll and Laura Drury, 620 South Oakdale avenue.

Royal Neighbor camp meets in regular session this evening.

Building Bridge club will meet with Mrs. Carney at Carney orchards this afternoon at 2:00 o'clock.

Friday

St. Mark's cafeteria luncheon at 12:30.

High school commencement at the armory at 8:00 o'clock.

Club Adjourns for Summer Vacation Monday Evening

The last meeting of the season was held by the Greater Medford club Monday afternoon at the St. Mark's Guild hall, at which time officers for the coming year were installed, as follows: Mrs. A. J. Hanby, president; Mrs. N. J. Norris, first vice-president; Mrs. Stella Merrick, second vice-president; Mrs. Henry Bates, recording secretary; Mrs. W. E. Crews, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. R. E. Greene, treasurer.

Plans for the fall season were outlined. The next meeting of the club will be held last Monday in September and will be a Roxie River products luncheon. The October meeting will be in the form of a High Jinx, for which Mrs. Atalanta Satchwell was named chairman. Miss Mildred Carlton, president of the Jackson County Public Health association, will make arrangements for the November meeting program, which will be on the subject of health.

The presentation of the Moskaly is planned for some time in December. A special committee, headed by Mrs. Jonas Wald, was appointed at the Monday meeting to manage this program. She will be assisted by Mrs. C. H. Paskie, Mrs. Geo. Andrews, Mrs. Jap Andrews, Mrs. M. N. Hogan and Mrs. Rawles Moore.

Other committees named Monday are: Program, Mrs. J. E. Edmiston; chairman; Mrs. R. W. Slieter, Mrs. N. J. Norris; membership, Mrs. L. A. Pennington, chairman; Mrs. John Fluhner and Mrs. C. A. Swiggart. Mrs. Satchwell was appointed special chairman of the scholarship loan.

New Leader

Mrs. A. J. Hanby, installed as president of the Greater Medford club for the coming year.

Mrs. Bowman Hostess Central Point Home

Former residents of Central Point, who were members of one of the oldest women's clubs organized in the town, were guests at the party given by Mrs. Homer Bowman at her home Monday afternoon of the past week.

After several hours devoted to discussion of past meetings together, refreshments were served by the hostess. The list of guests included: Miss Blanche Arnold, Mrs. William Lewis, Mrs. Joe Lester, Mrs. Raymond Crawford and children, Patty and Billy of Medford; Mrs. Frank Hensperger of Jacksonville; Mrs. Robert Brophy of Burns; Miss Rose Jones of Seven Oaks; Mrs. Ted Hill and Mrs. Claude Clark of Central Point.

Marriage June 6 of Local Interest

June 6th has been announced as the marriage date of Miss Lorena Stallings of McMinnville and Mr. Lawrence Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fisher of this city. The ceremony will be read at the home of the bride in McMinnville.

Miss Stallings is a graduate of McMinnville college and Mr. Fisher of Oregon State College, where he is now a member of the faculty, having received a fellowship in electrical engineering at graduation last year. He is also a member of Sigma Phi Sigma, social fraternity, and of Kappa Rappa Nu, honorary fraternity, on the northern campus, where the couple will make their home following their marriage.

Bride-to-be Is Honor Guest at Tea

Miss Viola Cole, whose marriage to Mr. P. Moman Aldredge of this city will be an event of late June, was honor guest at the tea given last Sunday by her sister, Miss Ethel Cole, at their home.

Those present were: Mesdames Ed Carlson, George Webb, Joe Cayo, W. J. Lingerfeldt, M. S. Ruff, Willard Cave, Edward Haines, Eugene Cole, and the Misses Carol Ferns, Elizabeth Pletcher, Lavida Culbertson, Gladys Hoffman, Jean Ruff, Viola and Ethel Cole.

Girl Scouts At Study Cove

As a grand finale to the program of the school year, members of the Girl Scout troop of the Junior high school are enjoying a week-end party at the Elliott cabin at Shady Cove. They are accompanied by Miss Lucia Deane and Miss Winifred Andrews, instructors in the local school system.

Mrs. Murphy Guest at Dipped Home

Mrs. L. B. Murphy of Scotts Bluff, Neb., has been a guest in this city during the past week of her brother, Dr. S. Ralph Dippel. During her stay here she enjoyed a motor trip to Crater Lake and other scenic drives through the valley. From Medford she will go to Eugene to meet Mr. Murphy and motor with him to California.

Mrs. Yarbrough Hostess to Club

The Pythian club met at the home of Mrs. J. R. Yarbrough, 40 Quince street, Tuesday evening. After the business session several hours were spent playing 509. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. E. J. Klein.

Kenly Returns To Ranch Home

Mr. F. C. Kenly returned to Medford the first of the week from Carmel and Ojai, Cal., after spending two weeks visiting his son, Corning, Jr., who is a student at Thacher school, and friends.

Miss Hay in San Francisco

Miss Arlene Hay of Central Point left Medford Friday evening for San Francisco where she plans to spend the summer, having accepted a position in the bay city.

Here for Vacation

Miss Golda Boone has returned to her home at Jacksonville after spending the fall, winter and spring in Lewistown, Idaho, where she is an instructor in the city high school.

Miss Butler Much Feted, Sails for Europe June 18

Many colorful social events have been planned during the past several weeks in compliment to Miss Gertrude Butler, of this city, who sails from New York, June 18th, on the Vulcania for a tour of Europe. Among the enjoyable affairs are the dancing party given Wednesday evening by Mrs. Bert Lagerson and Mrs. Justin Smith at the Lagerson home on Glen Oak Court, for which invitations were issued to 12 couples; luncheon at Blue Flower lodge, at which Mrs. Raymond Fish was hostess, followed by three tables of bridge at the latter's home on Anderson road, and a bridge party given by Miss Yvonne Smith at her home on West Main.

Mrs. W. W. Howard was hostess at a breakfast for ten at which Miss Butler was honor guest Sunday morning.

Miss Butler will be accompanied on her trip east and tour of Europe by Miss Mildred Nye. She will leave Medford June 6th, stopping in Los Angeles, San Antonio, New Orleans, and Washington, D. C. Miss Nye, who is a graduate of Oregon State college, is now in the employ of the Portland Power company. Miss Butler, a graduate of the University of Oregon, is an instructor in the Romance Language department of the local high school.

Society Vacations After Memorial Day

Many Medford people took advantage of the holiday Friday and motored to beaches and neighboring cities to spend the week-end and will be returning to their homes tonight and tomorrow morning.

Among them are Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Hultholland and daughter, Marjorie, who are at Brookings; Mr. and Mrs. J. Verne Shangle and young son Verne G., and Miss Emily Webber, who motored to Crescent City Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Beebe and children motored to Portland for the week-end Friday, and Miss Olive Parker left for that city by train Thursday evening.

Commencement To Be Friday

Commencement exercises of the 1930 graduating class of the Medford high school will be conducted in the armory Friday evening at 8 o'clock, with B. F. Irvine of Portland giving the main address. The valedictory speech will be given by Laura Drury, and the salutatory speech by William Dougherty.

In addition to the presentation of diplomas, special awards will be presented, including the results of the balloting for the outstanding boy or girl of the senior class. Those voted on at the student body meeting last week were Laura Drury, Marguerite Watson, Josephine Taylor, William Dougherty, George Winne and Glenn Simkins. The boy and girl receiving the largest number of votes will have their names engraved on separate cups which have been presented by the county fair board.

Special Musical Numbers Have Been Arranged for the Exercises

Special musical numbers have been arranged for the exercises.

Attend Commencement At Oregon State

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hubbard are among local people who are attending the commencement exercises at Oregon State college this week-end. Their son, Chester, is a member of the graduating class, which will receive degrees tomorrow morning at the commencement program.

Missionary Society Meets Tuesday

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the First M. E. church will meet with Miss May Phipps, 293 East Main street, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. J. W. Smylie will lead the study. Assisting hostesses Mrs. E. S. Hitzler, Mrs. H. W. Conger, Mrs. W. M. Van Scoyoc. Visitors always welcome.

Guests Leave For San Jose

Mrs. H. W. Fisher and daughter, Virginia, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lynum, left on the Friday evening steamer for San Jose, Cal. They were accompanied by little Miss Lillian Lynum, who will enjoy a vacation trip with them, visiting the Yellowstone national park before returning to Medford in July.

Birthday Party Saturday Evening

Mrs. Carol J. Parker entertained yesterday afternoon with a party for her young daughter Natalie, honoring her fifth birthday anniversary. Fourteen guests played games during the afternoon and shared the large pink and white birthday cake.

Luncheon for Past Matrons

Past Matrons' club will hold club luncheon at Hotel Medford at 1 p. m. Mesdames Boges, Mesdames Brayton and Riddell will be hostesses for the afternoon at the Mason's club rooms.

Mrs. Clark Hostess

Mrs. Donald S. Clark was hostess at an informal dinner for a group of friends at her home Wednesday evening. Dinner was followed by several hours of bridge.

Hostesses Thursday Tea

Miss Mave'ae Carroll and Miss Laura Drury will entertain at tea Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6 at the latter's home, 620 South Oakdale avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Grieve at Home in Prospect

PROSPECT, Ore., May 31.—(Sp.) The many friends of James Heston Grieve were glad to welcome him and his bride home after their wedding which took place at The Dalles, Oregon on Sunday, May 25th. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Caulter of The Dalles, and is a graduate of the Normal school of Month-mouth, Oregon. Most of her life has been spent in the vicinity of Hood River and The Dalles, except what time she spent in attendance at the Oregon State Normal school where she and Mr. Grieve met during his college days at the Oregon State college at Corvallis.

The wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents. The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. G. L. Matlock. They were attended by Ferial Fish and Jane Caulter—the latter a sister of the bride. Mrs. Grieve's grandmother, Mrs. J. C. Emanuel, a singer of considerable prominence, sang "I Love You Truly" before the ceremony. The bride was beautifully gowned in a beige georgette dress and carried an arm bouquet of yellow rose buds and lilies of the valley. A buffet luncheon was served following the ceremony.

After which the happy couple left for Portland on a wedding trip. Mr. and Mrs. Grieve are now at home to their many friends at Prospect, Oregon. Mr. Grieve will continue to assist his father, James E. Grieve, in the various duties in connection with the well known and popular resort at this place.

Mrs. Parsons Entertains Club

Mrs. Fred Parsons entertained the Building Bridge club Thursday afternoon at her attractive home on Park avenue. Twenty ladies enjoyed her hospitality. The company consisted of club members and Mesdames Littrell as guests, with Mrs. J. Wilkinson and Miss Mercia Miksche playing for absentees.

De-Licious Refreshments Were Served by the Hostess at the Close of the Playing

Club members extended a vote of thanks to Mrs. Parsons in appreciation of the substantial assistance this pleasant meeting had been to the club. Favours were awarded to Miss Wood and Mrs. H. A. Dubouque for high and low scores.

Meeting Night Changed For Juvenile Order

Chrysanthemum circle No. 84, Neighbors of Woodcraft, enjoyed social meeting Monday evening, May 26, with Sadie Gill acting as chairman. Bridge and 509 were played, followed by serving of light refreshments. The next meeting will be held June 9, and it was decided at the last meeting to have the juvenile order meet on the same evening as the circle in the future. The children's session to be held at 7:00 o'clock and the circle's at 8:00. Prompt attendance is urged in order that no conflict will result.

Bromley's Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Bromley entertained Tuesday evening with a dinner party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Babb of San Jose, Cal. Bridge and dancing occupied the major portion of the evening, following the dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Babb are well known here, having been former residents of the valley before their departure for San Jose, where Mr. Babb holds a responsible position with a large fruit packing concern of that city.

Card Party Planned

Ann's Altar society held a business meeting in Parish hall Tuesday afternoon. In the absence of Mrs. L. C. Garlock, the vice-president, Mrs. Fisher, presided.

Among the activities for the month, a card party was planned for Wednesday evening, June 4, to which the public is invited. Playing commences at 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Buck of Waterville, Minn., are guests in this city of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Coss. They will motor from Medford to Seattle to visit relatives and friends. Mr. Coss of this city is their nephew.

The Building Bridge club will meet with Mrs. Carney at Carney orchards, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Those who have no way to make the trip phone Mrs. Scheiffelin, 549-R.

Mrs. Soliss Hostess Wednesday Luncheon

Mrs. A. N. Soliss of Phoenix entertained with a one o'clock luncheon for a number of friends on Wednesday. The afternoon was spent playing bridge, with high score going to Mrs. Fletcher Fish; and Mrs. Ted Littlefield having low score.

Pink and white snapdragons, sweet peas and pink peonies were attractively arranged about the tables and room for the occasion. The guest list included Mesdames Charles Barnes, Ted Littlefield, Ralph Wilcox, Don Newbury, Jesse Edwards, O. C. Maust, Fletcher Fish, Edith Thompson, Eva Carless, Harry Young, Burdett Geddes, H. Boyer, Pettus, and Miss Fay Carver.

Miss Doris Rosa, niece of the hostess, assisted in serving.

Baptist Ladies Meet

The Ladies' Missionary meeting of the First Baptist church was held May 27 at the home of Dr. Carolyn, 26 South Laurel street. The president opened the meeting by reading Psalm 101. Mrs. A. E. Mead led the prayer.

After the singing of a hymn, Mrs. Effie Daily took charge of the program. She was a delegate to the Baptist state convention held in the White Temple, Portland, May 19-23. She gave a very interesting report, especially of the ladies' meeting held Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Don Platt sang a solo, "Glorious Me Thine Heart"; Mrs. Opal Finlay accompanied her on the piano. The missionary country studied on the program was South India. Rev. P. W. Slatt, who had spent 42 years there, was at the convention and told of many interesting changes that had taken place since first going to that country.

During the social hour, Mrs. Clemma Finley, Mrs. Don Platt and Mrs. J. L. Ely served sandwiches and coffee.

Ladies' Aid In Homecoming

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First M. E. church met in regular Homecoming in the church parlors Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. M. N. Hogan presiding; Mrs. T. G. Hiese leading the devotion song, "Call Him the Power of Jesus' Name"; Mrs. Hiese offered prayer; Mrs. S. L. Leonard, in behalf of the East Side Circle, presented Miss Mildred Patterson in two vocal selections, "Who is Sylvia (Shubert); "Dedication" (Franz); Mrs. L. W. Thomas, accompanist; also two readings, "Mary at a Shoeshop"; "He Didn't Come"; Miss Bobette Woodcock, during the social hour, East Side Circle served refreshments. Those observing birthdays were Mrs. Dora Hess, Mrs. Samgat Bateman, Mrs. Cora Carder, Rev. A. G. Bennet.

Honor guests were Mrs. Claude Metz, Mrs. L. W. Thomas, Misses Mildred Patterson, Bobette Woodcock, Melissa Parsons, Peggy Metz.

Mrs. Thompson Attends Reception

Mrs. J. E. Thompson of this city left the first of the week for Eugene to attend the recital given at the University of Oregon school of music in which her daughter, Miss Geraldine Thompson, played three violin numbers from "Old Masters"—a German Dance, Gavotte and Rigaudon by Mozart. Miss Thompson is a freshman in the school of music and has already won much favorable comment in the northern city through the work she has done in musical activities.

She was recently pledged to Phi Beta, national professional organization for drama and music students. She participated in the presentation of the oratorio Haydn's Creation at McArthur Court a few weeks ago.

Last Meeting For P.-T. A. Council

The City Council, P.-T. A., will hold their last meeting Monday, June 2. There will be installation of officers and two state chairmen will speak on subjects of interest to all members. A large attendance is desired.

Pythian Sisters Meet Wednesday

The regular meeting of the Pythian Sisters will be held in the hall Wednesday evening, June 4th, beginning at 8:00 o'clock.

The Frisella circle of the First M. E. church will meet with Mrs. Dora Hess, 34 North Pacific on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. A large attendance is desired.

Medford Delegates Will Attend Grand Chapter This Week

Delegates from Reames chapter to the grand chapter of O. E. S., will leave for Portland this last of the week. Mrs. Della Scheffel will attend and Mrs. W. H. McGowan, who has attended every grand chapter meeting for the past 25 years. Other delegates who will attend will be announced later.

Three day sessions and an evening reception are included in the program, which will be held at the Masonic temple.

Miss Hensley Guest Here For Vacation

Miss Bernyce Hensley arrived in this city Friday evening from Burns, Ore., where she is head of the home economics department of the city high school, to spend the summer with her sister, Miss Margaret Hensley.

She stopped in Portland, while en route, to visit relatives and friends and was guest at the Zeta Tau Alpha sorority, of which she is a member, at the University of Oregon, Eugene, for several days. Numerous affairs will be given here in her honor during the summer season.

Society Meets Tuesday

The Missionary society of Christian church will hold regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Clarence Boyd, on King's highway, Tuesday afternoon, June 3, at 2 o'clock.

The honor guests will be those who have been Christians more than forty years; all who have passed their 70th birthday; those who have been members of missionary society over 30 years.

South Methodist Junior Missionary Society

The Junior Missionary society was held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the South Methodist church. The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Tilley and Mrs. Pifer. There were two new pupils present.

After the meeting refreshments were served.

Visit Crater Lake

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Daniels of this city, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Parmer of Portland, motored to Crater Lake yesterday.

Miss Sally Roberts spent last week-end at the University of Oregon, Eugene, where she was a guest at a formal dance at the Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

Named P. T. A. Head

Mrs. Hugh Bradford, Sacramento, Cal., was elected president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers at the Denver convention.

Ore and Bullion

Purchased
WILDBERG BROS.
SMELTING & REFINING CO.
Office 742 Market St., San Francisco
Plant South San Francisco

HARRY MARX

Painter of the Homes of Men
Tinting, Paper Hanging
Phone 178-J

Sunday Dinner

Hotel Medford
Dinner $1.25
"The Food Is Better at The Medford"

"for her"

COMBINATION OFFER $100

THE SOLITAIRE. This glorious blue white diamond is nestled in a beautiful 18 kt. solid white gold mounting, in turn studded with six side settings of simulated sapphires or emeralds.

THE WEDDING BAND. Of 18 kt. solid white gold, set with 5 genuine blue white diamonds.

DIGNIFIED CREDIT TERMS
NO EXTRA COST

Brophy's JEWELLERS MEDFORD, ORE.

Member Green Watch Guild