OREGON PRODUCTS BRINGING UP FATHER

PORTLAND, Ore., June 5.—(AP)—George Kirk, first vice-president of the United States Chamber of Commerce in South Africa, who stopped here en route to his home from Washington, D. C., said that Portland, the other coast ports and the entire Pacific northwest were overlooking the vast potentialities in foreign trade.

EDEN PRECINCT

EDEN PRECINCT, Ore., June 5. (Sp.)—The rain is making haymaking very difficult as it will not cure if it shocks up, and bleaches when left in the swath. Many have lost some of the first cutting.

Mrs. Laura Dunlap, former Phoenix resident, is in the valley visiting relatives and old acquaintances in each of the valley towns. Mrs. Dunlap spent Sunday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clara Smith in Phoenix and in Phoenix Decoration day.

Mrs. Alford and her son arrived at the new home on the south highway which Mr. Alford, Senior, has been preparing since early spring. It has a big garage built and a nice garden all up and going fine.

Mrs. Marion Hartley and son Cecil were in Medford attending church Sunday, and stopped at the home of your correspondent on their way home. They have an acre of tomatoes and an acre and a half of cantaloupes, besides several acres of other garden truck.

The many friends of Jeff Devenny, who is a brother of Cally Steadman of Phoenix, will be pleased to learn of his good fortune in Alaska. Near Valdez Mr. Devenny has followed mining for many years and if reports are correct he will be independent now for the rest of his life.

Dr. and Mrs. Miller of south highway were trading in Medford Saturday. Mrs. Ed Hamlin arrived at her home on Friday evening from the bedside of her sister at Cottage Grove. Mrs. Hamlin left her sister out of danger.
