THE STORE BY THE SIDE OF THE ROAD

There's a yellow and blue store that stands by the road
On the Crater Lake Highway, they say.
Near the beautiful Rogue River, where salmon and trout
Are seen in their finest array.

'Tis the home of Richfield's most famous gas;
None better for quality, high power and speed,
Once used, you're convinced what I say is the truth,
So fill up your tank when in need.

The store that stands by the side of the road,
In the shade of a big spreading oak,
Sells groceries, candy c'gars and such
And prices are right, let us hope.

Where Mt. Pitt may be seen, anytime of the year,
All covered with beautiful snow,
It's majesty towering above other peaks
So stop at this store as you go.
