OVER LAKEVIEW CONTINUES TIE

Hot Competition for Local Golf Emblem Looms — McMahon vs. Cunningham vs. Semon in Championship Flight.

Klamath Drubs Bend, 9 to 5 While Medford Measures Lakeview, 11 to 3—Best Hurls Fine Game.

Qualifying rounds in the H. Chandler Bean golf cup tournament were completed at the Rogue Valley club yesterday. The tournament is a handicap match, the low 18 qualifiers playing the first flight.

The Medford Merchants remained in a tie with Klamath Falls, at the top of the percentage column in the Southern Oregon league, by virtue of a 11 to 3 win over Lakeview, while Klamath Falls was taking the measure of Bend, by a 9 to 5 score.

R. D. Semon, scoring a net 68, won the prize for the low net score in the qualifying round. Don Clark, chairman of the tournament committee, announced today. Mr. Semon scored an 86 and is listed with a handicap of 18. Championship flight drawings are as follows: R. Semon vs. H. J. McMahon; R. Cunningham vs. J. A. Thompson; F. J. McPherson vs. L. W. Wilcox; H. H. Pringle vs. M. A. Weston; E. E. Kelly vs. C. C. Lemmon; C. S. Newhall vs. D. G. Tyree; C. J. Semon vs. R. Buckingham; R. Verdin vs. R. B. Hammond.

Four hundred people saw the locals win in the sagebrush capital, and a crowd of 500 witnessed the Klamath-Bend game. Medford clinched the game in the second inning, when they scored six runs off Burton, aided by a combination of hits and errors.

Second flight drawings: Geo. Pythian vs. D. R. Wood; Ted Baker vs. S. S. Smith; Keith Ighman vs. B. Gray; T. Travis vs. T. W. Miles; H. Rosenberg vs. G. Robinson; H. S. Deuel vs. Earl Tully; T. B. Emmons vs. George Roberts; H. D. McCaskey vs. H. A. Marx.

Lakeview was unable to score off Best. In the seventh, Montgomery went to the mound, and was greeted with a home run from the bat of Chico, with a runner on. They netted another run in the eighth. Best yielded two hits during his stay in the box.

Third flight: R. G. Bardwell vs. S. Reigel; Frank Doremus vs. Corbin Edgell; W. F. Biddle vs. P. Larson.

Chester played second base for Medford and committed two errors—one a wild throw to first. He pecked out a couple of hits, and lost two more through rank decisions.

LOCAL TENNIS STARS DEFEAT KLAMATH FOES

Making a clean sweep in all doubles matches and breaking even in the singles events, Medford's tennis team defeated Klamath Falls Sunday in the latter city by 11 matches to 6. The best that Medford could do in the singles was an even break. Edmiston, Bailey, Tollefson and Ramsey turned in wins for the locals while Jacobs, Wilson, Garfield and Pruitt were defeated.

After losing to the Klamath ladies, two matches to one in the singles, Medford lady players came through in all of their doubles and mixed doubles and wound up the match leading four to two. Ralph Bailey, Oregon State star, played in three matches and turned in a perfect score for the day. Paired with Tollefson, he won his doubles engagement and later returned to the courts with Miss Mary Edmiston and defeated Mr. and Mrs. Dixon, Klamath's first mixed doubles team.

Tollefson, Jimmy Edmiston, Ramsey, Miss Helen Edmiston and Ann May Furon also turned in perfect scores. Monty Jacobs, local ace, playing at No. 1 for the locals, lost to Robertson, Pelican star, in one of the feature matches of the day. The results follow: Jacobs (M) lost to Robertson (KF) 2-6, 7-9.

YOUTH AND AGE SHARE LAURELS IN BIG LEAGUES

Veterans Luque and Heilmann in Spotlight—Hoyt Hurls 1 to 0 Win in First Start for Detroit.

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr. Associated Press Sports Writer. A perusal of the current major league records seems to indicate that a player must be very young or very old, as baseball ages go, to get a full share of this season's glory.

Luque and Heilmann are basking in the brightest rays of the limelight today. The veteran Cuban hurler is at the top of the National league's pitchers with a record of six straight victories. Yesterday he turned back the Chicago Cubs with four hits, while Brooklyn scored a 6 to 0 victory and increased its margin of leadership to three full games.

Heilmann is close to the top of the batters in the National league. In two games against the Phillies yesterday he improved his latest official average of .402 by several points, hitting five times in nine times at bat and giving Cincinnati a 5 to 4 victory in the first contest with a home run. Heilmann could not offset the Philadelphia slugger in the second game and the Phillies won it by a 9 to 2 count.

Seibold also did well after a couple of bad games. He pitched his tenth complete game in a dozen starts to beat Pittsburgh, 10 to 6. The youthful Berger contributed his 17th home run of the season in a rally. Waite Hoyt, another veteran, who seemed to be about through with the New York Yankees, made his first start for Detroit and won out, 1 to 0, in a six inning game.

Ted Lyons, one of the season's consistent winners, gave the Philadelphia Athletics four extra base hits in one inning. This was just enough to give the world's champions a 6 to 3 victory over Chicago, producing four runs. Young Wes Ferrell of Cleveland finally passed Lyons in the number of games won by holding Washington in check and finally driving in a run in the ninth inning to win his own game 3 to 2.

Perrell's victory improved Cleveland's position in the American league standings considerably as the St. Louis Browns subdued the New York Yankees with a 5 to 4 triumph. The New York Giants defeated the St. Louis Cardinals, 4 to 1, for their eighth successive victory and the 12th Cardinal defeat in 13 games.

Nine Homers in S. F. The double bill at San Francisco was marked by nine homers, in the morning Sheely and Wingo connected for the Seals, Sheely getting two and Johnny Miljus and the Reds well controlled, although Fred Hoffman and Ike Boone also registered circuit clouts.

Oakland, a close follower of the Senators two weeks ago, was toned down somewhat by losing a series to Seattle, the closing games yesterday being split. Pete Dagnia kept the Indians in hand in the first game to win 6 to 2. In the seven-inning closing encounter, Andy House let the Oaks have no more than one run each inning, and turned in a 3 to 2 victory.

No games today. Teams traveling. Series this week: Hollywood at Missions, San Francisco at Los Angeles, Oakland at Sacramento (night games), Portland at Seattle.

In Pro Ball
Reynold... of the University of Oregon baseball team for the last three years has signed a contract to pitch for the Bloomington team of the Three Eye league. MacDonald was the leading pitcher for the Ducks this year, taking part in 12 games. He won nine and lost three, two of them extra inning contests.

Leads Sluggers

Babe Herman, Brooklyn outfielder, is batting well over .400 to lead National league batters.

RING FANS HAIL JACK SHARKEY AS NEXT CHAMP

Odds Continue to Climb in Favor of Boston Gob — 2 to 1 Bets Laid As Ring Time Nears.

By Edward J. Neil. Associated Press Sports Writer. NEW YORK, June 9.—(P)—The rank and file of fistiana, from the high-powered experts down to the two-dollar seat boys who will perch in the bleachers at the Yankee stadium, Thursday night, are hailing Jack Sharkey today as the next heavy weight champion of the world.

Three days before the 15-round battle in the big American league ball park, where possibly 70,000 of the faithful will gather to yell for their favorite and pay homage to the new king of the prize ring, the odds are climbing steadily in Sharkey's favor. He was "even money" when the match was made, then a 7 to 5 favorite, 8 to 5, and now he is becoming a 2 to 1 shot to beat back the bid of the hard-hitting young Teuton.

Favorites Seldom Win. Records of the prize ring going back into the earliest championship struggles of modern times, show few instances where the favorite came through to victory. John L. Sullivan, Jim Corbett, Bob Fitzsimmons, Jim Jeffries, Jack Johnson, Jess Willard, Jack Dempsey, all lost their titles in bouts in which they were favorites.

Any question of condition must seem to be answered in the Boston harbor's favor. He has trained slowly and evenly and is steadily approaching the 176 pounds he hopes to weigh Thursday night.

German Fine Drawn. Schmelzing has been seriously hampered by fear of going stale, lack of excess weight to work against, and the necessity of keeping a fine edge, reached too early. The German puncher, too, seems to have gone slightly soft crazy, and one day when he should have been resting, shot 34 holes under a feverish sun.

Sharkey has always had trouble with rushing puncher fighters of Schmelzing's type though he also has displayed marked ability to absorb punishment. Johnny Risica and Tom Henney charged the Boston sailor out of one chance at the championship and the most aggressive warrior of them all, Jack Dempsey, knocked him out.
