LADIES' AID MEETING ENJOYED IN PHOENIX

PHOENIX, Ore., June 10.—(Spl.) Members of the Ladies' Aid society attending the regular meeting and birthday party of the society at the church parlor Thursday afternoon report a very enjoyable afternoon. During the business session reports of standing committees were given. A committee was appointed to prepare for the Christmas bazaar, and to start at this time buying materials and articles to be sold. A short but enjoyable program was presented. Covers were spread for thirty ladies for the luncheon served following the meeting. Partners were chosen by number. The birthday cake was a huge three tier affair, each of the three layers being different in size. Motion was carried to dispense with the July meeting as it falls on July 3rd. Mrs. L. C. Cantor of Eagle Point was a visitor at the meeting. Clean cotton rags wanted at Mail Tribune office.
