FAST SERVICE FROM RINGSIDE STARTING 5:30

Local Firms Donate Radio Time for Broadcast — Keen Interest of Fans in Outcome.

The Mail Tribune will broadcast over KMED, and bulletin from his office on North Fir street, the Jack Sharkey-Max Schmeling fight for the world's heavyweight championship. It will be a round-by-round, blow-by-blow description, furnished by the Associated Press, direct from ringside, New York City.

The main event will start about 5:30 p. m. (Medford time), but there will be preliminary reports broadcast shortly before that time.

Transmission over the local station, will give fight fans of the city and valley, good reception, and eliminate dependence on distant stations with static common at this time of the year.

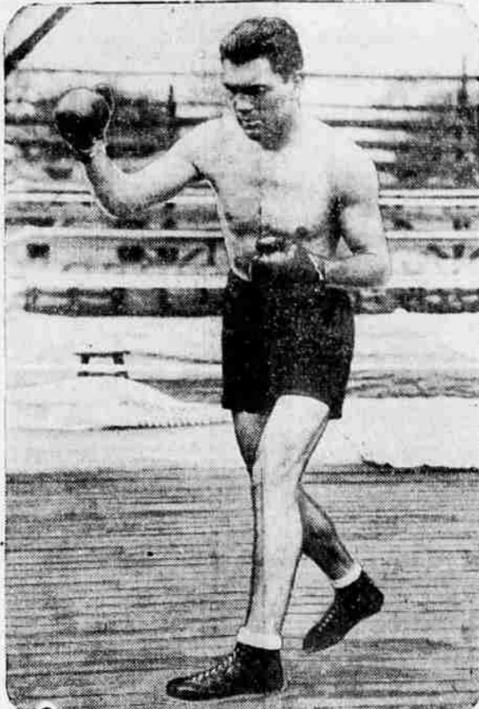

Co-operating with The Mail-Tribune, by donation of their radio time are the following local firms: the Growers' Exchange, Jackson County Building and Loan association, and Firestone One-Stop Service station.

Leo Bishop will be at the mike. The Sharkey-Schmeling fight is the outstanding fight event of the summer, and Southern Oregon fans have a keen interest in the outcome. Medford fans as a matter of hard logic figure Sharkey to win, but sentimentally they would like to see the "Dutchman" get the decision.

SENATORS FIND OAKLAND EASY UNDER MAZDAS

Defeat Bay Team 8 to 0 in Inauguration of Floodlight Play—Seals Move Up to Second Place.

(By the Associated Press.)

So far as the Sacramento Senators were concerned, last night's initial test of baseball by artificial lighting was quite successful—12,000 fans being satisfied by the mechanical provisions and the Sacs beating Oakland, 8 to 0, to stretch their lead in the Pacific Coast league. A bevy of prominent guests in the stands saw the leaders pounce Howard Craghead in the fourth for five runs, as Bryan pitched nine innings of shut-out ball for the winners.

Pierson relieved Craghead on the mound for the Oaks, and was hit for three more scores. Only two errors, both by Oakland, 10 strikeouts and seven extra-base hits at tested to the practicability of the lighting system.

Seals Advance.

San Francisco moved into second place again by taking the first of its series from Los Angeles, 7 to 3. Elmer Jacobs worked well on the mound for the Seals as they overcame a two-run first inning Angel lead to make considerable trouble for Bartfoot and Peters.

The Missions advanced to within a half game of the last first division club by downing Hollywood, 10 to 3, as young "Dutch" Lober pitched consistently good ball for the Reds.

Seattle emerged with a slight advantage in a tight 15-inning battle with Portland in the opener of their series, winning 6 to 5.

RAINS INTERFERE IN PRACTICE FOR BRITISH TOURNEY

HOYLAKE, Eng., June 11.—(AP)—Heavy rains interfered today with preliminary practice for the British open golf championship, to which play begins next week. Both the Royal Liverpool course at Hoylake and the Walley course however, benefited from the down pour.

Bobby Jones, who arrived from London last night after ten days with preliminary practice for the British open golf championship, to which play begins next week. Both the Royal Liverpool course at Hoylake and the Walley course however, benefited from the down pour.

Leo Diegel, MacDonald Smith and Horton Smith played a very wet three ball match over the Walley course where one of the qualifying rounds will be played.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 11.—(AP)—Leo Lomski, Aberdeen, and Fred Lenhart of Spokane, light heavyweights, who fought in a ten-round draw here May 29, have been matched for a ten-round main event here July 22.

NEW YORK, June 11.—(AP)—In the most interesting and most extravagantly ballyhooed fight affair since the late Tex Rickard pulled the strings of the heavy-weight punch and judo show, Jack Sharkey will fight Max Schmeling tomorrow night, 15 rounds or less, at the Yankee stadium for the "heavy" world championship of the world.

It is by all odds the most significant heavy-weight bout since the retirement of Gene Tunney, but whether the winner will be recognized outside of Germany, Lithuania and the United States remains to be seen.

With any kind of an even break from old man weather, a crowd of 75,000 fans probably will pay in excess of $100,000 to see the big show. This is a far cry from the figures attending the last of the outstanding Rickard extravaganza on Chicago's lake front in 1927, but it exceeds anything on the books of the heavy-weight business for the past three years.

In addition the customers will have the happy opportunity to serve a double purpose in being fitted the children's milk fund, sponsored by Mrs. William Randolph Hearst, and in aiding the recovery of the indigent heavy-weight division.

Two Points Debated.

Today, the two main questions for debate among the railbirds are:

First, can Schmeling carry the fight heights that three previous foreign challengers, Firpo, Carpenter and Heeney, failed to reach?

Second, can Sharkey overcome the temperamental jinx that has seemed to pursue him in international competition and fight at his best?

This fight is no exception when it comes to the speculative "ifs" and "buts" or even the loose talk that everything is "in" and "all right" for one principal or the other. So far as that goes it is just the ballyhoo that has become a part of the game.

The claims for one corner that Schmeling will win if he crowds and harasses Sharkey from the outset are countered by the cries that the Teuton will have his ears cuffed off if he mixes too willingly.

Claim Offset.

The belief that Sharkey is due for one of his good fights and, therefore, will emerge the winner is offset by his record of consistently putting up mediocre bouts against foreign rivals.

Sharkey, his fought his good fights almost exclusively against the domestic punch absorbers. His most impressive performances were scored against Harry Wills and George Godfrey, the so-called black menaces; Jim Maloney and Tommy Loughran, representing the Irish-American contingent.

This information may be food for the hunch-players, though not consoling to the patriots, who will consider it a national calamity, scarcely less important than the wall street crash, if the heavy-weight title is lost to America.

In spite of it, the form players have made Sharkey a 3 to 5 favorite in the betting and he probably will enter the ring at that figure.

CARDS DESCENT HALTED BY 2-1 BOSTON DEFEAT

Win Gives St. Louis Second Victory in Twelve Games — Cubs Suffer Setback By Collins.

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer

A little thing like a rapidly descending elevator, which causes unpleasant sensations in many quarters, shouldn't bother the St. Louis Cardinals a bit from now on. The Cards went up to the top of the National league with about the greatest possible speed, winning 17 out of 18 games, and have been coming down from the heights with about as great rapidity.

The Cardinals came to a temporary stop in their losing yesterday after dropping five straight games, but it took them 10 long innings to gain a 2 to 1 decision over the Boston Braves and even that triumph left them with a record of only two victories in their last 12 games.

The Chicago Cubs, who appeared to be heading for the job of successors to the Cards as league leaders, suffered another setback yesterday when they ran into Phil Collins of Philadelphia and got only six hits, Philadelphia winning, 6 to 2.

All the other National league games and the Washington-Cleveland contest in the American were rained out.

Another champion club, the Philadelphia Athletics, dropped an 11-inning struggle to the Chicago White Sox by a 7 to 6 count.

The Boston Red Sox defeated the Detroit Tigers, 12 to 6.

The New York Yankees got a fast start against the St. Louis Browns and scored all their runs in the first two innings to win, 5 to 3.

French Golf Queen and Tennis Star Will Have June Wedding

By Thomas T. Topping
Associated Press Staff Writer.

PARIS, June 11.—(AP)—On the stroke of noon, Monday, June 30th the chimes in the tower of Sainte Chapelle church will ring gaily to announce the wedding of Mademoiselle Simone Thion de la Chaume, queen of the French golf kingdom and Rene LaCoste, former Napoleon of world's tennis.

Their romance began aboard the transatlantic liner which brought the two young folks back from the United States to France in 1927. That was after Rene LaCoste by his victories over William T. Tilden and William Johnston had been the main artisan of the French victory which brought the Davis cup to France for the first time, and it was after Mademoiselle de la Chaume had made a most creditable showing, although not achieving such signal success, in the women's golf championships of the United States.

The romance was continued in the world of society, to which both families belong, the LaCostes as leaders in the automobile and airplane motor industry of France and the de la Chaumes as an old family dating back from the Bourbon regime.

It will be a real Parisian wedding.

Personalities of the aristocracy of the Faubourg Saint Germain, leaders in the world of industry and finance, princes of tennis and princesses of golf, will form that day around the two champions, a circle of admirers and well wishers.

"We want as little display as possible," Mademoiselle de la Chaume told the correspondent.

WILDCAT PETE AND YAQUI TO GRAPPLE HERE

Eugene Wrestler Will Seek Junior Middleweight Belt Recently Won By Indian Matman.

Yaqui Joe, the Sonora, Mex., Indian and holder of the world's junior middleweight wrestling championship, may not hold the belt long after winning it here two weeks ago from Henry Jones, Utah. Joe is to meet one of the most dangerous contenders on the coast here Monday night when Wildcat Pete comes down from Eugene to show the Indian that he's not such a champion after all.

Yaqui Joe has not had the belt at stake since winning it from Jones and has had several matches, including one with Pete at Eugene last week. Pete won that match at the end of one hour and 20 minutes when both wrestlers fell out of the ring. Pete was able to return, but the Indian suffered injuries that prevented him from doing so.

The match is declared to have been one of the hardest fought that Eugene fans had witnessed for months.

Promoter Herb Owen is going to considerable expense to stage the event in Medford and is looking forward to whole-hearted support from Medford and southern Oregon wrestling fans.

Yaqui Joe is not afraid of Pete and is anxious to show him that he is a true champion, able to defeat all comers. The Indian is apt to make good use of his flying toe hold and if ever it is applied, curtains fall for the luckless victim. It was that way that Jones lost to Joe here a short time ago, after having held the belt for a considerable length of time.

Pete is great on the airplane spin and he delights in picking up his opponent and whirling him around giddily only to drop him on the mat with a resounding thump. Usually the victims fall to arise and the match is over. As a rule, they don't come back for the next fall. However, the Indian is on to Pete's tricks and it will be with some difficulty that Pete will ever even come close to this dangerous hold.

There will be the usual good special event.

TED THYE BEATS BILLY EDWARDS

PORTLAND, Ore., June 11.—(AP)—after each wrestler had taken a fall in their rematch here last night, Billy Edwards of Kansas City sent word from his dressing room he could not continue on account of an injured shoulder, and Ted Thye took the decision by default. Edwards won the first fall with his knuckle headlocks in 23 minutes and 13 seconds. Thye forced Edwards to give up with forward and tearing wristlock for his second fall in 7 minutes and 25 seconds.

The six-round preliminary between Harry Demetral and Walter Logan, ended in a draw, each taking a fall.

Mme. Celestine d'Arpignac horse-whipped her husband after he defeated her in a lawsuit at Bordeaux, France, and she was sent to jail.

FRANKIE GENARO BEATS BELANGER TO RETAIN TITLE

TORONTO, Ont., June 11.—(AP) Once again Frankie Genaro, recognized as the flyweight champion by the national boxing commission, has thwarted the attempt of Albert (Frenchy) Belanger to regain the crown that formerly rested on the Canadian's head.

Genaro retained his national boxing commission title last night with a slashing 10-round victory over Belanger. The diminutive Toronto fighter had the best of the argument for four rounds, but thereafter Frankie displayed the speed and cleverness that has carried him to the top of the division.

The fight was a speedy affair from the start to the finish, but the champion fought ahead slowly and surely in point scoring as the end drew into view. Late in the fight Genaro scored repeatedly with left jab and a powerful overhand right.

They gave a new Thrill

THAT'S WHY THEY GOT THERE... SO QUICKLY

One year before JIMMY FOXX joined the "A's" he was milking cows in Maryland. Four years later he was one of the greatest hitters in baseball.

FAST SUCCESS STORY NO. 2 JIMMY FOXX

"Look at those shoulders! That boy's a natural batting wonder." Jimmy was just a rookie when Connie Mack gave him that size-up. 4 years later he was crowding the swat kings of both leagues for the batting championship.

Just so OLD GOLD rose from a rookie brand to a big league leader in four years' time. Better tobaccos . . . free from irritants. That's why O.G. has outsold three other leading brands combined, in a like period of their existence.
