

Scatter Gunners Enrolling For Mail Tribune Trophy Shoot

KEEN INTEREST BEING SHOWN IN TRAP TOURNAMENT

June 22 Event Carries Many Prizes for 'Pigeon Busters'—Entry Blank Published Today.

Rogue River valley trap fans are anticipating the Mail Tribune's first annual trap shoot slated for Sunday, June 22nd. This shoot, the first of regular annual events to be staged by the Mail Tribune, will mark the opening of the beautiful new grounds of the Rogue Valley Gun Club on the Medford airport. Already fans are enrolling for participation in the outstanding sporting event which officially opens the summer season.

No qualifications for previous shooting experience are necessary for those who wish to compete for the handsome Mail Tribune trophy and countless other awards and merchandise prizes. Every participant, in fact, will receive a prize, regardless of the score made in the shoot.

The Tribune trophy will be the incentive for keen competition each year as the silver shield will bear the names of tournament winners each year and can only become the permanent property of a shooter when he has won three successive annual shoots. Since it will be a real distinction to head the list of Tribune trophy winners, valley trigger pullers are looking forward with genuine interest to the opening shoot.

Many Awards

In addition to the Tribune trophy there will be awards for runner-up, low gun, best novice and merchandise prizes for everyone who enters the contest. Two of the three fine traps, installed on the new Rogue Valley Gun Club grounds, will be used and each entry will shoot 50 pigeons.

The surroundings of the local club's new grounds are claimed to be the very finest in the northwest and the club house and equipment the equal of any in this section of the west.

For the convenience of those who wish to enter the Mail Tribune shoot, an entry blank is published in this issue of the Tribune. This blank, together with the nominal entry fee, should be mailed to S. G. Mendenhall, manager of the Rogue Valley Gun Club with offices in the Fox Center building.

Those who enroll early will have the advantage of being squared for early shooting on the morning of the Tribune tournament. Everyone in southern Oregon is invited to enter the match or enjoy it as spectators. There will be no admission charge for spectators and all participants will be privileged to the Rogue Valley Gun Club's accommodations.

MINIATURE GOLF ATTRACTS CROWD

Miniature golf promises to be one of the summer's most popular games, judging from the open-air crowds at the miniature course on Eighth street, opened yesterday for the season. The links, similar to those that have taken cities by storm in all parts of the country, are so constructed as to supply all the enjoyment of a regular game. However, only the putter is used but the course has all the hazards and some not found on big courses.

The links have been under construction for several weeks and are operated under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Barker, who furnish players with balls, score cards and clubs. The course is open from 7 a. m. to midnight daily and is lighted at night with a battery of lights that make playing an evening joy.

OAKLAND, Cal. — Max Baer, Oakland, knocked out Buck Weaver, Medicine Lodge, Kans. (1).

NEW YORK, June 12.—(AP)—Jack Sharkey will have a weight advantage of nine pounds over Max Schmeling in their struggle for heavyweight supremacy tonight. The German weighed in at 188 pounds and Sharkey at 197 today.

The fighters did not meet at the weighing-in ceremonies in the dressing room at the Yankee stadium. Sharkey arrived on the scene nearly an hour ahead of time and stopped on the scales. It was after one p. m. the hour set for the weighing, when Schmeling appeared.

Schmeling was declared by Dr. William Walker, the boxing commission's official examiner, to be the most nervous heavyweight he has ever examined. His blood pressure was exceptionally high, though apparently due somewhat to temporary nervousness.

Looks Stolid

"Schmeling looks to be the typically stolid German type," Dr. Walker said. "But apparently this conceals a very high-strung temperament. His blood pressure gives a count of 152-80 compared with the normal of 120-70. Sharkey was 138-76, only slightly above normal."

A slight sprinkle of rain occurred shortly after 1 p. m. (E. S. T.) It lasted only a few minutes and the general prospects still were the weather would not prevent the fight.

Sharkey remained a betting favorite, at approximately 2 to 1, but there was very little wagering reported, compared to other heavyweight title occasions.

Associated Press Sports Editor
NEW YORK, June 12.—(AP)—Little of New York was again the big fight town today with its rush and roar as the background for a world's heavyweight championship match between the youthful German from Hamburg and the homebred, a Lithuanian American from Boston.

Tonight, some 15 minutes from the heart of the city, where the old timers followed defiance at each other, Jack Sharkey and Max Schmeling swap punches for 15 rounds or less, each seeking the same object—recognition as the heavyweight king and successor to the retired ruler, Gene Tunney.

notable ringside assembly, figured to pay something like $750,000 in the interests of charity and for the privilege of seeing a fresh chapter unfolded in heavyweight history.

The scenes, the times and the gladiators in this fistie extravaganza, promoted by a corporation whose directors are millionaires and whose stock is sold in Wall street, represent a far cry from the June night at Coney Island 21 years ago, when James J. Jeffries won the heavyweight title from froekled Hob Fitzsimmons before a crowd of 10,000.

On that memorable occasion the chief of police was at the ringside to stop the bout "after the first hard blow," but he said everything was "all right" after Jeffries, then a 22-year-old kid, knocked out the veteran Fitzsimmons in the 11th round.

Sharkey Favored

Sharkey ruled the favorite to beat back the challenge of his youthful German antagonist, keep the line of title succession in the United States and climax his own title career with a victory. The ex-soldier fumbled his two previous chances, in 1927 and 1928, to battle his way to the championship spotlight. Temperamental and uncertain though he has been, the majority of experts picked Sharkey to win. The gamblers backed him at odds ranged from 2 to 1 down to 7 to 5.

Boxing skill and experience were on Sharkey's side, with a vigorous punch to support them. Courage, ambition and an equally dangerous wallop were the main assets of Schmeling. Both possessed the stamina for a hard fight, if necessary, to the limit of 15 rounds, with a referee and two judges to cast the final verdict.

The Sharkey of four or five years ago, when he was scrapping courageously for heavyweight recognition against any and all foes, would have gone into the big bout an even bigger favorite than he has been.

German's Chance

Youth and its compelling force were on Schmeling's side this time. In that reversal of the situation, in the do-or-bust spirit of the underdog, many of the experts foresaw the German's best chance of triumph. They envisioned Max in the same position as Dempsey at Toledo, as Tunney at Philadelphia, fighting against odds but also with an excellent fighting chance.

Moreover, Schmeling represents the new Germany. He is the first Teuton to challenge for the heavyweight championship and typical of the youthful generation that has figured in Germany's athletic comeback, one of the most remarkable in history. They have labeled him the "German Dempsey," largely upon a physical resemblance. But he needs the Manassa Mauler's aggressive courage and punch to night to gain a flat footing occupied for so long by Dempsey.

Many "Ear" Fans

The eye witnesses were numbered in thousands but the "ear witnesses" figured to run well up into the millions, with a national network broadcasting the blow-by-blow details from the ring. On short wave lengths the ring-side story also was to be broadcast to Europe and South America, with the chance that Australia and the Orient might be able to tune in. More than 500 newspaper men were assembled to peer intently at the proceedings and contribute a few million words to the descriptive output.

The fight preliminaries were held to begin around 7 p. m. (E. S. T.) and the main bout at 9 p. m.

STRANGLER LEWIS BEATS MARSHALL

LOS ANGELES, June 12.—(AP)—Ed "Strangler" Lewis, veteran wrestler and one-time claimant to the title of world champion won two falls out of three from Everest Marshall, La Junta, Colo., heavyweight, in an exhibition here last night.

KEN WILLIAMS HERO OF GAME WITH A HOMER

Grants Pass Veteran Poles Out Long One for Beavers to Break Tie in Ninth Inning.

By the Associated Press.
Seattle hit four Portland rounds men consistently but lost when a timely single by Ken Williams, Grants Pass veteran, in the ninth scored a run for Portland breaking a tie and giving the Ducks the game, 5 to 4, the defeat being charged to Zahniar.

Oakland put an end to the winning streak of the Pacific Coast League's leading pitcher, Tony Freitas of Sacramento, last night in the second evening encounter played by the two teams, winning by 10 to 9 as a result of a last-inning single. Freitas had won all his previous seven starts.

Frank Crosetti, shining shortstop of San Francisco, clouted two homers and Red Wingo, hot a homer and two doubles as the Seals moved into a threatening position by winning their second straight from Los Angeles, 6 to 5. Six double plays were the only interesting feature of a game in which seven errors by the Missions caused their defeat by Hollywood, 9 to 6. Ted Pillemer, Red pitcher, worked as catcher after an umpire put Hoffman out of the game.

LAKEVIEW NINE BOLSTERED FOR MEDFORD GAME

Easterners Planning Stiff Battle Here On Sunday—Bowman and Valencia Out of Lineup.

The Lakeview Shepherds and the Medford Merchants will cross bats Sunday at 2 p. m. at the Jackson county fairgrounds.

Manager Anderson of the Lakeview team, who keeps in touch with bush league players on the entire coast, is strengthening the Lakeview team as fast as possible, and will give the Medford team a stiff argument in next Sunday's game.

In the last seven innings at Lakeview last Sunday, the Shepherds held the Medford team on even terms, each side scoring three runs during that time.

Locals Add Two

With Bowman and Valencia out of Medford's lineup and two new players added to their roster, Lakeview is liable to surprise the fans Sunday.

Business Manager Court Hall has also added a new pitcher and outfielder to the Medford lineup. Percy O'Brien, the hard-hitting outfielder, will probably play first base and either Dye or Chester will take care of third.

So far, the Medford ball team has been losing money, as the receipts of the home games are not sufficient to pay expenses on out-of-town trips.

Sunday is slated to be the first warm baseball Sunday. With an attendance of 500 people the Medford team can see its way through the season. The largest attendance so far has been 276 people.

It might be interesting to state that Lakeview, with a population of 1200 people, is outdistancing the city of Medford and the surrounding country, with a population of 20,000 people. With this number of people, the Medford team should draw approximately 1,000 fans at every game.

FORESEE SUCCESS OF FISH PETITION AS NAMES POUR IN

Signed petitions for the Rogue River fishing amendment are continuously arriving at the offices of the Rogue River committee from all parts of the state, officers of the committee announced this morning.

Most of the petitions circulated in eastern Oregon were rapidly signed, have been checked, and are now on file at committee headquarters. Others are still being circulated in all counties of western Oregon and will probably be sent to the office of the committee by the end of the week.

No doubt that a sufficient number of signatures will be obtained to get the fishing amendment on the November ballot is maintained by officers of the committee, they stated this morning.

Gamblers Syndicate Finds Toronto Only Place Where Cops Are Honest

TORONTO, June 12.—(AP)—After asserting that "this is the first city on the American continent that we have not been able to fix," a syndicate of gamblers were on their way out of town today, leaving a quantity of paraphernalia behind in the hands of police.

The operators, with 35 employees, were ordered to leave after police raided their establishment in Exhibition park, just as the place was about to open for business.

"Anywhere else they would have winked at it when big dollars were going on in the city," one of the syndicate, who gave New York as his address, told police.

This "big dollars" were taken to mean the international convention of Shriners in session here.

The equipment seized by police included roulette wheels, dice tables, rouge-et-noir layouts and other devices.

MONDAY GRAPPLE OF JOE AND PETE AT CLASS WEIGHT

Yaqul Joe and Wildcat Pete must be under the 154-pound limit when they meet here next Monday night for their match, in which the world's junior middleweight championship is at stake.

The Sonora Indian and the Eugene wrestler will weigh in Monday afternoon and post forfeits to be under the limit.

Medford fans have seen the famous Yaqul Joe in action and they have also seen Wildcat Pete do his stuff. Having seen both of them, the fans can draw their own conclusions who will be the next champion in this wrestling division.

Salem has been trying its best to get the match following a non-title bout between the two men at Eugene a short time ago. The champion will battle hard to retain the belt and the challenger is apt to be even more inspired in gain possession. Joe is now at the seashore resting up a bit for the final tussle and Pete is working out hard.

Dummy Powell will perform in the special event.

UMPIRE'S LEG BROKEN BY HARD LINE DRIVE

DETROIT, June 12.—(AP)—Umpire Clarence (Brick) Owens was injured today when a line drive from Harry Rice's bat struck his left leg in the seventh inning of the Yankee-Tiger baseball game. Owens was carried from the field with what was believed to be a broken leg.

Herbert Edwards, 82, and wife, 76, who had often expressed the wish not to outlive each other, died less than an hour apart at Sheepshead, England.

ROBINS UNAWED BY GIANT FOES CONTINUE WINS

Lopez Brings Victory Over Reds With Bingle in Ninth Frame—Cubs Break Losing Streak.

By Herbert W. Barker.
Associated Press Sports Writer.
Despite a nine-inning winning streak by them, ahead rivals, the New York Giants, Wilbert Robinson's amazing Brooklyn Robins continue to show their heels to the rest of the National league field and confidently look forward to their first pennant since 1920.

The Giants, despite their long string of wins, still are five games out of first place.

The Giants took Pittsburgh over the hurdles, 9 to 2, yesterday, but gained not one inch of ground as the Robins, behind Dazzy Vance's great pitching, nosed out the Cincinnati Reds, 2-1.

Vance held the Reds to four hits but it took a pinch single by Al Lopez in the ninth to bring the Robins victory.

The Giants slammed Meigs and Jones for 18 solid hits to trounce the Pirates, who found Karl Hubbell a mystery they could not solve. The Giants had the game won as early as the sixth inning, leading by 4 to 2, but decided to make it safer by scoring twice in the seventh and three times in the eighth when Mel Ott chipped the 13th homer with two on base.

Roots Cuts Cubs

Charley Root's fine pitching enabled the Chicago Cubs to break their losing streak at Philadelphia expense, 6 to 2. The victory let the Cubs in second place, three and a half games behind the Robins and a game and a half ahead of the Giants.

In the American league, Washington's Senators advanced to within a game and a half of first place by whipping Chicago, 2 to 1, while the Philadelphia Athletics were bowing to Cleveland, 6 to 2.

Detroit put on a seven-run rally in the seventh to trounce the New York Yankees, 13 to 7.

Other scheduled major league games were postponed.

NEW YORK.—Jack (Kid) Berg, England, outpinned Herman Peltch, Kalamazoo, Mich. (10); Sammy Dorfman, New York, outpinned Johnny Farr, Cleveland, (10); Willie Siegel, New York, outpinned Henry Perlick, Kalamazoo, Mich. (10).
